

Duke Edges West Virginia, 90-88

Johnson Wins Thriller In Last Seconds

The North Carolina State Wolfpack easily defeated the George Washington Colonials last night at Raleigh in the Southern Conference Tournament.

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel) Raleigh, March 7—Guard Dick Johnson of the Duke Blue Devils sank a set shot in the last second of the game to beat the West Virginia Mountaineers, 90-88, tonight before a capacity crowd in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum.

The officials had to consult with the timekeeper before they could render a decision on the basket, as Johnson shot the ball simultaneously with the sound of the buzzer ending the game.

Duke led 88-87 with 1:18 left in the game when its All-America Dick Groat fouled out of the game. The Mountaineers took the ball out of bounds instead of trying the foul shot, froze the ball, and staked their chances on a last minute shot. But Mou Moore, West Virginia guard, was fouled with 24 seconds remaining in the contest, and the Mountaineers made the shot to tie the score at 88 all.

The Blue Devils took the ball down the court and were tied up, but Rudy D'Emilio passed off to Johnson who held the ball for two seconds and then attempted his shot. The basket was good, but the officials first ruled that it came after the game was over. After consulting with the timekeeper, the officials decided that the shot was good, and gave the game to Duke 90-88.

Virginia's All-America, Mark Workman, fouled out with five minutes remaining in the game after scoring 15 points. Workman committed four fouls in the first half, which hampered his play for the rest of the game, while Groat scored 31 points to lead the scoring.

Duke trailed at halftime, 51-44, but the Blue Devils, led by Groat, went on a scoring spree and led West Virginia 73-68 at the end of the third quarter.

YOU CAN'T GET A GIRL WITH A GULP

OR How do you know when your best foot's forward?

Once there was a Senior who was Shy. (Look, this is a story. It permits certain liberties with the truth.) He'd call up a Girl, stammer incoherently through the Preliminaries, gurgled helplessly through the Bicuspid, and hang up. Dateless. One day his room-mate took him in hand. "Herman, old buddy," he said, "... and unfolded a Plan. Next day the Big Girl on Campus got a Telegram. A terse message. Simply: "Will pick you up at eight P.M. Friday. Regards, Herman H. Glockenspiel." She was intrigued. Friday evening she was bibbed and tucked and waiting when Herman sheepishly up the steps of her Sorority house. "Are you Herman H. Glockenspiel?" she cooed. "Ulp," said Herman. "Ooooh," she said, taking his arm. "I just love Original, Masterful Men." Herman was on his way.

Now Herman has more dates than the Syrian Desert. Still makes 'em all by Telegram. No fool, this Herman. When you've got a Date in mind—Whether it's with the Campus Queen, a Smith Siren or a Big Moment Back Home—a Telegram has the Man-of-the-world Approach that pleases. Equally effective, too, for Birthdays, Mother's Day and Easter Messages, congratulations, or yaps to Pop for Cash, or to Sis to Airmail you The Baggy Sweater. Just call Western Union and see.

Wake Forest Holds Black-Gold Contest

Wake Forest, March 7—Head Coach Tom Rogers will match his top two elevens against each other here tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the annual spring practice game between the Gold and Black squads at Wake Forest College.

A number of the leaders on last fall's State championship eleven will vie for honors Saturday. The two top pass receivers, Ends Jack Lewis and Bob Ondilla, will be on the No. 1 club. Lewis caught 32 passes for 488 yards and five touchdowns to rank fourth in the Southern Conference. Ondilla snagged 25 aeriels for 367 yards and three touchdowns.

Baseball Opens Spring Sports

Two spring season sports will get underway before the regular winter quarter fades as baseball and tennis get the go ahead signal during exams. The Tar Heel baseball squad will invade Winter Park, Fla., March 17 to play Rollins College in the season opener. Again on March 18, the Carolina baseballers will meet Rollins and on the following day they will play Alabama.

The tennis season will begin on March 19 as Brown ventures to Chapel Hill for the season opener, and in the latter part of the month Springfield College and Michigan State will be here for tennis competition.

The gym team will compete in two championship meets during the last two weeks of the month as they have entered in the Southern Intercollegiate Meet on March 15, and th NCAA Meet on March 21-22.

SC Presidents Meet Today

The presidents of the Southern Conference schools will meet here this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Faculty Lounge of the Morehead Building and are expected to discuss whether or not any of the member schools are bound by the American Council on Education's program for curtailment of athletics.

President Gordon Gray, chairman of the group, has said, "We are going to study the American Council on Education's decisions with a view toward clarifying its impact on us. There is a good deal of confusion on the matter now."

The ACE last month unanimously approved a platform of curbs calling for banning of all post season games limitation of seasons for sports abolishment of freshmen on varsity teams and athletic scholarships, prohibition of freshmen on varsity teams, and other rerorms designed to combat the "infestation of college sports."

quoted as saying the program is in effect right now," Mr. Gray said, "but I don't know of anything binding except perhaps public opinion and moral suasion. I don't agree with the entire program they have adopted."
