

Tennis Team Plays Spartans Today

Visitors Are Title Holders Of Big Ten

by Vardy Buckalew
The Michigan State tennis team arrives today for a two match engagement with Carolina, the first of which will be held this afternoon on the varsity courts at 3 o'clock, with the second match scheduled for Wednesday afternoon.

The Spartans are last year's Big Ten champions and Coach Kenfield of Carolina has said that this match should be one of the best of the season.

So far, Carolina has breezed through two matches, beating Brown 9-0, and Springfield 8-1. The lineup in the singles for the first match today will probably be the same which has turned in an unbeaten record. It includes Del Sylvia, Herb Browne, Bob Payne, Sam Handel, Bill Izlar, and Ronnie Kerdasha, in that order. Browne, Payne, and Handel are all freshmen.

The first match of the series will have players in their regular order. The second match set for Wednesday will find the lineups altered with each player facing a different man.

These two matches are the only ones on the Carolina schedule for the week.

Deac Infield Strong

WAKE FOREST—Coach Taylor Sanford hopes his infield which is mostly held over from last year, can carry the load for the Deacons this year.

Lettermen Tommy Howard and Hugh (Buddy) Smith are setting the pace among the first basemen. Jack Stallings, and Ben Tatum and Joe Wucarella, are battling for the second base position. Three candidates are vying for shortstop. They are lettermen Eugene Smith, Freshman Dickie Harris, and Larry Spencer. June Floyd and Oscar Signore are tops at third.

Baby Girl Gives Choo Hectic Nite

"Charles had a hectic night, but Sarah and the baby are both doing fine," was the report from the Justice household yesterday after Mrs. Justice gave birth to a girl, Barbara Elizabeth.

The six pound, four ounce baby arrived at 7:12 a.m. yesterday at the Duke Hospital. It was the second child for the Justice's. Son Ronnie will be four years old in August.

Swimmers Leave For NCAA Meet

Twelve members of Carolina's Southern Conference championship swimming team will leave tonight for Princeton and the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship meet to be held March 27-29.

Assistant coach Ralph Casey will accompany the team on the train from Raleigh. Coach Dick Jamerson left earlier to attend a meeting of the Rules Committee of the NCAA.

Topping the list of the Carolina entries will be the 300-yard medley relay team, which holds the conference record. Buddy Baarcke, Barry Wall, and Stan Tinkham are the three men who compose the team. Jamerson is hopeful of the Tar Heels' showing and said, "the medley relay team has a good chance for All-America selection."

Donnie Evans, is a strong contender in the 150-yard individual medley and has also been entered in the 220 and 440-yard freestyles.

Tinkham will team with Kirby Ambler and Jack Edwards in the 100-yard freestyle and may be called on in the 440-yard freestyle relay along with Buddy Heins, Evans, and Ambler, and Edwards.

Other entries are: Smith Jewell in the 1500 and 220 freestyles, Pete Higgins in the breaststroke, Barry Wall in the breaststroke, Joe Kelso in the high and low diving, Baarcke and Warren Heeman in the backstroke.

Three Straight Games Will Test Carolina Pitching Staff

The Carolina pitching staff, which has carried the team to four victories in five starts, will get its severest test of the season when the team plays three games in three days this week.

On Thursday afternoon Coach Walter Rabb's charges will play host to The Citadel and on Saturday afternoon will take on Michigan State and Yale in a doubleheader in the first round of a round-robin tournament.

Carolina's two top pitchers, Chal Port and Bill Lore, are likely to get the nod in the doubleheader Saturday afternoon. Yale and Michigan State are two of the top teams in the country, and will give Port and Lore a real test.

The Citadel will bring a strong team here on Thursday and it is likely that righthander Joe Pazdan will get the starting assignment from Coach Rabb.

The Citadel's football players are able to play on the baseball team this year because spring practice is already over, and they have strengthened the team considerably. Two football backs, Paul Chapman and Bubba Williams are expected to do most of the pitching this year. The starter against Carolina is unknown so far.

The Citadel has a new coach, John McMillan, who was the former coach at Erskine College. With the help from the gridders, he expects to have one of the strongest teams in years from The Citadel. The Bulldogs will have one game behind them before the game here, that with the Marines from the Charleston Navy Yard.

UNC Golfers Play State In Opener

The Carolina golfing team opens its season at the Finley Course tomorrow against State.

Coach Chuck Erickson has a good nucleus of players returning from last year's team which won 15 of 16 matches and was runner-up to Duke for the conference championship. Lettermen Bob Black, Jim Feree, Lew Brown and Bill Williamson all played consistently well last year, and a strong group of freshmen and sophomores insures depth for the squad.

State has lost its only match of the year, going down before South Carolina, 14½-12½. Morris Brackett of the Wolfpack was low man with a 69 on a par 72 course.
