Team Comes From Behind To Gain Win

By Vardy Buckalew

The North Carolina tennis team won its third straight match of the season yesterday afternoon, squeezing by the Big Ten champs

Carolina and Michigan State will play again today, the first match starting at 3 p.m. The lineups will be altered to make different pairings in the singles matches from Michigan State, 5-4. Carolina won only two of the singles matches and had to take all three of the doubles to eke out the win.

For a while it looked as if the Tar Heels would suffer their first defeat, when number one player Del Sylvia lost his singles match. But Browne and Payne posted a victory in their doubles match, leaving things up to the doubles teams of Sylvia and Izlar, and Handel and Booker.

Handel and Booker lost their first set and the situation appeared hopeless, especially since Sylvia and Izlar were behind 3-1 at the time in their first set. However, Handel and Booker rallied to win their second and third sets and the tide turned. Sylvia and Izlar pulled their first game out of the fire, 11-7, and went on to win the second set easily, thus adding the match to Carolina's victory column.

The most exciting match of the afternoon was between Sylvia and Stan Drobac of Michigan State. It was a see-saw battle which kept the crowd on the edge of their seats most of the time. The first set saw Drobac come from behind to win 8-6. The second set went fairly easily to Sylvia 6-3, and the third set was almost anticlimactic, as Drobac took the temperamental Sylvia 6-3.

Carolina's only victories in the singles matches were turned in by Herb Browne and Bob Payne, second and third men respectively. Browne won 6-2, 6-4, and Payne by 6-4, 6-2.

Carolina Golf Team Opens Season Against State Today

By Biff Roberts

A strong Carolina golf team, runner-up in the Southern Conference to Duke last year, will start its campaign for the 1952 title this afternoon at 1:30 when it meets N. C. State in the opening match at Finley Golf course.

A sextet which includes four veterans will meet the Wolfpack. Back from last year's squad, winner of 15 matches against one loss, are Bill Williamson, Lew Brown, Bob Black and Jimmy Ferree.

But these returning lettermen had to take a back seat to sophomore Tommy Langley in last week's qualifying. Langley led all the golfers with rounds of 74-71 and off this fine showing probably will start in the number one position today.

Another sophomore, George Mountcastle, will round out the starting six.

Black had the low 18-hole round in the qualifying, a 69, and will be bucking Langley for the top position. However, Coach Chuck Erickson had not arranged his lineup by late yesterday afternoon.

A JOB IS A JOB IS A JOB When you get it OR The Case of the THREE-CENT PATSY

Once there was a Senior who faced the grim prospect of Graduation. With Social Security 42 years away, he recognized the need of a job.

So he burrowed manfully through Classified Sections, under "Help Wanted," in search of the Right Niche. Spotted it, too, one day. A honey. Good Money, the right field, nice location, pensions and benefits up to here. The ad asked for Brief Histories from applicants.

So he wrote. Not cockily, but convincingly. A masterpiece that took four nights and filled six pages with Deathless Prose. It left no doubt that here was The Man for the Job. He slapped on a 3-cent stamp.

P.S.—he didn't get the job. His envelope wound up as 334th in the pile, and they never got down that far. Hired one of the first eight, as a matter of fact—all of whom had enough brains to flush the Date by telegram and land on Top of the Heap.

Whether you're canvassing Personnel Managers or just hooking up with a Hen Back Home, you can count on a Telegram to get there fast. A Potent Point to remember when sounding out Pop for a job during Mother's Day or working up a new business. Two words to the wise are... Western Union
