

Netters Beat Spartans Again, 5-4

Team Calls On Doubles To Win Again

by Vardy Buckalew

The Carolina tennis team won its second match in successive days by the same score over Michigan State yesterday afternoon, again calling on its strength in the doubles to win. The lineups were changed with all players having different opponents, but the score, came out the same, 5-4.

The teams split even in the singles, each getting three wins, but Carolina showed up strong in the doubles, as the day before, and won two out of three.

Michigan State's number one man Stan Drobac played Carolina's number two man Herb Browne, and Drobac won the match in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2. North Carolina's number one man Del Sylvia, played the Spartan's number two man, Keith Kimble, and won easily 6-2, 6-3. Carolina's other two victories in the singles were turned in by Bob Payne and Bill Izlar. At one time, Payne was behind in the first set by 4-0 and one time in the second set by 3-0. He won both sets by 6-4, and 6-3, winning six straight games in both times.

The deciding match of the afternoon was the number one doubles match between Drobac and John Sahratian of Michigan State and Browne and Payne of Carolina. The first set went back and forth with the lead changing hands several times and Michigan State finally winning out 7-5. However, Browne and Payne pulled themselves together and won the next two sets and the match, 6-2, 6-1. Before the deciding match, Sylvia and Izlar of Carolina had turned in a 6-1, 6-3 victory over Keith Kimble and Dick Roberts. Sam Handel and John Booker lost the final doubles match to Bill Rieger and Jim Pore, but it had no bearing on the final outcome.

Singles—Drobac (MS) defeated Browne (UNC), 6-4, 6-2; Sylvia (UNC) defeated Kimble (MS), 6-2, 6-3; Belton (MS) defeated Handel (UNC), 6-4, 5-7, 6-3; Payne (UNC) defeated Sahratian (MS), 6-4, 6-3; Izlar (UNC) defeated Roberts (MS), 6-3, 6-1; Curley (MS) defeated Kerdashia (UNC), 6-4, 6-1.

Doubles—Brown and Payne (UNC) defeated Drobac and Sahratian (MS), 5-7, 6-2, 6-1; Sylvia and Izlar (UNC) defeated Kimble and Roberts (MS), 6-1, 6-3; Rieger and Pore (MS) defeated Handel and Booker (MS), 6-1, 6-3.

Golfers Trounce State, 21-6 At Finley To Open Season

by Biff Roberts

Sophomore Tommy Langley blasted out a three-under par 69 at Finley Golf Course yesterday afternoon to lead the Carolina golf team to a 21-6 victory over N. C. State in the opening match of the season.

Langley, playing out of the third position, hit 17 greens in regulation figures and combined five birdies with two bogeys for his brilliant sub-par round.

His exceptional round overshadowed the normally top shooting of Bob Black and Bill Williamson, playing in the first foursome for Carolina. Black had 37-35 for a 72 while Williamson had 38-34. Langley toured the par 36-36 course in 34-35.

Brackett Is Low

The par rounds by Black and Williamson gave Carolina an 8-1 lead over Morris Brackett and Bill Smith. Brackett who was low for the Wolfpack with 73, took the lone State point in the foursome by shooting a 36 on the front nine while Black was getting his 37.

Langley's partner, Jim Ferree, wasn't quite so fortunate. A front nine 43 nearly knocked him out of the match and although he won the back nine with a 38, he lost his match 2-1 to Dave Zauber. Zauber had a pair of 39's for a 38. Langley's sub-par round was more than enough to take care of the team scoring, however, and Carolina picked up three more points there.

Lew Brown and George Mountcastle rounded out the scoring for the Tar Heels. Brown shot a 73 to take a 3-0 victory over Pete Smith. Mountcastle, with a 39-39—78, fell to ex-basketballer, Bobby Holt 2½-½. The team total went to Brown and Mountcastle 2½-½, bringing the final count to 21-6.

Langley Four Under

Langley was four under par after 15 holes and when he went for a birdie on 16 his putt rimmed the hole and went out. He got his second bogey of the day on 17, needing three putts to get in on the short par three hole.

The team has one day of rest before meeting Davidson here Friday afternoon.

The results:

Bob Black (UNC) def. Morris Brackett, 2-1; Bill Williamson (UNC) def. Bill Smith, 3-0. Black and Williamson def. Brackett and Smith, 3-0. Tom Langley (UNC) def. Tom Crockett, 3-0; Dave Zauber (State) def. Jim Ferree, 2-1. Langley and Ferree def. Crockett and Zauber, 3-0. Lew Brown (UNC) def. Pete Smith, 3-0; Bob Holt (State) def. George Mountcastle, 2½-½. Brown and Mountcastle def. Smith and Holt, 2½-½.

UNC Plays Citadel Today

Righthander Joe Pazdan, whose 2-0 record is the best on the Carolina baseball team, makes his first start of the year here this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the Tar Heels play The Citadel in their first conference game of the year.

Pazdan, a junior from Trenton, N.J., won both games in relief for the Tar Heels on their Florida trip. Against Rollins he allowed the Tars only one hit in four innings and struck out seven men. His other win in relief was against Alabama.

Carolina has a 4-1 record for the year, while this will be the opener for the Bulldogs, who have only a practice game with the Parris Island Marines behind them.

The ORIENTAL

Air-Conditioned
CHINESE & AMERICAN

Open Daily 11-9:45
Sunday 12-9:45

116 E. Parrish St., Durham

EVENING and WEDDING GOWNS

And All Types of Formals
Beautifully Cleaned

CHEEK DRY CLEANERS
720 9th St. Durham 8-1227

Largest Collection Of SPORT COATS In Town!

HUNDREDS OF THEM AND EVERY ONE A BEAUTY

2250 to 3950

The patterns this spring are NEW and DIFFERENT—Many featuring blues and greys, in colorful plaids, overplaids and checks. Yes, there's a size for all men—get YOURS today

TODAY

Carolina

—ALSO—
SPORTLIGHT
CARTOON

Where Good

Friends Meet

... and enjoy the most delicious dinners in town! Steaks, fried chicken, seafood—what ever your favorite dishes may be—are prepared just as you like them and served quickly and courteously. Come out tonight and enjoy dinner at

Phone 2-5539

THE PINES

Raleigh Road