Albans Quits

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
LOS ANGELES, March 26 — Temperamental Bill Albans, former University of North Carolina track ace, quit Occidental College here today "for his best interests," according to school officials.

Albans had been counted on to win the NCAA track championship for Occidental.

The star was criticized by a local sportswriter for "quitting" in a recent high hurdles event in a meet and refusing to run in the low hurdles.

Teer Low Bidder On Paving Job

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL

DURHAM, March 26 — The Nello Teer Co. of Durham has submitted a low bid of $430,723 for paving that includes the new Chapel Hill-Durham highway.

The contract calls for the paving of one lane of the Durham-Chapel Hill boulevard and a by-pass which will skirt the eastern edge of Chapel Hill. The by-pass is being built from the Raleigh Road at Glen Lennox.

The contract calls for fine grading and paving. Although the project involves but one lane, the ground has been cleared for two 24-foot lanes. Paving of the second lane is expected later.

program will be Dr. I. G. Greer, executive vice president of the Business Foundation of North Carolina. His topic is unannounced.

A native of Zionville, N. C., Dr. Greer went into the teaching profession after graduation, teaching in the public schools from 1908 to 1910 and at Appalachian State eachers college from 1910 to 1932. From 1932 to 1948 he was general superintendent of The Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. He resigned that position to take the one he now holds:

Dr. Greer's hobby is the interpretation of ballads and folk songs. He is accompanied in his interpretation by his wife who plays the dulcimer.
