DKE Fraternity To Celebrate 101 Anniversary On Weekend

Beta chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity will celebrate its 101st anniversary this weekend.

A business meeting tomorrow afternoon will start the activities. It will be presided over by Charles Shaffer, class of '35 from Greensboro, president of the DKE Alumni Association.

Shaffer will be assisted by Dr. Arthur Ambler, '18, Asheville, vice-president, and by Tom Alexander, '32, Raleigh, secretary-treasurer.

A reception will be held after the meeting, to be followed by a buffet supper at the chapter house for members and guests.

Tomorrow night the group will participate in the initiation of new members. After the ceremonies the Three Deuces combo from Raleigh will highlight the entertainment.

Approximately 100 alumni, wives and dates are expected to attend the weekend's activities.

"Due to the tremendous success of the weekend celebration last year, the active chapter and the officers of the Alumni Association felt that at least one day of festivities would allow old and young to become acquainted and the old re-acquainted." Creighton Brinson, Tarboro, president of the active chapter, said. He added that it is hoped this precedent will be carried out yearly with a more elaborate celebration every five years.
