Goalie Lou Floyd Sets New Save Record In Rout Of GU

By Martin Jordan

Goalie Lou Floyd set a new record for saves yesterday as the Tar Heel lacrosse team defeated Georgetown, 12-8 in the opening game of the season. Substitutions were plentiful as the Carolina stickman dominated the play.

Floyd, broke the Carolina record for goal saves as he staved off 23 attempts by the Georgetown squad, allowing eight goals. The record was previously held by Nick Sowell who saved 22 goals against Virginia in 1950.

The Tar Heel stickmen took an early lead in the game, scoring four goals to Georgetown's two in the first period. By halftime Carolina had increased the lead to four goals, with the score standing 8-4. During the second half coach Al Moore substituted freely, sending twenty-two reserves into the game.

Attackman Walt Ernst played good ball throughout the afternoon, scoring two goals and assisting with three. Freshman Dick Harrall, who held down the cressman position most of the game, was high scorer for the Tar Heels with four goals and one assist. Ted Dawes, another attack man scored three goals.

Leading the Georgetown squad was Bradley with four goals. Gindoff accounted for three of the Georgetown points and Hagen who scored the first goal of the afternoon, had one.

Buddy Kaufman, who also plays soccer, and Dave Cole led the midfield play for Carolina, along with Andy Bell. Earl Johnson, Jack Fields, and Mike Davis were the outstanding men on the defense group. Paul Hursh also played an excellent game.

The Tar Heel stickmen made 38 attempts during the game, scoring on 12. Carolina's heaviest scoring came in the first half.

The Carolina squad has a tough season ahead of them. The schedule is: Dartmouth, March 31; Williams, April 2; Yale, April 3; Lehigh, April 10; Norfolk Naval Air Station, April 12; Washington, April 18; Washington, April 26; VPI, May 3; Washington and Lee; May 10; VPI, May 12; and Duke, May 15.

League. The Tar Heels, with more depth than last year, will be favored to take the match, as the 1951 team beat Haryard at Cambridge.

Sophomore sensation Tommy Langley will be the main factor in deciding the outcome of the golf team's match with Amherst at Finley course. Langley shot a 69 par in the season opener against State, and then a 67 Friday against Davidson. He has shot a 65 in practice, and if he continues his sub-par shooting the golfers should extend their record to 3-0.

Carolina's Lacrosse team has the shortest record of all, with a single win against Georgetown University. Coach Al Moore has great hopes for the sport, which is in its sophomore year here, and expects the team to make a good showing.
