

Carolina Nine Defeats Yale Again, 6-1

Pazdan Allows Only 2 Hits While Earning Fourth Win

By Ed Starnes

Carolina pitcher Joe Pazdan weathered a second inning period of wildness allowing but one run, and pitched masterful ball from that point to beat Yale's baseball team, 6-1 yesterday in the second day of the round robin tournament.

The game was called at the end of six innings, but up to that point Pazdan had allowed two hits, one of them a cheap infield tap in the third inning. The Trenton, N. J., senior got credit for his fourth win against no defeats to become Carolina's top pitcher of the young season.

Pazdan's teammates gave him three runs in the second, fourth, and sixth innings as the "hitless wonders" continued to collect more runs than hits. The Tar Heels got to Eli pitcher Chuck Pease for five safties.

Coats Top Hitter

Third baseman Bruce Coats was the top batsman for Carolina with three hits in four trips to the plate. He scored one run and drove in two with his timely hit-first and second innings and a ting. Coats got singles in the long triple in the fourth.

The Tar Heels put two men on base in the first inning but were unable to score. Second baseman Mark Herring was walked to start the game, and Coats followed with a single to center field. The next three men were out without advancing the men on base.

Carolina scored twice in the second inning. With one out, Reeves walked and then stole second, and Dick Wiess reached first on a fielder's choice that back-fired when Reeves was safe on a play to third. Pazdan then slapped a single to right to score Reeves, Wiess moving to second on the play. After Herring had flied out to the left fielder, Coats singled to right to score Wiess. Fred Dale walked to load the bases, but Ben Smith was out on a fly ball to center fielder to end the inning.

With two out in the fourth, Coats unloaded his tremendous triple that rolled into the bushes in right-center at approximately the 400-plus foot mark to score Pazdan. Coats scored on Smith's single to right.

Two in the 6th

Carolina added two runs in the sixth, without getting a hit. Pazdan walked to lead off the inning. Herring's sacrifice bunt was turned into a three base error when the third baseman threw low to first, the ball rolling to deep right field. Pazdan scored on the error, and Herring scored seconds later on a wild pitch.

Yale's run came as a result of its only decent hit. Mike Shasanoff, Eli catcher, tripled to deep right field in the second, and scored after Carolina looked like they were going to give the game away.

Reed followed the triple with a walk, Richey was put on base after it was ruled that Wiess interfered with his bat, and Grumney scored Shasanoff on a fielder's choice that turned into an out at third. Another walk loaded the

by Martin Jordan

Dartmouth College's alert and experienced lacrosse team took an easy victory yesterday as they defeated the Tar Heel stickmen 16-2. "They set a torrid pace that our boys were not able to equal", Coach All Moore explained after the game.

The Dartmouth squad, which had not previously played outdoors, before the game, played a hard and persistent game. Sophomore R. D. Gates scored five goals and had one assist to lead the scoring for the visitors. All-New England T. D. Bloomer was a standout on the defense group.

Goalie Lew Floyd stole the show for the Tar Heels as he broke the Carolina saves records he tied Saturday against Georgetown. Lew staved off 24 attempts by the visitor from New England after stopping 23 last Saturday to better Nick Sowell's record.

Both of Carolina's tallies came in the second half as Buddy Kaufman, assisted by Walt Ernst scored in 2 minutes of the third quarter and Ted Dawes scored unassisted in six and one half minutes of the fourth period.

Dartmouth will meet Duke tomorrow at Durham and will play several other teams on their return trip. The Tar Heels will meet Williams here on Wednesday and Yale on Thursday. Coach Moore hopes there will be a better turnout to watch the games this week.
