 (SP), called for "more program with less cost." He said University stores on the campus had netted $469,863 since 1944. Pene-gar proposed that part of the profits be turned back to stu-dents. He said he did not favor a block fee raise.

Then came The Daily Tar Heel editorial candidates.

Beverly Baylor (UP) offered a "three-in-one" staff. She said if elected she would name Biff Roberts sports editor and Jack Claiborne as managing editor. Both have had extensive news-paper experience. She said she would seek a news wire service for the paper.

Staff-endorsed and the SP candidate, David Buckner called for a more adequate expression of student opinion, citing means such as polls, more student col-umnists on the editorial page, and the creation of an editorial board. That out of more than 100 journalism students only a few work on the paper, was scored by Buckner. He said closer news-paper-journalism school cooper-ation was "imperative." Buckner also endorsed a standard-size paper and a news wire service if economically possible.

8:09: No. 73 came in.

Barry Farber, talking the same unique way he writes, proved to be the showman of the evening. He said he offered no "political popcorn platitudes," but prom-ised three things: 1. A standard, six-day-a-week newspaper if within his power; 2. A competent staff, and 3. That he was here to stay—no more globe trotting. He called for "student opinion ex-

Ike, Kefauver Win More Admirers In College Ranks, ACP Poll Shows

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
 Estes Kefauver is gaining favor as a presidential candidate among college students, while Earl War-ren's popularity has gone down.

This was indicated by results of the latest Associated Collegiate Press national poll of student opinion. Students were shown a list of 10 candidates and asked to pick their first choice for pres-ident. The answers revealed Dwight Eisenhower an over-whelming favorite. They show the general gained in strength during the past three months.

pressed—not created."
 8:12: No. 74 came in.

The last two candidates to speak were those for head cheer-leader. They were Check Goodin (UP), and Bo Thorpe (SP).

8:13: Nos. 74, 73, 72, 71, 70, 69, and 68 left.

Goodin, a gymnastics teacher here, said he would try to insti-tute simple acrobatic stunts for the cheerleaders. On last year's squad, Goodin said he felt he knew its problems and was qual-ified to handle them.

Bo Thorpe spoke openly and criticized the performance at last year's games. A doughty, blue-blazered freshman, Thorpe said would attempt to return the "old time spirit." Thorpe was head cheerleader at ECC before trans-ferring here this year.

8:24: Nos. 67 through 1 left. Meeting over.

Here are the results:

- Eisenhower ..... 42 percent
- Taft ..... 15 percent
- Kefauver ..... 12 percent
- Warren ..... 12 percent
- Stassen ..... 8 percent
- Truman ..... 7 percent
- Fred Vinson ..... 2 percent
- Walter Reuther ..... 1 percent

Dorm Rooms

Male dorm residents have an option for reserving rooms for the summer and fall quarters, the University Housing office re-minded students yesterday.

A room reserved only for the summer doesn't entitle the occu-pant to that space in the fall. Anyone wishing to remain in the same room during the fall quarter will have to make an addition-al reservation.

 Reservation deposits must be made with the University cash-ier, basement, South Building, not later than May 1. Summer school deposit is $15; fall, $6.
