Eighth Win Of Season For Carolina

by Vardy Buckalew

The Carolina tennis team reeled off its eighth straight victory of the season yesterday afternoon, beating William College again, this time, 10-5. Five doubles and ten singles were played with Carolina winning out in four of the doubles and six of the singles.

Carolina's number one man, Herb Browne, played Dick Squires, William's number one man, and Squires won out in three hard sets. In winning, Squires showed a beautiful all around game, even though he was hampered by a bad knee and the fact that he has not played outdoors a few times this spring, due to the New England weather.

The number one doubles match was the most exciting one of the afternoon. Bob Payne and Herb Browne played in that position for Carolina yesterday and they edged Hank Norton and Squires. Browne and Payne won the first set 8-6 after having been behind one time. Squires and Norton came back to win the second set 3-0, rather easily. Then came the third set which was a real thriller. Both teams came very close to winning several times but the Tar Heels always had enough to take the game when it counted. Finally, with Squires serving, the Williams team won the final game, taking the set 9-7.

Del Sylvia, Carolina's number one man, playing in the number one position yesterday, easily disposed of Norton 6-1, 6-3. The regular number one doubles combination of Sylvia and Izlar also won very easily, 6-2, 7-5.

Singles—Squires (W) def. Brown (UNC), 3-6, 6-3, 6-4; Sylvia (UNC) def. Norton (W), 6-3, 6-4; Handel (UNC) def. Symington (W), 6-3, 8-6; Payne (UNC) def. Brownell (W), 3-6, 6-0, 3; Kerdasha (UNC) def. Brucker (W), 3-6, 6-2, 6-3; Izlar (UNC) def. Wilkerson (W), 6-1, 6-3; Pickard (W) def. Green (UNC), 6-3, 1-6, 6-3; Casson (W) def. Booker (UNC), 6-2, 3-6, 6-4; Begler (W) def. Thompson (UNC), 6-3, 6-3; Milton (UNC) def. Canning (W), 6-2, 8-6.

Bill Lore Will Face Deacs In Big Four Opener Today

by Ed Starnes

Carolina and Wake Forest open the 1952 Big Four baseball season today at 3:30 in Emerson Stadium, with the first game in the state's unofficial league.

The Tar Heels have a 7-3 record for the season, and the Deacons boast a 3-1 mark.

Bill Lore will probably be the coaches Rabb and Hearn's choice as the pitcher. The Smithfield junior has a 2-0 record, with an 8-0 shutout of Alabama and a 5-0 win over Yale to his credit. The knuckleballing ace's scoreless pitching has marked him as the Tar Heel's top hurler.

Carolina tied with Duke for the Big Four title last year with a 7-5 record. Carolina beat the Tar Heels in the 1951 Big Four.

host of other players turned pro over the summer to leave a big gap in the starting lineup.

Sanford called an assembly of the student body in the third week of February and issued a blanket invitation to the students to come out for the team.

Lettermen Alton Brooks and reserve Jack Liptak are competing for the catching position. Outfield prospects include Johnny Alford, a letterman, Jack Rogers, Ralph Brown, Bruce Hillenbrand, Andy Sealy, and Dean Cain. Hillenbrand, a sophomore from Arlington, Va., was the leading hitter for the Deac's state champion freshman team last year, and will likely be a regular in the outfield.

UNC Season Record Falls To 1-3 Count

by Martin Jordan

Yale, the second best lacrosse team in New England last year, defeated the Carolina stickmen yesterday 23-1. Yale, who had five wins and no losses last season, was the third New England lacrosse squad to meet the Tar Heels this week.

Bill Mapel was the standout for Yale with his excellent stick control assisting in seven goals and scoring one. Bulldogs Dick Gifford and Paul Casey lead the Eli scoring with five goals each.

Lew Floyd, Carolina goalie, has broken the Tar Heel saves record again with 26 saves yesterday. In the four games this season Lew has either tied or bettered the record. Last Saturday Floyd saved 23 goals to tie Nick Sowell's mark. In the three games this week Lew has stopped 24, 25, and 26 attempts respectively.

The Yale squad took an early lead scoring three goals in the first three minutes of play. At the half the Bulldogs lead by a score of 11-0.

Substitutions were plentiful as Yale cleaned their bench of 23 players and the Tar Heels played 28 stickmen.

The Yale squad will return north this week playing in Norfolk and Philadelphia. The Tar Heels will meet Lehigh University here on April 10.

Joe (4-0) Pazdan Is Athlete Of Week

by Bill Peacock

When Joe Pazdan won his fourth straight victory Monday by defeating Yale, 6-1, on two hits, the stocky righthander brought his total of hits given up to only 12 in 21 2/3 innings and won the Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week selection.

Pazdan won the title in a week which saw Carolina athletic teams win nine and lose four and outstanding performances by Tar Heels were numerous. Sophomore Tommy Langley continued his sub-par golf with a 67 against Davidson and finished just behind teammates Lew Brown and Bob Black against Amherst.

The tennis team continued to win with captain Del Sylvia leading the way, but freshman Bobby Payne of Richmond was the only man to remain unbeaten. And lacrosse goalie Lew Floyd continued to break All-America Nick Sowell's records for saves, turning in 25 Wednesday while the Tar Heels lost to Williams 17-5.

But Pazdan's work stands out most clearly because at the season's start he was ranked behind Chal Port, the All-Conference choice last year, and veteran Bill Lore. His 4-0 record is proof that he is ready to go against any of the future Tar Heel opponents.

When Joe faced Yale, Carolina had a 2-1 record in the round-robin and needed a win to stay in the running for a tie with Michigan State in the tournament. He was more than capable to meet the situation.

He faced just 23 men in the six inning game (it was called because of darkness) and only two balls were hit out of the infield. One of those was catcher

Mickey Shasanoff's long triple to rightfield that brought about the only Eli run.

The second hit given up by Pazdan was quite tainted and the official scorer changed his mind several times before scoring it. John Scinto hit a hard grounder at third baseman Bruce Coates who backed up and the ball bounded off his knee, allowing Scinto to reach first safely.

The junior from Trenton, N. J. saw limited action last year, but had a 2-0 record. He is also a letterman in soccer.
