

Carolina Nine Loses To Deacons, 4-0

Williams Has Four Hitter In Big 4 Win

by Bill Peacock

The first two Carolina men at bat got hits yesterday, but that ended the offense for the Tar Heels who were shutout, 4-0, by Wake Forest's freshman right-hander, Rudy Williams, on just four hits in the opener of the Big Four play.

The Tar Heels could muster no power and their star fastballer, Chal Port, did not have his usual stuff, giving up five hits in 3½ innings, including a homer, a triple, and a double. The only bright part of the picture was the fine relief work of Bill Lore, who pitched shutout ball and brought his total of scoreless innings to 24½.

Carolina lost its fourth game in 11 starts in the third inning when the Deacons got two runs. Port (See BASEBALL, page 4)

Golfers Rout Williams, 35-1; Langley Again Low With 69

by Biff Roberts

Sophomore Tommy Langley jumped back into his sub-par golf groove yesterday afternoon at Finley Golf Course and knocked out a three-under par 69 to lead his Carolina teammates to a surprisingly easy 35-1 victory over Williams.

The traveling Easterners were just no match for the Tar Heels and it was not until the fourth foursome, an added attraction to that Williams was able to get a point.

As for Langley himself, it was just a question of phenomenal putting. He needed only 24 putts for the 18 holes and if he hadn't been spraying the rest of his shots, the course record of 65 might have been in serious danger.

Bob Black, again playing in the number one position for Carolina, shot his usual steady game. He went out in 37 but played the back nine in a one-under par 35 for a 72. Bill Thornton was next low for the Tar Heels with 74.

The summaries:

Bob Black (UNC) def. Frank McManus, 3-0; Bill Williamson (UNC) def. Ted Taylor, 3-0; Black and Williamson def. McManus and Taylor, 3-0.

Tom Langley (UNC) def. Jim Ferree (UNC) def. Ed Maure, 3-0; Langley and Ferree def. Tompkins and Mauro, 3-0.

Netters Beat Dartmouth 11-4

The Carolina tennis team easily disposed of Dartmouth College, 11-4, here yesterday for their ninth straight win of the season.

The Tar Heels were never extended and only three of the 15 matches went three sets. Carolina's top five breezed through in both singles and doubles except in the second doubles where Herb Browne and Bobby Payne played sub-par ball, but outlasted Abie Collins and Mendy Blakins, 6-2, 4-6, 11-9.
