

CAMPUS COLLECTIONS

By Mary Nell Boddie

Either the field of Leap Year is just beginning to show itself or else the impact of the inimitable spring quarter has turned quite a few young men's fancies to thoughts of Luf, for the number of pinnings and engagements is mounting rapidly.

Three Sigma Nu's entrusted their White Stars to coeds, while a fourth presented his pin-up a diamond. Nan Reese, junior coed from Johnstown, Pa. is pinned to Gene Shaw of Cumberland, Md. Wearing the pin of Bob Fairley of Salisbury is Alpha Gam Allene Warren of Dunn. Dian McComb, KD of Portsmouth, Va., is pinned to Curtis Meltzer of Miami, Fla. Announcement is made of the engagement of Pi Phi Sandy Wilson of Washington, D.C. to George Darden of Camden, S. C.

The PiKA's were hosts to the Alpha Gams on Wednesday night for a party at the Carolina Club.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Faye Massengil, '51 grad from Kinston, to Merwin Van Hecke of Kinston. Faye is an ADPi and member of Valkyries, and served as Society Editor of The Daily Tar Heel last year. The wedding is planned for June 9.

Hogan's lake was the scene of an ADPi-Chi Phi party and picnic supper Thursday afternoon.

The Tri-Delts and Alpha Gams will entertain campus fraternities at their respective chapter houses this afternoon. The Tri-Delts will

Receptions

The Independent Coed Board will entertain tomorrow evening at a Candidates' Reception, to be held in the Main Lounge of Graham Memorial from 8 until 9 o'clock.

Candidates for all offices in the Spring elections have been invited to attend.

All University students are invited to attend the reception to meet and talk with the candidates, according to Independent Coed Board Publicity Chairman Norma King.

have coffee hour and the Alpha Gams will have a Lawn Party.

Roslyn Brown, Alpha Gam of Elberton, Ga. is engaged to Charles Duval of Oceana, Va.

The Chi Omega's were guests of the Sigma Nu's on Thursday evening for a party at the Carolina Club.

Joanne Page, KD of Fairmont, now wears the black heart of SPE Vernon Mize of Whiteville.

Four pledges of Kappa Delta received the second degree of initiation on Wednesday night. They are Louise Marks, Asheville; Jacque Krell, Columbia, S. C.; Alice Jane Hinds, St. Petersburg, Fla.; and Helen Beard of Hillsboro. The final initiation ceremony will be held in two weeks.

The Pi Phi's were guests of the Chi Psi's for a party and picnic supper at Hogan's on Thursday afternoon.

Phi Gam Brad Cantwell of Wilmington is pinned to Chi Omega Nancy Fort of Clarksville, Tenn.

Chi Omega Bonnie Baker and Chi Psi Al Fathman of Chapel Hill are pinned.

Raleigh was the scene of a state convention of Tri-Delt on Saturday. On Wednesday the local Delta's three will observe Charter Day with a party at the chapter house following chapter meeting. Alpha Sigma chapter was established on campus in 1943.

The second annual district convention of Sigma Nu was held this weekend in Raleigh with Beta Tau chapter of State College as hosts. Highlights of the weekend were a basketball tournament between southeastern chapters of the fraternity and discussion groups on various student and fraternity problems and activities. Representing Psi chapter were Bob Bennett, Allan Donald, and Bill Harris.

Gastonia was the scene of the marriage of Glenda Howe, W. C. student, and Phi Kap Broughton Correll of Winston-Salem.

Weekend Of Festivities Honors Pledges Of Kappa Alpha; Jordan Receives Award

Softball, swimming, a hayride, and formal dance are four of the activities which highlighted the annual pledge weekend of Upsilon chapter of Kappa Alpha.

Initial event of the weekend took place Friday afternoon at Hogan's Lake, when the annual pledge-active softball game was held. Although the pledges out-hit and out-fielded the actives, 'impartial' referees ruled in favor of the actives, who eventually tied the score at 2-2.

Friday evening at 8:30 a hayride was held, which was followed by coffee hour at the chapter house at midnight.

Festivities were resumed yesterday afternoon at Sparrow's Pool. The swimming party was climaxed by a barbecue supper at 6:30 p.m.

The Carolina Inn was the scene of the annual pledge dance, held last evening from 9 o'clock until 12. Music for the formal dance was furnished by Jimmie Perkins and his orchestra.

Dates of both actives and pledges received small black fans, inscribed with Kappa Alpha in red and gold, as favors.

The presentation of the pledges and their dates was led by Pledge Class President Tom Rogers of Florence, S. C., with Joan Shope Weaverville, Vice President Martin Jordan with Sue Carter of Chapel Hill; and Secretary-Treasurer Burt Wayne of Charlotte with Mary Lou Johnston of Charlotte.

Pledges and their dates are Osborne Ayscue of Monroe with Mary Bivins of Greensboro; Clyde Camp of Roanoke Rapids with Mack Haywood of Greenville, S. C.; Pinckney Fronberger of Gastonia with Jean Groves of Gastonia; Don Geiger of Tampa, Fla., with Elizabeth Love of Lincolnton; Heidie Gray of Washington, D. C., with Carolyn Kiser of Brevard; Weston Houck of Florence, S. C. with Gwen Tootle of Florence, S. C.; Alan Johnson of Ayden with Susan Jackson of Ayden.

monsville, S. C.; Raymond Perry of Danville, Va., with Barbara Love of Lincolnton; Charles Waters of Florence, S. C., with Barbara Kuss of Allentown, Penn.; Bill Yates of Burlington with Martha Dowdy of Burlington; and Jerry Arledge of Brooklyn, N. Y., with Cynthia Ives of Beverly Hills, Calif.
