Netters Take 11th Straight Win Of Year

by Tom Peacock

Raleigh, April 7—The North Carolina tennis team remained undefeated here today, beating North Carolina State, 8-1, and winning its 11 straight match of the season.

The Tar Heels won all the singles matches and the first two doubles matches in their swamp of the Wolfpack. The first doubles match between Sylvia and Handel of Carolina and Morris and Aksel of State was the only match to last three sets, with the Carolina pair winning the first and last sets.

The Tar Heel one man and two man were the only team members to have trouble with their opponents. Morris of State gave Sylvia a scare in their first set, but the Carolin captain spurted near the end and won, 9-7. Carolina's two man, Herb Browne, barely squeezed past Aksel of State in the opening set of their match, 10-8 but he easily won the second set, 6-2.

Bobby Payne, Tar Heel number three man, kept up his amazing streak of victories, 11, by defeating Kroxon of State, 6-2, 6-1. Payne, a freshman, is the only member of the team who hasn't lost a match this season, and he may well go undefeated this year. Sylvia has only one defeat, and it came in a very close match with Michigan State's Drobac.

Carolina will try to extend its streak tomorrow at Chapel Hill against Dayton University.

Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated Morris (S), 9-7, 6-1; Browne (UNC) defeated Aksel (S), 10-8, 6-2; Payne (UNC) defeated Kroxon (S), 6-2, 6-1; Handel (UNC) defeated Jones (S), 1-1, 6-1; Izlar (UNC) defeated Duffette (S), 6-1, 6-2; Kerdasha (UNC) defeated Greenberg (S), 6-1, 6-3.

Doubles—Sylvia-Handel (UNC) defeated Morris-Aksel (S), 7-5, 2-6, 6-3; Browne-Payne (UNC) defeated Kroxon-Duffette (S), 6-4, 6-2; Kline-Greenberg (S) defeated Sapp-Booker (UNC), 6-2, 7-5.

MISSING SIGN

The Athletic Department requests that whoever removed the baseball sign from out front of the Carolina Barber-shop please return it to its original position.

Scores Soar But Golfers Stave Off Virginia, 20 1/2-6 1/2

Their scores didn't show it, but Carolina's golfers defeated Virginia yesterday afternoon at Finley Golf Course 20 1/2-6 1/2.

The performance turned in by the Tar Heels was a far cry from the brilliant pace the team had set in its first four matches. Bill Williamson was low for Carolina with a 74, the only round of the day which approached par.

The Cavaliers outscrambled the Carolina golfers all day long, and it was not until the players hit the last four or five holes that the issue became clear. Then the home team turned on its usual back side blast to win going away.

Williamson and Bob Black picked up nine quick points in the first foursome. Black had a 78 to go with Williamson's 38-36—74 to get Carolina off to a good start.

The Wahoos got back in the game when the results of the second foursome came in, though. Tommy Langely and Jimmy Ferree were way off their games and Virginia took 6 1/2 out of the nine points.

Langely, who has been averaging under 70 for the first four matches, soared to a 78 with a 38-40. Ferree had even more trouble and staggered in with a 41-39—80.

Lew Brown and Bill Thornton locked up the match, though, by taking the final nine points. Thornton put a pair of 38's together to get second low honors of the day with a 76 while Brown had 38 and 40 for his 78.

The team will get one day's rest before meeting Michigan here tomorrow. Ohio University follows on Friday and tough Purdue comes to town on Saturday.

Bob Black (UNC) defeated Jack Hendrickson, 3-0; Bill Williamson (UNC) defeated Tom Evans, 3-0; Black and Williamson defeated Hendrickson and Evans, 3-0.

Frank Smith (Va.) defeated Tommy Langely, 2-1; Mark McGarry (Va.) defeated Jim Ferree, 3-0; Smith and McGarry tied Langely and Ferree, 1 1/2-1 1/2.

Lew Brown (UNC) defeated Paul Puzak, 3-0; Bill Thornton (UNC) defeated John Rogers, 3-0; Brown and Thornton defeated Puzak and Rogers, 3-0.

Golfers vs Michigan

The Carolina golfers take the day off today, but tomorrow will play Michigan on the Finley course.

Coach Chuck Erickson will probably start the same team that has performed well in each match, including a 35-1 victory over Williams College. That would be Bob Black, Lew Brown, Bill Williamson, Tommy Langely, Jim Ferree, George Mountcastle, and Ed Betty.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club will hold initiations for all winter quarter letter winners tonight at 7 p. m. in the club room. Athletic Director R. A. Fetzer will welcome the new members.

Other matters of business will include the arrangements for the orphan Easter Egg hunt and election of coed sponsors for the Blue-White football game.

Intramural Scoreboard

All golfers interested in the Intramural golf tournament are reminded that qualifying scores must be turned in before April 15. Scorecards for 18 holes must be turned in to Mr. Kenney or Mr. Brown at the golf shop. The player and one golfer playing with him must sign the card. Be sure to list your address, phone number, and days and time you prefer to play.
