

Tennis Team Beats Dayton, 9-0

Team Takes Easy Win In Big Rout

By Vardy Buckalew

The Carolina tennis team breezed through its twelfth straight win yesterday afternoon by swamping Dayton College, 9-0. The Carolina team completely outclassed its opponent and won all the matches easily.

Del Sylvia, number one man, played Bill O'Neill and was extended three sets to win. It was the only match of the afternoon to go that length. Sylvia won the first set 6-2, then lost the second set 6-2. Although Sylvia's game appeared to be a bit off yesterday, he came through to win the final set 6-4.

In the number two position, Herb Browne, won his tenth match of the season by beating Larry Pedicord, 7-5, 7-5.

Bob Payne, playing in the number three position, won his twelfth straight match without a defeat, taking Bob Hollycross 6-2, 6-4.

The singles lineup was rounded out with Sam Handel, Bill Izlar, and Ronny Kerdasha, who all won easily. None of these three lost over four games and Handel lost only two.

In the doubles the Carolina dominance continued unchallenged. Sylvia and Handel played O'Neill and Hollycross and for a while it appeared that they might have a close match. Sylvia and Handel won the first set 7-5. But when the second set began it was apparent who was going to win. They won the second set 6-4.

In the second doubles match, the Carolina team of Browne and Payne hardly got warmed up. They disposed of Pedicord and Bill Staley 6-1, 6-0.

Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated O'Neill (D), 6-2, 2-6, 6-4; Browne (UNC) defeated Pedicord (D), 7-5, 7-5; Payne (UNC) defeated Hollycross (D) 6-2, 6-4; Handel (UNC) defeated Rozzo (D), 6-2, 6-0; Izlar (UNC) defeated Staley (D), 6-1, 6-3; Kerdasha (UNC) defeated Smith (D), 6-1, 6-3.

Doubles—Sylvia and Handel (UNC) defeated O'Neill and Hollycross (D), 7-5, 6-4; Browne and Payne (UNC) defeated Pedicord and Staley (D), 6-1, 6-0; Booker and Sapp (UNC) defeated Rozzo and Smith (D), 6-2, 8-6.

Tar Heel Nine Meets Duke In Big Four Contest Today

By Ed Starnes

Chal Port, the Tar Heel hurler who won all three Carolina victories over Duke last year, will take the mound against the Blue Devil baseball team in Emerson Stadium today.

"Port will pitch against Duke Wednesday," coach Walt Rabb said, since he didn't have to relieve against N. C. State."

Duke is the power team of the Big Four this season. The Blue Devils have been hitting steadily all season and pounded Pennsylvania, 13-4 Monday. Penn was the team Carolina beat 6-2 on four unearned runs.

Duke coach, Jack Coombs has a veteran squad around which to build a starting nine. The second and third base spots are the only question marks.

The rest of the infield is All-America timber, with third string All-America Bill Werber at first base, and first string Dick Groat at shortstop. Billy Lea and Bill Donigan will probably fill in the second and third base slots respectively.

The pitching staff has two strong veterans to do most of the work. Joe Lewis and Bob Davis, two righthanders, are still around to carry the brunt of the mound duty. George Carver, Earl Hannel, and Paul Parker will add capable assistance to the pitching staff.

Letterman Dick Denny and Frank McGuire, and sophomore Jack Tarr will do the work at the catchers spot. Last year's catcher Bob Bessinger graduated but Denny and McGuire are capable of handling the job behind the bat.

Carolina's Big Four record is 1-1 and the overall season mark is 9-4. A victory today would give Carolina a chance to take an early lead in the important Big Four League race.

Port was the Tar Heels most valuable pitcher last year, and was named to the All-Southern Conference team. The Mifflensburg, Pa., righthander has had trouble this year and has a 1-2 record for the season. He pitched a good game against Alabama in the Florida round robin tournament but had to be relieved by Joe Pazdan and didn't get credit for the victory.

Duke Busy This Week

The Duke lacrosse team and the freshmen baseballers join the fun today, the frosh baseball crew playing host to the Carolina's jayvees at 3:30 o'clock and the lacrosse outfit meeting Lehigh University at 4 o'clock.

The lacrosse team will meet one of its most touted opponents here on Friday when it plays host to Princeton. The Ivy Leaguers last year tied with Army as the nation's top team.

The tennis team opens its activity here on Thursday by facing Lehigh. The netters play host to Presbyterian College Saturday.

Saturday's card is the biggest for Duke teams this week. The varsity baseball team plays host to N. C. State in a Big Four clash, the freshman baseball team plays host to N. C. State in a Big Four Clash, the freshman baseball crew travels to Carolina, the tennis team is host to Presbyterian, the track team host to Navy. The golfers travel to Annapolis to meet the Naval Academy linksmen.
