

2 Judicial Amendments Set For April 16 Runoff

Two constitutional amendments will be presented to the student body in the runoff elections of April 16. Elections Board Chairman Erline Griffin announced yesterday.

The amendments were passed by the student legislature last Thursday night.

Purpose of the amendments is to establish a Medical school dental school court.

The Medical school Honor Council would be composed of two members elected from each class in the Medical school and one member elected by the previous council as hold-over member. This hold-over member would be automatic chairman of the council for the following year.

Duty and function of the Medical School Honor Council would be to (a) have original jurisdiction in all cases of violation of the Honor System and Campus Code perpetrated by any medical student, (b) to conduct the elections of the Whitehead officers as specified in the constitution of the Medical school association, (c) to specify the time of the annual spring class elections for class officers and Honor Council members, (d) to specify the time and manner of the election of class officers and Honor Council members of the freshman class each fall, (e) to elect one member from its body each spring to serve as holdover member and chairman of the council for the following year, and (f) to cooperate with the president of the Whitehead Society and the Whitehead Council to provide adequate orientation for incoming medical students.

The Dental school council would be composed of two members elected from each class in the dental school and one elected from each class in the Dental school and one member elected by the previous council as hold over member and automatic chairman of the council for the following year.

Functions and duties of the Dental school council would be (a) to have original jurisdiction in all cases of violation of the Honor System and Campus Code perpetrated by any dental student, (b) to specify the time of the annual spring class elections for class officers and Honor Council members, (c) to specify the time and manner of the election of class officers and Honor Council members of the freshman class each fall, (d) and to elect one member from its body each spring to serve as hold over member and chairman of the Council for the following year.

Med School Now Printing Newspaper

Appropriately dubbed Scalpel Hill News, medical school students this week began publication of their own newspaper.

The paper's editor, Bob Golby, said they expected to publish monthly. "However, the pressure of examinations will necessarily render this schedule subject to considerable modification at times," he added.

Dr. Heard Is 'Pleased' With Review

Dr. Alexander Heard yesterday said he was "pleased" with the review given his new book, "A Two-Party South?", in Sunday's New York Herald-Tribune book review section.

Written by Gerald Johnson, former University professor and one-time Baltimore Sun editorialist who is now free lancing, the front-page review praised Dr. Heard's work. "A Two-Party South?" went on sale Saturday.

Johnson said in part, Dr. Heard gives "an analysis of Southern politics so admirable in its clarity and so judicious in its estimate of opposing forces as to be persuasive in the extreme."

Author Heard is a political science professor here.

Theta Chi Ugly Man Contest Planned Again

At a penny a vote the campus will ballot all week beginning Monday, April 21 to determine the ugliest man on campus.

The search for the campus' most hideous male is sponsored by Theta Chi fraternity and runs in conjunction with the University club carnival each year. The winner of the contest will be announced at the carnival Friday, April 28.

Clinton Andrews, ugly man publicity chairman, said the winner will be presented a cup, all-expense date, and other prizes. Entries may be mailed or turned in to the Theta Chi house, 226 E. Franklin street. Deadline is April 17.

Andrews said no professional makeup or trick photography will be allowed.

Highest Rating

The University's psychology department has received a class 1 rating, the highest possible, on the basis of an evaluation of its doctoral program in clinical psychology.

A review of such programs is made annually by a committee of the American Psychological association. The ratings are approved by the board of directors and will be published in an early issue of The American Psychologist, an association of official publication.

Last year, 28 doctoral training programs in the U. S. were assigned class 1 ratings.

Square Dance

The square dance club will meet from 4 to 6 p. m. today in the downstairs women's gymnasium.

Primary objective of the group is to learn more about square dancing and the calling of square dances as they are done throughout this country.

The group is directed by Ruth Price, dancing professor here. All persons interested in square dancing are invited to attend.

New Alumni Officers To Be Elected April 17

New officers will be nominated and several new directors will be elected at the annual meeting of the General Alumni Association to be held Thursday, April 17, at the Carolina Inn.

Officers of the association will be elected by mail balloting and will be installed at the alumni luncheon on June 2.

Present officers are Judge E. Earle Rives, Greensboro, president; R. Arthur Spaugh, Jr., Winston-Salem, vice - president; George Watts Hill, Durham, treasurer, and J. Maryon Saunders, Chapel Hill, executive secretary.

New officers will be nominated at a dinner at 6:30 at the Inn with Judge Rives presiding.

The session will get under way at 1 o'clock with a luncheon meeting of the Alumni Board of Directors at the Inn.

At 4 o'clock officers and representatives of the alumni classes scheduled to hold reunions at Commencement, May 31, June 1-2, will meet to formulate plans.

Scheduled to hold reunions this year are the Old Students Club, the classes of '02, '03, '04, '05, '21, '22, '23, '24, '27, '40, '41, '42 and '43. This will be the 25th anniversary of the class of 1927.

Alumni visitors not attending any of these meetings will be free to visit around the campus during the afternoon.

The movie, "In the Name of Freedom, the Story of Chapel Hill," will be shown at 5:30, followed by the dinner at 6:30.
