

State's High School Principals Asked Here

Principals of all accredited high schools in the state have been invited to a luncheon in their honor at the Morehead building at noon Saturday, April 19, as one of the events of the ninth annual North Carolina high school day.

Roy Armstrong, director of Admissions, who is in charge of arrangements, made the announcement today.

Chancellor Robert B. House will welcome the principals at a special meeting for them at 11 a.m. in Hill hall. Deans of the 14 schools and colleges in the University and advisers in the general college and other University officials, who will be hosts at the luncheon, will be presented at the meeting in Hill hall.

Thousands of high school students in every section of the state are expected to be on hand for the day's program which drew more than 4,000 last year. All high school students, their parents and teachers are invited.

A program of entertainment and informative tours, demonstrations and exhibits, beginning in the morning and continuing throughout the day, has been planned.

One of the features will be a full-length varsity football game Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Kenan Stadium. The game was arranged by Coach Carl Snavely especially for High School Day.

School Board Plans Meeting

The annual meeting of the School Board Association for District 3 which takes in Wake, Durham, Granville, Vance, Warren, Halifax, Northampton, Franklin, Nash, Edgecombe, Wilson and Johnston counties, will be held at the Garner School in Wake Thursday night, April 10, it was announced here today by School Dean Guy B. Phillips, executive secretary of the State School Board Association.

E. R. Perry, principal of the Garner School, is in charge of local arrangements for the dinner session which is to be held in the school cafeteria at 6:30 o'clock.

Dr. Amos Abrams, Raleigh, associate editor of the North Carolina Education Association, will be the principal speaker and a discussion of the legislative program for public education will follow his address.

New officers of the district association will be elected.

School principals and superintendents are urged to attend and bring all members in their schools.

Dean Phillips emphasized that Principal Perry of the Garner School should be notified not later than Monday, April 7.

Thanks For Voting!

Stationery—Books—Greeting Cards—Gift Shop
Esterbrook Pens—Picture Frames and Picture Framing

Thomas Book Store

Cor. Corcoran & Chapel Hill Sts., Durham
Phone J-2331

Shaeffer Pens—Kodaks & Supplies—Desk Lamps
L. C. Smith & Corona Typewriters—Desk Pads

Expert Repair on all makes of Typewriters

Between halves of the game selected cadets from the Air Force ROTC and NROTC units on campus will give an exhibition of intricate drills.

The program is being sponsored by the University club and the Monogram club with the cooperation of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman scholastic fraternity.

Guide service will be provided for the students and those accompanying them to Chapel Hill by members of the participating organizations and by the Scout fraternity.

Other events will include a showing in Swain hall of the technicolor movie on the University, "In The Name of Freedom." It will be shown on the half hour from 9:30 to 12 noon. A swimming and diving exhibition in the Bowman Gray pool in Woollen Gymnasium will be at 10 a.m.; a gymnastics exhibition in the gymnasium at 11, and the Carolina-Duke junior varsity baseball game at Emerson Field at 3 p.m.

The Planetarium's Easter show, "Easter—The Awakening," will be shown at 10 and 11 a.m. and at 3 and 4 p.m. In the Planetarium building also there will be on display the current exhibition of illustrations by the late William Meade Prince, noted Chapel Hill artist and author.

Hospital Group Plans Session

A business session of the newly organized Women's Hospital Auxiliary will be held at the Institute of Pharmacy here Thursday morning, April 17, at 10:30.

Officers will be elected, a constitution will be adopted, memberships taken, and reports will be heard from temporary committee chairmen. Mrs. Gordon Gray will preside.

There will be a meeting of all members of the temporary committees at 10 o'clock Monday, April 7, at the home of Mrs. Gray.

Chairmen of the various temporary committees are: Mrs. Reese Berryhill, nominating committee; Mrs. Frank Hanft, constitution; Mrs. Syd Alexander, membership; Mrs. W. W. Pierson, volunteer services; and Mrs. William Richardson, publicity.

The ORIENTAL
Air-Conditioned
CHINESE & AMERICAN
Open Daily 11-9:45
Sunday 12-9:45
116 E. Parrish St., Durham

Briefs

Ft. Bragg Show
A group of University students, augmented by a Duke musician, gave a performance recently at the Army Hospital at Fort Bragg.

They were Skip Mann, Bill Fetzer, Jerry McGee, Carl Viperman, all of UNC, and Fred Mitchel of Duke. Edith Roos, office manager of Graham Memorial, emceed the show. Jerry Reese, chairman of the campus Red Cross activities unit, was in charge of taking the show to Fort Bragg.

Chess Club
The Carolina Chess Club will demonstrate a tandem simultaneous tonight at 7:30 in room 301-B of Woollen gym.

Participants will be Eliot Hearst and James Sherwin of Columbia University. They play number one and two boards respectively for Columbia's intercollegiate champion team.

A tandem simultaneous is one in which Mr. Hearst will make the first move on all boards, Mr. Sherwin the second, and the two players will alternate moves thereafter.

All persons who are interested in either playing or watching are invited to attend.

Sweaters
Cardboard sweaters may still be picked up in the equipment room of Woollen gym.

W. A. A.
There will be a meeting of the W. A. A., dormitory and sorority managers in Alderman parlor at 6:15 p. m. today. Coach Walter Rabb will speak on the plans for Co-recreation night.

Newcomer's Club
Mrs. Clifford Lyons is entertaining the Newcomers' club at her home on Greenwood drive next Tuesday, April 15, at 4 p.m. A short business meeting and election of officers will be followed by tea.

Pre-school Registration
Registration for pre-school children will be held at the Chapel Hill elementary school on

Carolina TODAY

There was something strange in her that many men sensed... and it set them burning...

HUNT STROMBERG presents
HEDY LAMARR
in The Strange Woman
GEORGE co-starring LOUIS SANDERS HAYWARD
ALSO
SPORTLIGHT

Remodeled Church Slates Easter Services

Easter services will be held Sunday in the newly remodeled and re-decorated United Congregational Christian church.

Now nearing completion, the remodeling was begun at the suggestion of Dr. John Scotford, architectural adviser for all Congregational Christian churches.

Bill Ray, member of the church, now serving in the Army drew plans for the remodeling, including a new church parlor, new entrance, and re-arrangement of seats and a different chancel arrangement.

New chancel furniture has been installed and a new dorsal curtain hangs at the back of the chancel. Mrs. J. T. Fowler, in memory of her husband, gave a set of altar appurtenances including a pair of candle sticks, a cross, and offering plates and vases.

The floor has been refinished and new carpets for both the parlor and the auditorium have been added. The exterior entrance and a new front walk are to be completed soon, and the new pipe organ will be installed later in the spring.

Serving as chairman of working committees on the Church Building Improvement council are J. Earl Danieley, organ committee; Mrs. A. C. Shearer, worship furnishings and equipment; Bill Ray and J. R. Ellis, plans and construction and S. H. Basing and Mrs. George Nicholson, finance and promotion.

Hold Pledging

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
DAVIDSON, April 9—The University of North Carolina chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, conducted a pledging ceremony here tonight for a group at Davidson college.

The Davidson group is forming the first APO unit ever to be on its campus. Brothers from UNC who assisted were Bill Roth, Extension Chairman, T. Mac Long, Joe Dail, Mel Woodford, George Rogers, and Bob Farmer.

April 22. Names of children to enter school in September should be turned in as soon as possible to Miss Mildred Mooneyham, principal.

Chicago College of OPTOMETRY
(Nationally Accredited)
An outstanding college serving a splendid profession. Doctor of Optometry degree in three years for students entering with sixty or more semester credits in specified Liberal Arts courses.
* FALL REGISTRATION NOW OPEN
Students are granted professional recognition by the U. S. Department of Defense and Selective Service. Excellent clinical facilities. Athletic and recreational activities. Dormitories on the campus.
CHICAGO COLLEGE OF OPTOMETRY
2307 North Clark Street
Chicago 14, Illinois

Best company
an Easter bonnet ever kept...

THE ARROW SHIRT!

Get ready for Easter with Arrow Shirts in white, solid colors, and patterns, and Arrow Ties.

ARROW

SHIRTS • TIES • SPORTS SHIRTS • UNDERWEAR • HANDKERCHIEFS

The Complete ARROW Line At—
THE Sport SHOP
N. COLUMBIA ST.