

State Pounds 3 Pitchers, Wins, 11-5

Ed Horbelt Goes Route For Winners

by Tom Peacock

RALEIGH, April, 11—North Carolina's usually excellent pitching took a nosedive here today, giving North Carolina State eight walks, 10 hits, and 11 runs in State's 11-5 romp over the Tar Heels.

State greeted Carolina's starting pitcher, Joe Pazdan, with four hits and three runs in the first inning, and Roger Paschal had to relieve him before the inning was over. Pazdan was charged with the loss, his first of the season, giving him a 5-1 record. Paschal was relieved in the sixth after allowing four more runs, and Joe Morgan finished the game for Carolina, while giving the Wolfpack an additional four runs.

Brown's 69 Leads Golf Team In 20½-6½ Win Over Ohio

by Biff Roberts

Ohio University provided the sternest competition of the still young season yesterday afternoon but Carolina's golfers, led by Lew Brown's 69, responded with their best rounds of the year to beat the boys from the Buckeye State by 20½-6½.

Brown had a 35-34 to lead his teammates, not one of whom had over 75, to the not-so-easy victory at Finley Golf course. Jimmy Ferree backed him up with another sub-par round, a one-under 71. Ferree had 37-34.

The team had its lowest average of the year with 72.5. In addition to the sub-par rounds of Brown and Ferree, Bob Black had 73, Bill Williamson 74, Tommy Langley 73, and Bill Thornton 75.

It was the second straight match that Brown had led the team with a below-par round. Wednesday in the win over Michigan he had a 71.

Yesterday Brown had four birdies, thirteen pars, and a lone bogey in shooting his 69. Ferree, playing in the foursome ahead of Brown, had an amazing finish which brought him his 71. He birdied three out of the last four holes, paring the final hole, for a back-nine 34.

Bill Thornton, playing with Brown, had a one-under par 35 on the front nine but slipped to a 40 on the back for his 75. Tommy Langley, on the other hand knocked one stroke off the par—36 back nine to go with a 38 for his 73.

The team will have one of its toughest matches this morning at 10:00 when it meets Purdue. The Boilermakers are being toured as the top team in the Big Ten this spring and will be a serious threat to Carolina's undefeated record.

The summaries:

Bob Black (UNC) def. Dave Rambo, 3-0; Bill Williamson (UNC) def. Earl Davis, 2 1-2 - 1-2; Black and Williamson def. Rambo and Davis, 3-0.

Tom Langley (UNC) def. Roger Pedigo, 2-1; Jim Ferree (UNC) def. Herb Branstetter, 3-0; Langley and Ferree def. Pedigo and Branstetter, 2 1-2 - 3-2.

Lew Brown (UNC) def. Dick Guthrie, 0-0; Dick Small (OU) def. Bill Thornton, 2-1; Guthrie and Small def. Brown and Thornton, 2 1-2 - 1-2.

Golf, Track Head Today's Sports Card

Purdue's strong golf team and Princeton's well-balanced track team are here today at 1:30 to offer both Carolina teams some of their stiffest competition of the year.

It will be the first dual meet of the year for the track team and they couldn't have picked a tougher team with which to start the season. The Tigers handed the Tar Heels their first loss since 1948 last year by 73½-57½ and judging from its showing in the recent Carolina Relays Princeton should be just as strong this season.

The undefeated tennis team is also scheduled to go after another win when they meet Lehigh at two this afternoon. The Lacrosse team rounds out the varsity action with a match with Norfolk Air Station.

The jay-vee baseball team has a little Big Four contest with the Blue Imps here.
