

Yale Professor Speaks On Anthropology Friday

Dr. Ralph Linton, Sterling professor of anthropology at Yale University and one of the foremost anthropologists in the United States, will speak here on "The Culture Concept and International Understanding" Friday night, April 18.

The lecture, sponsored by the Anthropology Club, will be given in Gerrard hall at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

Dr. Linton, who will be introduced by Dr. John Gillin, has travelled widely over the world. He has conducted research in Central America, the Marquesas and other islands of Polynesia, Madagascar, and South Africa.

His well-known book, "The Study of Man," has been considered a landmark in the development of the field of cultural anthropology. Besides other books and numerous articles, he has been editor and contributor of two recent books which have been important in the understand-

Middies Set Drill

A colorful drill program will be conducted by the NROTC battalion during the regular drill next Wednesday at 2:15, April 23, on the infield at Fetzer field.

It will consist of the annual platoon and company drill competition to assay the proficiency of all units attained in close order drill throughout the current academic year.

A staff of judges consisting mainly of Marine officers have been invited for the event. Commanders of the winning platoons and companies will be announced on May 7 and will receive trophies for their efforts on that date. A large turnout of spectators is expected for the colorful event.

Students Asked To Cooperate In Social Study

Chancellor Robert House said yesterday that a number of students who had been selected to take part in a social study of the student body have not yet filled in the questionnaire to be used in the study.

For those who could not be present at the originally scheduled hours further arrangements have been made. These students are asked to come to Room 305, Alumni building, between 9 and 5 today or tomorrow.

Unless every person in the sample cooperates the study will be weakened, House said.

Other officers chosen are Jane Berryhill, vice-president; Miriam Lewis, secretary; Norma King, treasurer; Connie Delancy, WAA representative; Jeanette Sloan, Independent Coed Board representative; Nancy Blocksidge, University Club representative.

Be Happy-Go LUCKY!

I wonder if my answer's right
Each time I take a test.
No guesswork, though, for Luckies—
For Luckies taste the best!

In a cigarette, taste
makes the difference—
and Luckies taste better!

The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette. You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellow, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky... for two important reasons. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... fine, mild tobacco that tastes better. Second, Luckies are made to taste better... proved best-made of all five principal brands. So reach for a Lucky. Enjoy the cigarette that tastes better! Be Happy-Go Lucky! Buy a carton today!

When I light up a Lucky,
I know just what's in store—
A cigarette of mildest blend
And taste that calls for more!

The Rebels and the Yanks were foes,
But now they all agree
That nothing else can match the taste
