Carolina Nine Meets Blue Devils In SC Contest At Duke Saturday

by Ed Starnes

Carolina's baseball team, currently holding down last place in the Big Four league race, gets a chance to climb out of the cellar when it tangles with the Duke Blue Devils in Durham tomorrow afternoon.

The powerful Blue Devils boast one of the top teams in the Southern Conference, and at this point in the season are leading both the Big Four and southern division of the SC.

The Durham sluggers have a potent list of batters, with Dick Trout, Bill Werber, and Red Smith at the top of the order. They are probably the best group of hitters in any one team in the South.

Carolina dropped a 4-2 contest at Duke earlier in the season. The score was tied 2-all in the ninth inning when Johnny Gibbons, Duke third baseman, slammed an inside-the-park homerun with Red Smith on base.

Lore To Pitch
Bill Lore will be coaches Walt

Rabb and Bunn Hearn's choice for the pitching duty. The Smithfield junior has one of the most impressive records in the Big Four and is expected to give the Dukes trouble. Last year Lore twirled a 14-inning victory over Duke when the Tar Heels were fighting for the Big Four title.

Duke's pitcher will probably be Joe Lewis who beat Carolina in the previous game. Lewis allowed two hits in that game, both of them triples.

Carolina's starting lineup will find Ben Smith at first, Mark Herring at second, Bruce Coats at third, and Fred Dale at shortstop. The outfield will be Wayne White in left, Bill Reeves in center, and Tom Stevens in right. Dick Wiess will do the catching.

Herring Hits
Herring has become the timely hitter of the team. The little second baseman broke up the 14-inning marathon game against State in Raleigh with a single to score Bruce Holt with the winning run, and singled with the bases, loaded in the last of the ninth against Davidson to drive in the winning run.

Fred Dale, the sophomore shortstop, from Hickory, is the best looking ball player in the infield. His fancy and steady fielding, and his long-ball hitting has marked him as a prospect for the major leagues.

IT'S STILL MONEY
Five million checks are written each day in the United States, not all of them in standard form. Many peculiar ones have been honored, including one written with lipstick on cigarette paper, one scribbled with a blowtorch on steel plate, and a properly inscribed hard-boiled egg.
