

What Goes On Here

Carolina Dames

The Carolina Dames will meet in the main lounge of Graham Memorial Monday night at 8 o'clock for bridge and canasta. The program will be put on by the beginners bridge group, with flower arrangements by Horton Davis of University florists a special feature. Student wives are invited.

Cosmopolitan Club

The Cosmopolitan club will meet Sunday at 4 p.m. The Tri-Delts and Stray Greeks have been invited.

Alpha Gam Reunion

Alpha Gamma Delta sorority international reunion day is today. Locally it will be highlighted by a meeting at 11 a.m., and lunch at 1 p.m. at the house.

Diplomas

Graduate students expecting to receive degrees in June must call at the Graduate office, 202 South building, to fill out diploma cards not later than Thursday. Failure to do this will mean failure to receive a diploma.

Free Doughnuts

The student-faculty coffee hour will be held this morning at 10:30 in Graham Memorial, main lounge. Admission is free. All students are invited.

Opening Today

Colonial Motors, inc., will have its formal opening in its new building at 701 W. Franklin Street today from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m. Favors and door prizes will be given to visitors during the day by the Buick dealers.

King, Bush File For School Board

A. K. King and Grover C. Bush have filed for the Orange county Board of Education, bringing to five the number of candidates seeking the single vacant seat.

King, associate dean of the Graduate school, filed with the Board of Elections last week. He has been a member of the faculty for 27 years.

Bush, of 139 East Rosemary street, is a former school superintendent, principal and teacher in the public school system of North Carolina.

-Profits-

(Continued from page 1) ed with recommending a standard policy for use at all three divisions of the Consolidated University, Horton explained. "We would like to see a plan similar to the one at State college," he asserted. "They now are getting 15 percent of the profits from their store for social-recreational use."

Ken Penegar, edged by Gross in the secretary-treasurer race last week, also talked to the committee. He advocated turning all the profits from the campus stores back to the students. Estimating this year's profits at $50,000, Penegar said he would like to see a 50-50 apportionment — half for dorm social rooms and half for scholarships.

Penegar said he made the large request for social rooms because "they are lagging so far behind."

The committee will make its report to the Board of Trustees meeting here May 26.

-High Schools-

The program is being sponsored by the University Club and the Monogram Club with the cooperation of Alpha Phi Omega, Boy Scout service fraternity, and Phi Eta Sigma, honorary freshman scholastic fraternity.

Guide service will be provided for the students and those accompanying them to Chapel Hill by members of the participating organizations and by the Scout fraternity.

Economists are successfully using beer-sales figures as an index of local employment conditions. Brewers may soon be in a position to eliminate a dozen or so crystal-balling government agencies.

Washington Lacrossemen Win By 15-6

A little guy by the name of Menzies and a strong Washington College lacrosse team proved to be too much for the Tar Heel stickmen yesterday as they topped the Carolina squad 15-6.

Attackman Graeme Menzies, a four year starter for Washington, lead the scoring with seven goals and one assist. Larry Leonard, another speedy Cardinal attackman, racked up four goals and assisted in three for the visitors. Grim, Hesse, Jackson, and Dail scored one point each to account for the remaining Washington

32. He went two over par for a 38 on the back nine, but still chalked up the best score of the day.

Tommy Langley, playing in the number three spot for Carolina, shot a par 72 for the afternoon. Tar Heel's number one man, Lew Brown, went one over par for a 73. Bill Williams and Pete Parker, Carolina's number five and six men respectively, each had a three-over 75. Number four man Jim Ferree shot a 77.

The best Davidson could do was Wildcat Bob Brannon's 2-1 loss to Parker in the number six match.

Brown (C) defeated Keith (D), 3-0; Black (C) defeated Sloan (D), 2½-½; Best ball, Carolina, 3-0.

Langley (C) defeated McLean (D), 3-0; Ferree (C) defeated Fitzgerald (D), 3-0; Best ball, Carolina, 3-0.

Williams (C) defeated Barns (D), 3-0; Parker (C) defeated Brannon (D), 2-1; Best ball, Carolina, 3-0.

markers.

Carolina Goalie Lew Floyd shared the spotlight yesterday with Dickie Harrall, who played with an injured chest, and Dave Cole, who lead the Tar Heel scoring with three goals. Lew saved 21 goals to bring his goal saves total to 141. Harrall, who received a fractured sternum last week, donned regular football shoulder pads to protect his injury and played his usual fine game.

Washington 8 0 3 4-15

GREATEST BLOW ON EARTH

OR— BUFFALO BILL'S SQUARE DEAL

In the days when it took a real Composer to know a Grace Note from a seventh inverted minor chord, there was a Freshman named Orgatroyd whose Aunt had told him the Piano was the Fast Track to popularity on Campus and thereafter. He believed her and took lessons.

Being tone Deaf, Orgy kicked the Dashboard out of the family Steinway over missing a Coeducational Picnic in order to practice "Forest Echoes". In college, some other Student with the ivory touch was always making Orgy's Schubert sound like hydraulic Brakes. This frustrated our Boy. Next, he met a Brunette. She was cold as Cacophony but a Set-up for Sonnets. He took to writing her Sequences, for which he had a gift. But she was getting Mail by the bushel. His vapors were tossed out with the Bills.

Desperate, Orgy got. Then he saw a sign that said "Just Call Western Union". His next Sonnet hit the Brunette on a Yellow Blank that even She could scan. Her mother invited Orgy Home for a Meeting. Today he is a Foreman in his Mate's Father's Cold Rolled Mill.
