

The Daily Tar Heel News In Review

SOON TO SAY GOODBYE to the White House the President and his family pose for a last group shot.

ROBERTO AND INGRID Rossellini are pictured as they announced recently that they are expecting their second child this summer.

SEN. HARRY BYRD (D-Va.) is wielding his annual economy axe on the President's budget. Byrd says he can cut $10,000,000,000.

AGING PREMIER STALIN, is shown casting his ballot in the last election in the Soviet capital. Newspapers have specu-lated the Russian premier will soon step out of the Kremlin due to ill health.

EVEN VEEP Alban Barkley has been mentioned for the Democratic presidential nomination. However, most observers point out that his age, 75, would rule him out. With him is his wife.

injector shavers!

If you're not satisfied with the shaves you're getting, you owe it to your face to try

PAL HOLLOW GROUND INJECTOR BLADES

Does your face smart after shaving? Does lotion or even cold water sting? Perhaps you're not using the right blade! Usually blades are ground like a penknife. You have to "bear down" to shave clean. PAL's patented Hollow Ground process makes "bearing down" unnecessary. You shave with a light stroke, so easy on your face. No irritation, no burn, no smart. Your skin is left cool as a teen-ager's.
