Port, Tar Heels Blank Wolfpack, 3-0

Gravitte Scores One, Bats In Two

by Ed Starnes

Carolina pitcher Chal Port, showing the form that brought him All-Conference honors last year, scattered seven N.C. State hits to give the Tar Heels a 3-0 Big Four league win here yesterday.

Connie Gravitte did all the run-getting for the Tar Heels. The freshman leftfielder singled sharply to left in the third inning with the bases loaded to score Mark Herring and Bruce Holt with Carolina's first two runs, and scored one himself in the eighth.

Carolina's showing was a definite reversal of past performances. The Tar Heels pounded State pitcher Lunsford Lewis for 10 hits and had men on base in all but the fourth inning.

The big inning for Carolina was the third. Herring led off the inning with a single to left field. Bruce Holt followed with another line drive into left, moving Herring to second. Fred Dale's attempted sacrifice was turned into a base hit when the State shortstop forgot to cover third base, and all men were safe. This set the stage for Gravitte's run-producing single.

Gravitte added an assurance run in the eighth inning. He singled to left, and when State leftfielder George Thompson delayed his throw into the infield, Gravitte took second base for a

Mexican Davis Cup Players Steer Rollins To 9-0 Victory Over Outclassed Netters

by Vardy Buckalew

The Carolina tennis team suffered its worst defeat in two years yesterday afternoon when it was beaten 9-0 by Rollins College, perhaps the best college tennis team in the country. It was the second loss in a row for the Tar Heels. In losing, the team won only three sets.

Alfredo Millet, Mexican Davis Cup player and number one man for Rollins, put on a beautiful exhibition for the large crowd. Millet, a strong, well-built man, had power to spare in his shots. Del Sylvia, Carolina's number one man, played on even terms with him for the first set, taking advantage of Millet's weak backhand. But Millet's accurate and
