In the doubles, Millet got even hotter. He teamed up with Calhoun Dickson against Sylvia and Payne. At one time during the second set, he scored three straight aces, one on Sylvia and two on Payne.

Rollins' other Davis Cup player, Alberto Danel, playing in the third position, was given a good battle by Sam Handel, playing in that position due to the illness of Herb Browne. The first set went 11-9 before Danel won, and then he went on to take the second, 6-4.

In the second doubles, Handel and Izler also put up a good fight before succumbing to Danel and Edouardo Garcia. The match went three sets with Handel and Izler winning the second one 6-4.

Douglas's speech "Ethics in Government" will be played tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the second floor radio classroom in Swain Hall. All interested in hearing the recording are invited to come to the program sponsored by the Carolina Political Union. It has been requested that you use the west entrance nearest the Scuttlebutt.

Track Team Swamps State For First Victory Of Year

Carolina's track team swept both the 100 and the 220 yard dashes. In the 100 it was Conference champion Frank Scott, Jeff Newton, and Charlie Rosenbacher in that order. The 220 was won by Harry Brown followed by Nathan Hale and Rosenbacher.

The Tar Heels took 11 first places and 13 second places in their best showing of the year. Bill Cornell with 11 points was high scorer for both teams, taking a first in both the high and low hurdles and a third in the javelin.

Spawn of State was the only other individual to take two first places. He captured the top spot in the high jump and the broad jump.

The best single performance of the day was turned in by Sam Jordan in the pole vault. Sam vaulted 13 feet which is the highest he has ever gone.

Bill Walker took his third consecutive first place in the javelin with a throw of 178 feet 10 inches. Roger Morris added 6 points to the Tar Heel cause with a first in the shot put and a third in the discus. Gene Brigham, the team's best quarter miler, took top honors in that event followed closely by teammate Mac Ray.

Carolina scored its first points of the year in the half mile when Gordon Hamrick took first place and Tony Houghton gained third place.
