

Kappa Alpha's Stage Annual Old South Ball

The South shall rise again, for the weekend anyway, as Kappa Alpha's from Carolina, State, Wake Forest, and Duke stage their fourth annual Old South Weekend.

Each chapter will hold individual celebrations this evening, but will gather in Raleigh tomorrow morning to continue festivities.

Carolina's Upsilon chapter will begin the weekend activities with a parade through campus at 1:15 p.m. today. The parade will originate from the chapter house and circle through campus to the statue of the Confederate Soldier in front of Graham Memorial. Upon reaching the statue, a wreath laying ceremony will be held.

A cocktail party will be held at the Caba Ford Farm in Durham from 3 until 6 o'clock, followed by dinner at the Bartlett House. This evening Kappa Alpha's and dates will have a party at Sparrow's Pool.

Festivities will be resumed tomorrow morning with a buffet luncheon for the four chapters at the Carolina Country Club in Raleigh. A full-dress parade, featuring Confederate uniforms and 'Southern Gentleman' outfits, will be held on Fayetteville Street beginning at 3 p.m.

Highlight of the weekend will be the traditional Old South Ball, which will be held in Memorial Auditorium tomorrow evening. Music for the costume ball, to be held from 8 until 12 o'clock, will be furnished by Larry Clinton and his orchestra.

During intermission presentation will be made of the Old South Ball sponsors and their dates, and the four candidates for KA Rose. Sponsors for the Upsilon chapter are Mary Lib Pope of Mt. Olive with Herb Howell of Goldsboro, and Anne Mercer Kesler of Winston-Salem with Bill Proctor of Raleigh.
