

Baseball Team Edges By Clemson, 4-3

Reeves Hits Homer, Helps Pazdan Win

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL.
CLEMSON, S. C., April 25—Carolina's baseball team weathered a ninth-inning Clemson rally here this afternoon and held on to hand the Tigers a 4-3 Southern Conference loss.

The Tar Heels held a 4-2 lead going into the ninth inning but then starting pitcher Joe Pazdan weakened. After two hits off Pazdan had put runners on first and third, Coach Walter Rabb sent in Chal Port.

Port walked Ted Coker intentionally but in the process Jack Thompson who was on third and Bill Murray on first pulled a successful double steal with Thompson scoring.

With the tying run on first base Port struck out Ed Gaines and then forced Pete Morris to fly out to deep center field.

The Tigers outhit the Tar Heels 10 to seven but three errors afield contributed to their downfall. Bill Reeves was the hitting hero for the Carolina team, blasting out a 350-foot home run in the second inning for the Tar Heel's first run of the game. Not one Carolina player got over one hit.

Pazdan pitched effective ball in his 6½ innings striking out 12 batters. It was not until he tired that Clemson really got to him.

Pazdan was the winning pitcher while Hicks suffered the loss.

The Carolina baseball team goes to Furman this afternoon to meet the Paladins at 3:30 to wind up its tour of South Carolina.

Tar Heel Lacrosse Team Meets Norfolk NAS On Navy Field Today

Carolina's lacrosse team goes after its third win of the season at 10:30 this morning against the Norfolk Naval Air Station, a team the Tar Heels beat earlier in the season, 12-5.

Coach Alan Moore's squad has been improving steadily with every game and will be favorites in today's contest.

Goalie Lew Floyd will have the eyes of the spectators on him, for he is pointing for a school and national record for the number of saves in a season. Floyd already holds the university record of saves, in a single game.

Dave Cole and Walt Ernst will lead the Tar Heels attack.

The two have been the top UNC scorers throughout the season.

Bud Kaufman, junior co-captain, from Baltimore will be at the center spot. Kaufman, the most experienced man on the squad, is one of the best offensive men on Moore's young team. Dick Pillsbury is another good scorer for the lacrosse team.

Jack Fields, Bill Davis, and Tom Stokes are the first string defensive trio for the Tar Heels. Andy Bell is the other midfield man for the Tar Heels.

Carolina has beaten Georgetown and NNAS, tied Lehigh, and lost to Yale, Dartmouth, Washington College, and Williams. The last four are all top teams in the strong lacrosse area of the nation.

Carolina has two games remaining with VPI, one with Washington and Lee University, and ends the season against Duke in Durham on May 15.

Track Team At Lexington

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL.
LEXINGTON, Va., April 25—Carolina's track team will be favored to get its second win of the season here tomorrow when it meets VMI.

The Tar Heels lost their first two meets of the season to strong teams from Princeton and Maryland, but they beat N. C. State handily in their last outing and should get their second win.

The Cadets finished behind third-place Carolina in the Southern Conference Indoor Games held earlier this year at Chapel Hill, but they were only beaten by three-quarters of a point. Carolina is favored today on its depth, however.

The Tar Heels meet Duke at Durham next Saturday.

Tennis Team Plays Today At Davidson

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL.
DAVIDSON, April 25—The Davidson College and North Carolina tennis teams meet here tomorrow for a match which may throw a lot of light on the Southern Conference tennis battle.

The Tar Heels, winners of the SC championship last year, brought a team with a 15-2 record here last night to meet the Wildcats and on the basis of that record they will rank favorites in today's match.

Davidson has always been a power in the Conference tennis circle, having held the team championship two years ago, but they're not as strong as usual this season.

Among those making the trip are Del Sylvia, Bob Payne, Sam Handel, Bill Izlar, Ronnie Kerdasha, and John Booker.
