Lewis Stops Carolina, 10-2, Two-Hitter

by Tom Peacock

Lewis knocked out the Carolina baseball team for the third time this season yesterday, giving Duke a 10-2 win by holding Carolina to two hits in a Big Four game at Coombs in Durham.

The Blue Devils collected 15 hits off starting pitcher Roger Thal and his relief, Harry

Winston Gets Softball Win

In a game that required only three innings to complete, Winston dormitory's number one softball team routed the first club of Connor dorm, 18-3, in the dormitory division of intramural softball yesterday afternoon.

Lyerly, who has been the pitching star of the intramural softball season with a no-hitter and a one-hitter, turned in another sterling mound performance. He limited the losers to only three hits, and fanned a total of eight batters. Six of these strikeouts were in succession.

Rugheimer pitched all the way for the Connor club, and his mound performance was better than the score indicated. He gave the hard hitting Winston team six hits, while his mates were making seven errors behind him.

G. Iseki was the only standout in the losing Connor cause. He stopped Lyerly's knockout string at six by clubbing the only home run of the afternoon.

Generals Fall To Tar Heels; Team Starts On Trip Today

By Vardy Buckalew

The Carolina tennis team returned to winning form after two straight defeats by grinding out an easy 9-0 victory over the Washington and Lee Generals yesterday afternoon. It was perhaps the easiest victory of the season so far for the Tar Heels as they won the match without losing a single set. Only two sets went over the regular six games.

The easiest win of the afternoon was turned in by Herb Browne who was back in the lineup after missing one match due to illness. He played in the number two position yesterday, the one he held down during the first part of the season, and beat Doc Hollowell 6-0, 6-0. He has returned to early season form and Coach Kenfield put him back in his regular position.

Sylvia Impressive

The number one singles match was rather uninteresting as Del Sylvia completely outclassed Ken Rockwell 6-3, 6-2 for an easy win. Sylvia was hitting the ball well yesterday and except for Rockwell's rocket-like first serve, which he managed to get in a few times, would have had an even easier win.

Bob Payne went back to the number three position and took the measure of Guess Henry 7-5, 6-0. He had been shifted to the number two position ahead of Browne for the last few matches.

In the doubles the team had even less trouble. Handel and Sylvia teamed up in the number one match to beat Hollowell and Henry 6-1, 6-4. It was the same story as in the other matches, Carolina just had too much class.

Win Pleasing

In the number two doubles it was Payne and Browne who performed the duties for Carolina

Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated Rockwell (W&L), 6-3, 6-2; Browne (UNC) defeated Hollowell (W&L), 6-0, 6-0; Payne (UNC) defeated Henry (W&L), 7-5, 6-0; Handel (UNC) defeated Mohr (W&L), 6-2, 6-0; Izlar (UNC) defeated Garrecht (W&L), 6-4, 6-1; Kerasha (UNC) defeated Gerrecht (W&L), 6-1, 7-5. Doubles—Sylvia and Handel (UNC) defeated Hollowell and Henry (W&L), 6-1, 6-4; Payne and Browne (UNC) defeated Rockwell and Mohr (W&L), 6-4, 6-0; Booker and Izlar defeated Barbe and Garrecht 6-4, 7-5.

and their scores were 6-4, 6-0. In the last doubles match, the weakest spot on the team, Izlar paired off with Johnny Booker and they looked very strong in downing Barbee and Garrecht 6-4, 7-5. This win was very pleasing to Coach Kenfield who has been having trouble with that position.

This was the team's last home match before they leave on their trip north but it was not their last home game of the season as erroneously reported yesterday. When they return from their trip they will meet Virginia here in Chapel Hill on May 13, and not in Charlottesville as stated yesterday. The Cavaliers beat Carolina in a practice game last fall and Coach Kenfield says that this will be one of the best matches of the season.

Co-Captains

Jack Wallace and Vince Grimaldi were chosen to be next year's basketball co-captains at the team's annual banquet held Wednesday night. Both are rising seniors.

Rising sophomore Al Lifson, high scorer on last year's team, was awarded two trophies. He won the Tom Scott free throw award with a record of 72 per cent of his shots and then was given the E. Carrington Smith trophy for being the most valuable player.

Captain Howard Deasy won the Foy Roberson Memorial trophy for contributing the most to the team.

Hill Gale Is Favorite In Tomorrow's Derby

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—Calumet's Hill Gail, who has been working out impressively the past two weeks, will be the decided favorite here Saturday afternoon when approximately 15 three-year old thoroughbreds go to the starting gate for the 78th running of the Kentucky Derby.

Hill Gail set a new track record here Tuesday when he won the one-mile Derby Trial by an easy six lengths. His time of 1:35 2/5 broke the old mark by 2/5 of a second.

Trainers started entering their horses here late this afternoon and will have until 6 p.m. tomorrow night to do so. The field is expected to be around 16 with the weather influencing some choices. Clear skies and a fast track are predicted for Saturday's running.

If the speedy Calumet colt is to get serious competition it should come from one of three steady runners. Hill Gail's most serious threat is the late-running Blue Man, second choice at 3-1, whom many pick to take the "Run for the Roses."

Blue Man won the recent Experimental Handicap No. 2 with a tremendous stretch run and there are many who think he can run Hill Gail down in the stretch.

Sub Fleet, a son of the immortal Count Fleet, is a choice of quite a few railbirds. He hasn't worked too much this year but he's a good colt judging from last year's record. He ran fourth in Tuesday's Derby Trial but his trainer was pleased with his showing, regarding the race as just a workout.

If the track is muddy or off then many say to watch out for Cold Command. He was second to Gushing Oil in the recent Blue Grass Stakes which was run in the mud but he was coming at the end and if the race had been Derby distance, a mile-and-a-quarter, Cold Command would have undoubtedly won.
