

Sunday Afternoon At 3 O'Clock

May Day Has Sea Theme

by Jody Levey

"Sinbad and the Sea Nymph," a farce in pantomime and dance, will keynote the May Day Program Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock beside Person Hall.

Highlight of the festivities will be the crowning of Queen Ann Van Kirk by Chancellor Robert B. House. Presentation of the crown will be made just prior to the pantomime and dance.

The members of Miss Van Kirk's court will wear dresses of coral and aquamarine shades to carry out the sea theme. Maid of Honor to the Queen will be Joyce Evans, senior from Harrellsville.

Members of the court are Katherine Blue, Raeford; Betty Bowles, Statesville; Frankie Strosnider, Goldsboro; Cosy Powell, Whiteville; Mel Stribling, Clarksdale, Miss.; Patty Starr, Plymouth; Joan Charles, Seagirt, N. J.; Betty Lou Worthington, Ayden; Barbara Chantler, Wilmington, Del.; Liz Cooley, Louisville, Ky.; Peggy Brown, Randleman, and Jackie Quesenberry, Waynesboro, Va.

The pageant, written and directed by Wanda Philpott, May Day chairman, is built on the sea theme. Felton Parker will take the role of Sinbad and Carol Drake will play the part of the sea nymph queen.

Gina Campbell is in charge of scenery and Dot Smith is doing the costumes and properties committee, while Patty Pantell is in charge of the court and gowns. The May Day presentation is being sponsored jointly by the Independent Coeds and Pan-Hell.

LOVELY JOYCE EVANS (above) will be the Maid of Honor to Queen Ann Van Kirk in May Day festivities here Sunday. A Delta Delta Delta from Harrellsville, Miss Evans is former chairman of Women's Honor Council and the sweetheart of Sigma Chi. She will graduate in June.

Allen Tate Is Selected For Top Job

President Ham Horton yesterday named Allen Tate to the post of attorney-general.

A senior from Gaffney, S.C., Tate was chairman of the Campus Chest this year. He was secretary of the freshman class, treasurer of the junior class and a member of the Student Legislature. The new attorney-general is also a member of the Order of the Grail and Chi Phi fraternity.

Notified of his appointment, Tate said, "I shall be happy to serve in this capacity."

President Horton described Tate, who as attorney general will be his chief adviser, as "well-qualified."

Other appointments already made by Horton include Bob Gorham as Orientation Chairman and Bob Simmons as head of the Student Entertainment Committee.

President Horton is expected to round out his cabinet within the next week to 10 days.

Final Forum Slated Friday At 8 O'Clock

With "The End of the Capitalist-Protestant Era" as its topic, the last in the current series of Graham Memorial roundtable discussions will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the main lounge.

Dr. Arnold S. Nash, religion department chairman who last year edited a text on the end of the Protestant Era, will introduce the thesis.

Other participants will be Rupert B. Vance of the sociology department and Clarence Philbrook of the economics department.

Following the panel proper, a question and answer session of approximately 45 minutes will be held. An informal refreshment period will conclude the program.

The series, which has been underway for about three months, has had a weekly attendance of about 60 people. Plans already are underway for an expanded series next year.

Activating Funds For New Hospital

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL

RALEIGH, May 6—The Council of State today approved the allocation of $203,000 from the state's contingency and emergency fund to the University of North Carolina.

The money will be used by the University to pay expenses of activating the new North Carolina Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill. The University hopes to open the hospital, built in connection with the expansion of the medical school, by August 1.

WASHINGTON—The Emergency Court of Appeals ruled yesterday that wholesale and retail grocers may seek higher price ceilings under the Capehart Amendment. The Office of Price Stabilization said the Justice Department will be asked to appeal the decision to the Supreme Court.

SEOUL, Korea—An official spokesman for the 8th Army in Korea said yesterday that the Army at present believes it has adequate supplies of ammunition to accomplish its mission in Korea. The disclosure was made after Gen. J. Lawton Collins warned that production of new ammunition is lagging.

MIAMI—Sen. Richard Russell said yesterday he will not lead any bolt from the Democratic Party if the national convention adopts a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Commission platform. The statement came after Sen. Estes Kefauver said he "wouldn't pick up my marbles" if the party included the plank.

PANMUNJOM, Korea—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said yesterday that his soldiers "can either outfight" the Communists "or out-sit them." Van Fleet made the statement after saying the Communists apparently don't want an armistice.

WASHINGTON—Former Mobilization Chief Charles E. Wilson yesterday hit the Wage Stabilization Board by describing the groups recommendations in the steel case as going "well beyond the limits of proper wage and price stabilization policy." Wilson made the statement before the House Labor Committee.

CHARLOTTE—"The victim of a broken home," Margie Davis, 13, was ordered placed in an institution for maladjusted children yesterday. She set three churches on fire here recently.

Last Chance For Advisers

Today is the last day for students to be interviewed for a post as orientation adviser next fall. Orientation Bob Gorham yesterday said the interviews today will be held from 4 p. m. until 6 o'clock on the second floor of Graham Memorial.

There are no prescribed qualifications, Gorham pointed out. He said advisers are chosen on their personal merits for the job.

Invitations

Senior Class invitations arrived yesterday and distribution will begin Friday in the Alpha Phi Omega Room of the YMCA.

Seniors should be prompt in picking up their invitations and should also bring their order blanks. Extra invitations will be available for all those who failed to order on time.

Press Club Tabs Northart

Leo J. (Buddy) Northart, who organized the UNC Press Club on the campus last year and is now the incumbent president, was re-elected Monday night to head the organization again next year.

Four other officers were elected at the meeting, which marked the first full year of activities for the club. They are Joe Parker, vice-president; Gene Watson, secretary; Joe Gilchrist, treasurer, and Barbara Tuttle, publicity director.

Northart, who graduates from the School of Journalism this quarter, will be in school next fall doing graduate work in the Political Science Department.

Final plans also were made for the club's "going away party" for seniors who are graduating this quarter. Members of the organization will meet in front of Bynum Hall at 7 o'clock Monday night and go to Hogan's Lake for the occasion.

'Gala Performance'

"Gala Performance", annual production of the Splash Club, will be presented in Bowman-Gray pool tonight at 8 o'clock.

The water ballet was prepared by Splash Club members and some 25 coeds will participate. The campus is invited.

Lenoir Hall Overheated With Fire, Discussion

by Grady Elmore

Lenoir Hall became heated on two floors Monday night. A small blaze broke out in the kitchen's refrigerator, and a heated discussion blazed briefly in the YMCA supper-forum upstairs on "France and the World Today."

The kitchen fire, caused by faulty wiring, was quickly extinguished by the local fire department.

The brief flare-up at the forum was snuffed by Dick Hartung, chairman of the YMCA World Relatedness Commission which co-sponsors the discussions. Hartung changed the subject from France's political and foreign policies to its domestic conditions.

A question addressed to the forum panel caused a sharp exchange of viewpoints on France's policies toward Germany, India, North Africa, and Indo-China.

The panel, composed of Jean Charron, Howard Finely and Mrs. Jeanine Van Nostrand, defended the French viewpoint. Elmar Moser, German special student, and Parsu Amersey, India-born president of the Cosmopolitan Club, criticized that viewpoint.

Questioned as to France's actions in North Africa, Jean Charron called for some opinions from the audience. Indian student Parsu Amersey took the floor and accused France of "professing democracy and practicing rank im-

(See GERMANY, page 4)

PB To Order New Vehicle; Ups Ad Rates

The Green Hornet—more formally known as The Daily Tar Heel truck—will buzz its last soon as a result of action taken by the Publications Board yesterday.

The Board has authorized that the truck be sold at a state auction. A new panel sedan will be purchased as soon as possible.

Also approved was a motion by Leon M. Pollander, faculty member, that national advertising rates be raised to $1.12 an inch, an eight cent increase over old rates.

Next week the board will choose a new financial coordinator as Ernest Delaney, present coordinator, will resign in June.