The Carolina lacrosse team will travel north this weekend for two games in Virginia. The Tar Heels will be in Lexington Saturday for a conference game with Washington and Lee.

The stickmen will then meet Virginia Tech at Blacksburg on the following Monday. Carolina supports a season record of four wins, four losses, and one tie and are favored to take at least one victory on its trip.

Coach Al Moore has been working the team hard this week in preparation for the final three games, the last meet scheduled with Duke on May 15. It is doubtful that Walt Ernst will be ready for the games due to an injury received last week.

Goalie Lew Floyd will be working hard in the last three engagements to break the national goal saves record which he is about forty below now.

Kappa Sigs Romp, 17-2 To Move Into Playoffs

Kappa Sigma captured a 17-2 victory over Phi Gamma Delta-2 yesterday to move into the playoffs of the fraternity division of intramural softball.

The one-sided win gave the Kappa Sigs the championship of League 3. They will meet Phi Delt-1 tomorrow in the first game of the division playoffs.

Yesterday's game was an abbreviated affair which ended in the third inning when the Kappa Sigs moved ahead by 15 runs. Phi Gam pitcher Claude Wilson was unable to check the hitting power of the winners, who scored in every inning.

The Phi Gams scored both their runs in the first frame, and held a one run advantage at the end of that inning, but the Kappa Sigs pushed across nine tallies in the second and seven more in the third to put the game on ice.

Bill Sanders went all the way on the mound for the winners, settling down to blank the opposition after their two early runs. Third baseman Dan Mainer was the Kappa Sigs' big man at the plate, rapping out three hits in four tries. Several others collected two hits for the victors, including Dan Perry, Joe Wall, Charlie Trent, and Dick Penegar. Jim Adams led the Phi Gams with two hits in two appearances at bat.
