Marbry Gets Second Win On 4-Hitter

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
WAKE FOREST, May 8—Don Marbry, pitching his second game since his promotion from the junior varsity only six days ago, got second straight win in South-Carolina Conference play here today setting Wake Forest down on 6 hits, 6-2.

Aided by a three-run homer by batter mate Dick Wiess, Marbry bested the Deacons prize hurler, Rudy Williams, who had blanked Carolina earlier in the year, 4-0.

Lyerly Hurls One-Hitter For Winston

The number one team of Winston Dormitory defeated the Dental School in the first round of the dormitory division of intramural softball yesterday afternoon, 15-0, in a contest which required only four innings.

The highlight of the game was the sterling mound performance turned in by Winston's Jim Lyerly.

Delta Kappa Epsilon defeated Sigma Nu and Zeta Psi defeated ATO Wednesday to move into the finals of the fraternity tennis tourney. They will meet next Wednesday to see who will represent the fraternities in the all-campus championship.

Lyerly limited the opposition to one hit, while fanning seven batters, six of them in succession. His no-hitter was spoiled by an infield single in the first inning.

He had previously turned in a no-hitter and a one hitter during the intramural season.

Poindexter was the batting hero for the winners, as he clubbed two home runs in three trips to the plate.

Tough Match Is Expected From Devils

by Biff Roberts
A record of 12 straight wins could easily be wiped off the boards this afternoon at 2:00 when Carolina's golf team meets Duke at Hope Valley Country Club in Durham in what should be the undefeated Tar Heels toughest dual meet of the year.

The Blue Devils appear to be potentially the strongest team Carolina will face this season and to add to their favor they will be graced with the advantage of playing on their home course.

Duke, too, has a record which approaches the Tar Heels' unbeaten skein. The Devils have lost but one match this season, that an early season meet to Florida while Duke was on a spring-vacation tour of the South. They came back to avenge that loss party by tying Florida the next day.

Duke Has Won 13
Duke has 13 victories to go with the loss and the tie and with the home course advantage could easily get win number 14.

The Carolina golfers seem to be in top shape now, though, especially after Wednesday's match with Wake Forest, whom they defeated 23-13.

The team averaged 71 strokes for eight players against the Deacs with Bob Black, Tommy Langley, Bill Thornton, and Jimmy Ferree all having sub-par rounds. Wednesday's match was an eight-man affair but the teams will play only six men today.

In the Wake Forest match Black fired a 67 after going around the first nine in 32. Langley and Thornton both had 68's while Ferree came in with 71.

Langley Moves Up
Langley will probably move up to the first position today on the basis of his fine play at the recent Southern Intercollegiate at Athens, Ga., and his brilliant round Wednesday.

That would match him against ex-footballer Mike Souchak, who had the same 72-hole score, 295, as Langley in the SIC.

In addition to Langley, Black, Thornton, and Ferree, Finley Club Pro Ed Kenney, subbing as coach for the Carolina team in the absence of Chuck Erickson, will use Lew Brown and Bill Williamson as his other two golfers.

Doubles Victories Ering Carolina Tennis Team 5-4 Upset Of Harvard

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 8—

The Carolina tennis team won a hard-fought victory over Harvard here this afternoon, 5-4, in a set-to which produced several thrilling three set matches. The victory was somewhat of an upset, as Harvard had been favored according to comparative scores.

In the singles, the teams broke even, each winning three matches but the Carolina strength in the doubles pulled them through. This was the third match out of the last five which the Tar Heels have won by one point.

The victory could have been by a wider margin had Ronny Kerdasha won his number six singles match. In a very long match, he was beaten by Don Bossart 6-3, 7-9, 10-8, after having five match points on his op-

Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated Ufford (H), 7-5, 6-1; Rauh (H) defeated Browne (UNC), 6-2, 7-5; Payne (UNC) defeated French (H), 7-5, 8-6; Handel (UNC) defeated Mann (H), 6-3, 6-1; Watts (H) defeated Izlar (UNC), 6-4, 6-0; Bossart (H) defeated Kerdasha (UNC), 6-3, 7-9, 10-8.

Doubles—Sylvia and Handel (UNC) defeated Ufford and Goodman (H), 2-6, 6-4, 6-4; Browne and Payne (UNC) defeated French and Watts (H), 6-2, 7-5; Rauh and Bossart (H) defeated Izlar and Kerdasha (UNC) 1-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Horses And Coeds

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
TUCSON, Ariz., May 8—Two University of Arizona fraternities that are balancing their budgets by serving horsemeat dinners expressed fears that the news would "ruin us with the coeds."

The two fraternities have admitted that horsemeat was being served to members at "several meals" each week, but asked that the names of the organization be withheld, because campus coeds might not care for the idea. When the girls go to the houses for dinner, ham is prepared, the fraternities claim.

Amazing fact... BUT TRUE!

Browne Bows

Herb Browne, playing number two, was also beaten after having been in the lead. After losing the first set, 6-2, he was ahead 5-2 in the second but John Rauh came through to beat him 7-5.

Bob Payne won a tough match in the number three position, beating Art French in two long sets, 7-5, 8-6.

Del Sylvia, after losing his first three matches on the road trip, won his second in a row today, beating Charles Ufford 7-5, 6-1.

Ufford is considered one of the best players in New England.

The deciding match this afternoon was the number one doubles between Handel and Sylvia and Ufford and Bill Goodman of Harvard. Harvard won the first set in easy style, 6-2, and Carolina came back to win the second 6-4. In the third set the Carolina pair was behind at one time 3-0 and then 4-2, but they turned out to be too strong for the Harvard team and finally won out 6-4.

Carolina goes to Providence tomorrow for a match with Brown.

Mural Department Finishes All Tryouts For Sports Day

Competition for the team representing North Carolina in the Big Four Sports Day games was completed yesterday, and the murals office will have a full list of qualifiers as soon as it can be compiled.

The games are to be held here, and teams representing the best in murals from Wake Forest, State, and Duke will compete with Carolina for the title. The events are an annual climax to the mural programs at all four of the schools.

Scheduled events include softball, horseshoes, tennis, handball, volleyball, golf, and table tennis, with tryout for position being held all week. All four schools have extensive mural programs, and there are no favorites.
