

side run to send Carolina out to a 3-0 lead.

Williams had been extremely effective up until that time, striking out five of the first nine men to face him, but he couldn't stave off the Tar Heels after that third inning.

Carolina added one more in its fifth inning on a single by Hester, a sacrifice which sent Lesmer to second, and a grounder which sent him to third. Then White got another of his five walks. The two Tar Heels then pulled a double steal with Hester scoring.

The Tar Heels got their final two runs in the eighth inning. After White had walked again, Smith forced him at second. Grattie singled Smith to third on his second hit of the day. Smith scored when Williams committed his second balk of the afternoon.

Bridger kept the rally going singling and bringing in Grattie with the final run for Carolina.

The Tar Heels played one of their finest defensive games of the year, allowing no errors and killing two double plays.

Tom Alford was the top man for the Deacons, getting two hits in three trips to the plate and tying in one of the Wake Forest runs.

Both Marbray and Williams struck six men with White getting five of Williams' passes. One Marbray's walks contributed to the Deacs' second run in the eighth.

the dormitory division of intramural softball yesterday afternoon, 15-0, in a contest which required only four innings.

The highlight of the game was the sterling mound performance turned in by Winston's Jim Lyerly. Lyerly limited the opposition to one hit, while fanning seven batters, six of them in succession. His no-hitter was spoiled by an infield single in the first inning.

He had previously turned in a no-hitter and a one hitter during the intramural season.

Poindexter was the batting hero for the winners, as he clubbed two home runs in three trips to the plate.

Kappa Sigs Win

In Fraternity competition the number one Kappa Sigma nine took a 15-5 decision over Phi Delt-1 in the opening round of championship play.

Sanders went all the way on the hill for the Kappa Sigs to get credit for the victory. Steve Tremble started for the Phi Delt, but was replaced by Jeff Newton when he became troubled by extreme wildness and the Kappa Sig bats.

for eight players against the Deacs with Bob Black, Tommy Langley, Bill Thornton, and Jimmy Ferree all having sub-par rounds. Wednesday's match was an eight-man affair but the teams will play only six men today.

In the Wake Forest match Black fired a 67 after going around the first nine in 32. Langley and Thornton both had 68's while Ferree came in with 71.

Langley Moves Up

Langley will probably move up to the first position today on the basis of his fine play at the recent Southern Intercollegiate at Athens, Ga., and his brilliant round Wednesday.

That would match him against ex-footballer Mike Souchak, who had the same 72-hole score, 205, as Langley in the SIC.

In addition to Langley, Black, Thornton, and Ferree, Finley Club Pro Ed Kenney, subbing as coach for the Carolina team in the absence of Chuck Erickson, will use Lew Brown and Bill Williamson as his other two golfers.

Pollock Medalist

Duke will retaliate with the long-hitting Souchak, sometimes-erratic George Toms, Jim Pollock, who was medalist against Wake Forest in their match on Tuesday with a 68, Bob Eisinger, Henry Clark, and Paul Hardin.

The Tar Heels will have two more dual matches before next week's Southern Conference tournament in Winston-Salem. They meet Wake Forest Monday at Raleigh and then make up a postponed match with the Blue Devils later in the week at Finley.

ties that are balancing men budgets by serving horsemeat dinners expressed fears that the news would "ruin us with the coeds."

The two fraternities have admitted that horsemeat was being served to members at "several meals" each week, but asked that the names of the organization be withheld, because campus coeds might not care for the idea. When the girls go to the houses for dinner, ham is prepared, the fraternities claim.

Track Team Ends Season Against Penn

North Carolina's track team will try to push its season record over the .500 mark in its last dual meet of the season, against the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia tomorrow.

Coach Dale Ranson hopes his charges, sporting a 3-3 record, can come out on top in the meet, but Pennsylvania is one of the finest teams in the Ivy League, and Carolina has already lost a meet to one Ivy League school, Princeton, by 81-50.

Bill Walker a senior who had never competed in track before this year, will be looking for a perfect year in the javelin. Walker won the event in the Carolina Relays and in all six of Carolina's dual meets to go undefeated this year. Walker throws the javelin around 180 feet, and he has a good chance to keep his win streak intact.

Frank Scott and Harry Brown of Carolina always give the spectators a thrilling race in the 100-yard dash no matter who they are running, as they are so evenly matched. Scott got off to a slow start because of a collapsed lung, but he recently ran the race in 9.9 Brown also runs the hurdles, and has beaten Marty Cohen of Maryland, one of the best hurdlers in the Conference.

Bobby Barden, Carolina freshman who may be the best two-miler in the Conference, and who lost to Princeton will try to get a win over the Ivy League school.

Lacrossemen Leave Today for Games With W&L, VPI

By Martin Jordan

The Carolina lacrosse team will leave Chapel Hill today for Lexington, Va., where it will meet Washington and Lee Generals in a conference game Saturday. On the trip the Carolina team will also play Virginia Tech.

Washington and Lee defeated Tar Heels last season 13-3 but improving Carolina lacrosse men will be playing the Generals about even terms this year. The W&L squad dropped a close 1-0 at Duke last week, 10-5, but they showed their strength as they won the Blue Devils a good battle.

VPI Monday

The Carolina lacrossemen will travel to Blacksburg for a game in Virginia Tech on Monday. Carolina squad is heavily favored over VPI, after having defeated the Gobblers last week.

Lew Floyd, goalie for the Tar Heels, will be making one of his bids for the national goal record which is only about 49 above Lew's present total of 49. Floyd, who is a junior, has a good chance of making an American team due to his excellent showing this season. Coachman Dickie Harrall will be trying to increase the total of present University record in goals made department. Harrall has 19 goals to his credit which is three above the old mark set by Walt Ernst.

It is still doubtful that Ernst, the Tar Heels' first baseman, will make the trip north due to a fractured rib received last week. Ernst missed the game last Saturday because of his injury and his chances of playing this weekend were still doubtful yesterday.

Working Hard

Coach Al Moore, who has developed lacrosse into a major sport at Carolina, has been working the team hard for this weekend's matches. The Tar Heel stickmen took a day off yesterday to rest up for their two game trip.

The probable starting line-up for the Tar Heels will be: Lew Floyd, goalie; Dick Harrall, attack; Ted Dawes, attack; Dick Pillsbury, attack; Andy Bell, midfield; Buddy Kaufman, midfield; "Buck" Barkley or Walt Ernst, midfield; Charlie Friedman, defense; Tommy Stokes, defense; and Jack Fields, defense.

PASADENA, Calif., May 8-

Erstwhile Bill Albans, former North Carolina track star, amassed 6,300 points in the Muir College Decathlon in nine events here yesterday after refusing to compete in the tenth and won for the Los Angeles A. C. by over 500 points.

Albans best time was in the 120-yard high hurdles which he ran in 14.8, a good deal poorer than his times with Carolina. Albans is considered a top prospect for the United States Olympic team decathlon berth.
