Senior Day Wednesday

Chancellor R. B. House yesterday issued a letter to all faculty members proclaiming next Wednesday as Senior Class Day. He said seniors would be excused from all classes, laboratories and other exercises.

Chancellor House said to the faculty, "We are very eager to make this a really significant day and therefore request all members of the instructional staff both to excuse all seniors from any exercises normally set for that day and to avoid scheduling any quizzes or examinations on that day."

W. D. Huffines Winner Of Dr. MacNider Award

William Davis Huffines, Lexington, was named winner of the William deB. MacNider award at the annual Medical School picnic recently.

The MacNider award was established in memory of Dr. MacNider by the second year class of 1950 for public commendation of a sophomore medical student. The student is elected by classmates for traits of good character which were typified by Dr. MacNider during his 51 years as a teacher and physician here. The plaque hangs in the medical library and is inscribed each year with the name of the recipient.
