

NEWS IN BRIEF

NEW YORK—An atomic gun developed by the Army was described yesterday as an accurate and devastating weapon, providing commanders with tremendous finger-tip fire power—and heralding a new era in the waging of war.

The description of this country's first atomic artillery weapon came from Army Secretary Frank Pace. The weapon can "hit its target under any weather conditions and give ground troops the kind of devastating close support never before available in warfare," Pace declared.

★

DURHAM—A 23-year-old Durham youth who has a police record dating back to when he was 12 years old, was taken into custody here yesterday in connection with the $50,000 robbery of the Leaksville bank on April 17. The youth is Wade Darnell Hamlin.

★

SEOUL, Korea—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said yesterday he will use force if necessary to rescue Brig. Gen. Francis E. Dodd from the Communist prisoners of war who captured the commandant at Koje Island Prison Camp. Meanwhile, Brig. Gen. Charles G. Colson of Charleston, S. C., was named the new commander of the camp.

★

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—In the first move of its kind in legal history, Luis Kutner, a Chicago attorney, petitioned the United Nations yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus to force the release of William N. Oatis from a Czechoslovak prison. Oatis is an Associated Press correspondent who has been imprisoned by the Reds for more than a year.

★

WASHINGTON—Lawyers for both sides in the steel dispute Monday will argue the issue of "inherent" presidential powers versus property rights before the Supreme Court. The court yesterday announced procedural rules which will limit each side to 2 and 1/2 hours argument.

★

WASHINGTON—The Senate Judiciary Committee yesterday approved Federal Judge James P. McGranery of Philadelphia for the post of attorney-general. The vote was 8-4. The appointment still must come before the full Senate where it will be fought by those in yesterday's minority vote, Sen Ferguson (R-Mich) said.

★

SEOUL, Korea—Twelve fast Red jets swept down from the stratosphere on eight rail-wrecking Allied F-80 Shooting Stars yesterday and one of the enemy was reported damaged in the ensuing fight. Meanwhile, deadlocked truce negotiators met for only 10 minutes over the 10-months old truce talks.

Chapel Hill Station Given Rating Of 96

Chapel Hill's bus station slipped four points from the previous month in its April sanitary rating but still pulled a 96 out of a possible 100.

The State Utilities Commission yesterday said from Raleigh that the Trailways station here was among 10 other cities getting the same rating.

Dr. McClusky Will Address Meeting Here

Adult Education Confab To Open This Morning

One of the three principal speakers on the program of the annual spring conference of the Southeastern Adult Education Association, which opens at the University this afternoon, will be Dr. Howard Y. McClusky. Dr. McClusky, from the University of Michigan, is president of the national Adult Education Association.

Dr. McClusky will speak at the final session Monday morning on "The Next Step." He will be introduced by Dr. Clyde Erwin, state superintendent.

Dr. N. T. Mitchell, associate editor, Greenville, S. C., News, and chairman of the South Carolina State Advisory Board of Adult Education, will discuss "What Are the Opportunities?" at the opening session at the Carolina Inn tonight.

The third speaker, W. J. McGlothlin, consultant for professional programs, Southern Regional Education Board, Atlanta, also will speak tonight on the subject, "What Has Been Accomplished in the Field of Adult Education in the Southeast?"

Registration for the conference will be conducted between 1 p.m. and 8 p.m. today. Between 4 and 6 p.m. there will be tours of the campus conducted by student members of the Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

Chancellor Robert B. House will extend a welcome at the opening session at 8 p.m., and Miss Marguerite Tolbert, Supervisor of Adult Education, S. C. State Department of Education, Columbia, will preside.

Tomorrow morning there will be a general session featuring a forum on "Meeting the Challenge," with Dr. Gordon Blackwell, Director of the University's Institute for Research in Social Science, as moderator.

Group meetings will be held at various points on the campus early tomorrow afternoon, and beginning at 4 o'clock there will be another general session at the Inn, featuring a panel on "Understanding World Conflicts."

Miss Schoeppe Off For Beach Weekend

Miss Deenie (Brown Eyes) Schoeppe left town yesterday for a weekend at the beach.

THIS IS as close as Sen. Estes Kefauver got to Sen. Dick Russell in this week's Florida primaries. The Tennesseean lost to the Georgia's Russell by some 30,000 votes. This shot was taken at a television interview.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"YOUR HAIR looks as though it's been in the rein, deer," a campus Caribou told Sheedy. "If you want to horn in on the sororities, it might behoof a man of your ilk to try Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms hair neatly and naturally all day long. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes moose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test!" Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now no girl wonders whether he's man or moose! If your moose is cooked by unruly hair, collect a little doe and take a taxi-dermist to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hair at the barber shop so your deer won't think you've let herd down. (What she'll say will be moose-ic to your ears!)

* of 131 So. Harris Hill Rd., Williamsville, N. Y.

Wildroot Company, Inc., Buffalo 11, N. Y.

Dr. Caldwell Slates Talk

Dr. Wallace E. Caldwell, chairman of the Department of History, will deliver the spring quarter lecture in the humanities Tuesday night in Gerrard Hall at 8:30 o'clock.

His subject will be "The Rise and Fall of the Individual in Classical Antiquity."

This is the third in the 1951-52 series of lectures by members of humanities faculty in the University.

HEY PAL—

Mother's Day Comes Next Sunday!

A Book Is A Lasting Adult Sort Of Gift

It Isn't Fattening And We'll Throw In The Fanciest Gift-Wrapping In Town—

The Intimate Bookshop

205 E. Franklin St. Open Evenings

are invited.

cents until 8 o'clock and 35 cents thereafter.

an ideal location, a nice place to