

Tennis Team Swamps Brown, 9-0

Netters Take Eighth Victory In Row, Sixth On Road Trip

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
 PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 9.—The Carolina tennis team polished off another victim here this afternoon as they overpowered Brown University, 9-0. It was one of the easiest wins all year for the Tar Heels as they only lost one set to the opposition all afternoon. The Carolina team was as hot as the weather this afternoon in racking up its sixth straight win on the road. It was the first warm weather that they have run into since going north and it made a marked improvement in the boys' playing.

Easy Singles Win

In the singles matches all of the Carolina victories were by easy margins except for the last two. Bill Izlar, playing Jack Corcoran, lost the only set for Carolina when he was beaten in the second set, 6-3. However, he was not pushed to win the third set, 6-3.

In the sixth singles, Ronny Kerdasha played Ed Ritchie in a match which produced two sets as different as night and day. Kerdasha won the first set in easy style, 6-0. In the second set he was behind 5-2 before he could get control of his game. At that point he began a drive which finally brought him a victory by the score of 10-8.

Sylvia Wins

In the number one singles Del Sylvia had an easy time with Steve Espo, winning, 6-1, 6-1. In the number two singles, Herb Browne was not pushed to take a win over Roger King, 6-3, 6-4. Bob Payne had even less trouble in the number three position, beating Bob Kramer, 6-0, 6-3. Sam Handel continued to play the best tennis that he has shown all season as he whipped Bil Bach, 6-0, 6-1.

The Carolina superiority was even greater in the doubles matches. Sylvia and Handel teamed up against Espo and King and they could do nothing wrong as they won 6-0, 6-0. Browne and Payne also won their matches easily as they took the measure of Bach and Kramer, 6-2, 6-1. In the third doubles, Coach Kenfield used his reserve team of Cecil Milton and Dick Sapp and they beat Bill Woodhouse and Tom Ryder, 6-4, 6-0.

Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated Espo (B), 6-1, 6-1; Browne (UNC) defeated King (B), 6-3, 6-4; Payne (UNC) defeated Kramer (B), 6-0, 6-3; Handel (UNC) defeated Bach (B), 6-0, 6-1; Izlar (UNC) defeated Corcoran (B), 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Kerdasha (UNC) defeated Ritchie (B), 6-0, 10-8.

Doubles—Sylvia and Handel (UNC) defeated Espo and King (B), 6-0, 6-0; Browne and Payne (UNC) defeated Bach and Kramer (B), 6-2, 6-1; Milton and Sapp (UNC) defeated Woodhouse and Ryder (B), 6-4, 6-0.

Lacrossers Underdogs Against W-L

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
 LEXINGTON, Va., May 9.—The Carolina lacrosse team arrived here tonight to play Washington and Lee in a conference game Saturday afternoon at 3:00 p.m.

The Tar Heels, supporting a record of four wins, four losses, and one tie are slight underdogs to the strong Washington and Lee squad. The Generals lost a close game to Duke, one of the better teams in the conference, last week.

Topping the list of probable Carolina starters is goalie Lew Floyd, who is approaching the national goal saves record and possible All-American recognition. Floyd, a rising senior, has been going great guns for the Tar Heels this season while racking up 149 saves which is only about forty below the national record.

Another highlight of the Carolina team is Dickie Harrall, a freshman from Baltimore. Harrall is the leading Tar Heel scorer in season action with 19 goals to his credit. Dick holds the Carolina goals made record and has an excellent chance to increase the total of his mark.

The Tar Heels will venture to Blacksburg after tomorrow's meet to play Virginia Tech Monday in their next-to-last engagement. The Carolina stickmen defeated the Gobblers of Blacksburg last week 12-5 and are favored to repeat.

Money Talks

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
 CHARLOTTE, May 9.—Davidson College released a complete set of statistics and other information about athletic scholarships given out by Davidson here today.

The school reported that football scholarships last season totaled to $27,539 at Davidson, while tennis and baseball received $375 apiece. Basketball got a little more than $1000.

Track Team At Penn Today In Season Final

by Buddy Carrier

The Carolina track team winds up its dual meet season today when it meets the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. After today's meet, only the Southern Conference Championships remain on the Tar Heel schedule. The conference meet will be held on Fetzer Field next Saturday.

Coach Dale Ranson will rely on the depth of his squad rather than on a few individual stars in today's meet. The Carolina cindermen have swept all three places in several events on quite a few occasions this spring. In last Wednesday's victory over Virginia, the Tar Heels shut out the visitors in the broad jump, mile run, and 880 yard run; and the host team captured at least two places in every event except the high jump and shot put.

The Carolina depth is especially apparent in the hurdles. At various times during the season,

Tight Pitching Performances Top Week's Mural Program

The season's murals program is drawing to a close, and most of the intra-mural sports are in the process of finishing up.

In the softball divisions a no-hitter and a one hitter topped the list of action this week. In the dorm division, Jim Lyerly of Winston 1 squad hurled a one hitter against the Dental School. Edgar Betty, in the fraternity league, hurled his second no-hitter as the Zeta Psi's defeated the Delta Kappa Epsilon 1 crew. Both games ended in the fourth inning as the Winston club racked up a 15-0 shut-out and the Zetas won 16-1. Softball competition is in the championship playoffs.

Tennis is also in the tournament stage. The ATO and Sigma Nu teams lost this week to the Zeta Psi and Delta Kappa Epsilon squads, respectively, in the semifinals of the championship play.

Horseshoes are running under speed-up conditions due to matches rained out last week. The horseshoe tourney is planned for next week.

the Tar Heels have been represented in this event by Bobby Bell, Bill Cornell, Romas White, Sonny Beall, and Harry Brown, and all five have turned in excellent times.

Another event in which the squad is exceptionally strong is the javelin. Bill Walker has won this event in every meet so far this season, and he has been backed up by good tosses by Bell, Cornell, and Bonny.

Frank Scott and Bobby Bardeen are also expected to garner several points for the Tar Heels in the dashes and the two mile.

Today's meet will be the first ever held between the two schools, and will determine whether the Carolina season is a winning or losing one, for the record now stands at three wins and three losses.
