

Golfers Win, Top Duke, 14 1/2 - 12 1/2

Ferree's Putt On Final Hole Keeps UNC Team Undefeated

by Biff Roberts

Yesterday was Jim Ferree's day. The cocky little Carolina golfer, playing in the number six position yesterday, sank a three-and-a-half foot putt on the final hole at Hope Valley to give Carolina a 14 1/2-12 1/2 victory over Duke and run the Tar Heels unbeaten string to 13 straight.

If Ferree had missed the putt the two teams would have ended in a 13 1/2-13 1/2 tie. But after thorough deliberation with his partner Bill Thornton, Ferree stepped up, measured his stroke, and tapped the ball in.

When the putt dropped the small crowd of Carolina rooters who made the trip to Durham broke loose with a cheer that broke what had been a deafening silence.

Pressure Thick

The pressure was so thick it couldn't have been cut with a meat cleaver—and nobody felt it more than Ferree. But he didn't let it choke his stroke which sent the Devils down to their second loss of the season.

It was the first loss for Duke on the Hope Valley course since the Blue Devils fell to Wake Forest three years ago. It was the first time that Carolina had won over Duke at Hope Valley since 1937, and only the second time that the Tar Heels had won at all since that same year.

Last year's Carolina team dropped Duke 14-13 in its final match at Finley Golf Course.

Lead After Nine

The Carolina team held a 5-4 advantage after the first nine's play but when the two teams hit the midpoint of the back nine, things began to look dark for the Tar Heels.

The first foursome came in with Duke in front, 8-1, thanks to a 67 by George Toms and a 69 by Mike Souchak. But the second foursome went to Carolina in just about the same fashion. Lew Brown and Bob Black took 7 1/2 points to Duke's 1 1/2.

So with the score in favor of Duke, 9 1/2-8 1/2, Ferree and Thornton came in to blast the Blue Devil hopes. Ferree had already won his match, 3-0, from Paul Hardin but the team points were still in doubt.

Carolina needed five points from Ferree and Thornton to tie the match. All four drives on the short par-three 18th hole were wide of the green. Ferree chipped up nicely while the other were leaving themselves short.

The summaries:

Mike Souchak (D) def. Tom Langley, 2 1/2-1/2; George Toms (D) def. Bill Williamson, 3-0; Souchak and Toms def. Langley and Williamson, 2 1/2-1/2. Bob Black (UNC) def. Jim Pollock, 2-1; Lew Brown (UNC) def. John Eisinger, 2 1/2-1/2; Black and Brown def. Pollock and Eisinger, 3-0. Henry Clark (D) def. Bill Thornton, 2 1/2-1/2; Jim Ferree (UNC) def. Paul Hardin, 3-0; Thornton and Ferree def. Clark and Hardin, 2 1/2-1/2.

Carolina, Duke Play In Last Meeting Of Year

Carolina's baseball nine meets Duke here today in the final scheduled game between the two schools this season, and the Tar Heels will be trying to keep Duke from taking a clean sweep of the series.

The game will mean little in the Southern Division of the Conference or Big Four standings, since the Blue Devils virtually clinched the title in both of those Wednesday by beating Wake Forest 8-7, and Carolina lost all chances of winning second place in the Division by bowing to State, 6-2, on the same day.

Lore Probably to Start

Coach Walt Rabb of Carolina will probably start Bill Lore against Duke. Lore was slated to face the Blue Devils last week but he had a sore arm and couldn't pitch. Rabb hopes Lore will reach the early season form he had when he beat State in 14 innings, and if Carolina hits as well as it has in some of its last few games it may upset Duke.

Duke boasts a lineup that averages over .300 in hitting, and if it pleases, can start a team of .323 hitters or better.

Seasons Limited

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL. RICHMOND, Va., May 9—

The Southern Conference presidents moved today to make drastic restrictions on the length of seasons of the various sports, with football and basketball being hit the hardest.

No more than 10 football games may be played each year, and the season will be limited to begin on the third Saturday of September and end on the first Saturday of December a spokesman said.

The basketball season will begin December 1 and end at the annual cage tourney at Raleigh. Only exceptions to the ruling will be NCAA sponsored tourneys and the Southern Invitational Boxing Tournament.

Three Big Four Teams Selected

Final teams have been chosen in three sports for the Big Four Sports day to be held here Tuesday. The handball, golf, and table tennis squads have been chosen, and final tryouts for horseshoes, tennis, volleyball, and softball will be held Monday afternoon.

The handball team will hold its wind up practice Monday at 3:15. Carolina will be represented by Pat Earey, Rod Nicol, Carl Goldfarb, Frank Bowman, and Richard Levy. The match will be played on a single elimination basis, and the team match will consist of two doubles and one singles match, best two out of three games. Games will consist of 15 points.

Golf pro Ed Kenney at the Finley Course has chosen the four man links squad. The four are Raymond Collins, Jack Holbrook, Robert Page, and Charles Shore. Each of the four participants will be paired with representatives from Duke, State, and Wake Forest in a foursome. Each man will play 18 holes, and the scoring will be on a medal score basis.

The table tennis squad has been narrowed to five men, from which four will be chosen for the match. The final four will be selected from Louis Patseavouras, Jim Neely, Herman Cobb, Hugh Barrett, and Franklin Giles. The last practice will be held on the main floor of Woolen Gymnasium at 4:15 Monday. The team match will consist of two singles and one doubles match, best two out of three games.
