had to play only the last hole. He banged out six birdies with one bogey for 65 and the best second round.

Snead played the last seven holes in a downpour and had birdies on only the first and last holes. In between he matched par except for the 14th where he lost a stroke for a 69. He's the defending champ in the Greenbrier.

Dave Douglas of Newark, Del., remained the most consistent shooting 67 on both rounds. The 134 total put him third and within striking distance of the lead in today's round.

Another two strokes back are Bob Toski of Northampton, Mass., and Charley Bassler of Baltimore who sloshed their way to exceptional 66 scores yesterday.

Each of the 37 pros will be joined by three amateurs in 18 holes of play today and tomorrow. The list of amateurs represents

McCarthy's Appearance Livens Meet

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
EVANSTON, ILL., May 10—Sen. Joseph McCarthy recently turned the traditionally fun-filled mock political convention at Northwestern University into a serious affair.

The festivities, which have been held at Northwestern every four years since 1908, began with a parade. In it the various states represented by assorted campus groups boosted candidates from Taft to Pogo.

When McCarthy popped into the convention hall from a side-door three students stood up with a sign saying, "McCarthy—speak with impunity. Here there's no senatorial immunity."

Earlier the Daily Northwestern, undergraduate newspaper, had warned students not to ask McCarthy questions lest they be labelled Communists. However, the "Louisiana" convention already had decided to boycott the convention in protest of the Wisconsin senator.

McCarthy's speech was rather

MORE BRILLIANT THAN THE desert sunrise it preceded, a spectacular ball of smoke and flame mushrooms skyward following an atomic blast at the Yucca Flat proving grounds in Nevada. Exploded from a steel tower, the first pre-dawn nuclear detonation in more than a year was seen in Los Angeles, 300 miles away. Shortly after the blast Marine ground troops moved in.

New Aviation Cadet Program Offers Special Advantages To College Men Now Preparing for Military Service

Here is valuable postgraduate training that money can't buy! As an Aviation Cadet you can receive instruction and training worth thousands of dollars—at the same time you are serving your country. You can choose—immediately—between being a Pilot or Aircraft Observer in America's swiftly expanding Air Force. The Air Force encourages candidates to stay in school and graduate. Seniors and students with two years or more of college who anticipate early entrance into military service can receive unmatched training in flying and leadership for the years ahead.

WHO MAY APPLY

- AGE—Between 19 and 26½ years.
- EDUCATION—At least two years of college.
- MARITAL STATUS—Single.
- PHYSICAL CONDITION—Good, especially eyes, ears, heart, and teeth.

HOW TO QUALIFY

1. Take transcript of college credits and copy of birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station.
2. Appear for physical examination at your nearest Air Base at Government expense.

3. Accomplish Flying Aptitude Tests and enlist for two years only!

4. The Selective Service Act awards you a four-month deferment while awaiting class assignment.

5. Immediate assignment to Aviation Cadet Training Classes starting July 19, August 19, October 2, and November 19, 1952.

6. Attend Aviation Cadet Training School for one year—either as Pilot or Aircraft Observer. Get $105 monthly plus food, housing, uniforms, and other benefits.

7. Graduate, win your wings. Commissioned second lieutenant, begin earning $5,000 a year! Receive $250 uniform allowance, 30-day leave with pay.

WHERE To Get More Details
