

Carolina Golf Team Blasts Duke, 20-7

by Biff Roberts

A torrential golfing downpour brought about a Carolina flood which completely overflowed a 13-year old Duke dam of supremacy yesterday afternoon and soaked up a Tar Heel drought which had lasted since 1937 as Carolina's golfers defeated the Blue Devils, 20-7, at the University's Finley course.

After losing every match to Duke since 1937, last year's team was able to eke out a 14-13 victory on the same Finley course. And last Friday at Hope Valley Carolina took another close one, 14½-12½.

But yesterday's victory wasn't even close. As had been the case in the past two wins, a final putt on the final hole wasn't needed to take the victory.

Decided Soon

Yesterday's match was decided after the first two foursomes had come in and the four points added by the final Carolina two-some just added a little sodium chloride to the wounded Duke pride.

The beginning of the end of Duke supremacy came in the first foursome when sophomore Tommy Langley powdered out a four-under-par 68 to completely whitewash here-to-fore awesome Mike Souchak, 3-0.

In addition to Langley's win, Bill Williamson took 2½ points from George Toms and then teamed with the High Point better to take all three team points and send Carolina pouring out front with an 8½-½ lead.

What little Duke hope was left after that first foursome came in was completely washed away when the second group putted out on the 18th. Bob Black and Lew Brown picked up 7½ points there, deciding the match in Carolina's favor.

Have 16-2 Lead

With the score 16-2 in the Tar Heels' favor, Bill Thornton and Jimmy Ferree added four more points to make the flooding complete.

The team averaged 73 in its last dual match which completed two years of play on the Finley course without a defeat for Carolina.

Black and Ferree had 72's, Williamson and Brown had 74's and Thornton finished with a 78.

Both teams will travel to Winston-Salem tomorrow for the annual Southern Conference golf tourney to be held Friday and Saturday at Old Town Country Club.

Tommy Langley (UNC) def. Souchak, 3-0; Bill Williamson (UNC) def. George Toms, ½-½; Langley and Williamson def. Souchak and Toms, 3-0.

Bob Black (UNC) def. Jim Pollock, 2½-½; Lew Brown (UNC) def. John Eisinger, 2½-½; Black and Brown def. Pollock and Eisinger, 2½-½.

Henry Clark (D) def. Bill Thornton, 2½-½; Jim Ferree (UNC) def. Pete Poor, 3-0; Clark and Poor def. Thornton and Ferree, 2½-½.

Floyd Seeks Saves Record As Lacrossers Meet Duke

By Martin Jordan

Lew Floyd, sensational goalie for the Tar Heel lacrosse team, will claim the national record in goal saves today after the final game of the season with Duke at Durham. Floyd, who has a total of 196 saves, plans to claim the national mark after breaking 200. The old record is unofficially 185.

The Tar Heel stickmen will meet one of the best teams in the nation when they play the potent Blue Devil squad today. The Duke lacrosse men are number four in the national rating for the season and top the list of southern teams.

Coach Al Moore says that "we don't expect to win easily but if Duke has an off day we can take them." The Tar Heels will enter the game today with a record of five wins, five losses, and one tie. Duke has lost only two games in season play.

Harrall Leads

Freshman Dickie Harrall, who is the leading scorer for the Carolina stickmen, will also try to increase his university record in goals made. Harrall has a season total of 25 scores which is nine above the old Carolina record held last year by Walt Ernst.

Ernst, who missed a game due to a fractured rib, will be back in action in the game with Duke. Walt is the leading Tar Heel in assists this season.

Co-captain Buddy Kaufman will be playing in his last game but will be one of the only men graduating from the starting squad. The Tar Heels should have a top notch team next season with plenty of experience and more depth than there is usually.

The game with Duke will begin today at 3:00 p.m. in Durham.

Lacock Is First In Blind Bogey

Vernon Lacock, with a net 77, won last week's first prize of a set of irons in the blind bogey tournament held at the Finley Golf Course.

Second prize of an umbrella went to Walt Pupa who had 79. Other prizes were: two pairs of argyle socks to H. C. Crawford with 74; three golf balls each to Max Saunders with 72, Father Weidinger with 76, and Al Pikutis with 70.

This week's tourney, which will last through Sunday, offers a set of four woods as first prize with other prizes to be determined by the number of entries.

To enter the weekly affair all you have to do is pay the one dollar entry fee, choose a handicap which you think will put you between 70 and 80, and then play 18 holes. The drawing will be held on Monday.

Winston scored again in the fifth to end the scoring. Poindexter walked, advanced to third on an infield out, and then scored on another infield out, making the score 3-1, Winston.

Phi Kappa Sig Scores Twice

Phi Kappa Sig tallied twice in the bottom half of the first to take the lead, and the closest Kappa

Sig could get to it after that was a tie in the third. A single by Joe O'Brien followed by another single by Ray Mitchell put men on first and third, and Dan Whiteheart sent them both in with a single, giving the Phi Kapps a 2-0 lead.

Kappa Sigma broke into the scoring column in the first of the third. Dan Perry reached first by error, Jack Stoughton got on by a fielder's choice, and then two hit batsmen sent them in to tie the score at 2-2.

The Phi Kapps scored twice more in the bottom of the third to take a 4-2 lead that they never gave up. With two away, Duane Johnson singled, Andy Miketa advanced him to third on a single, and Ham Hamilton batted them both in with another single.
