

Saturday Last Day

Primary Registration

Last day of registration for the Democratic Primary will be this Saturday.

General qualifications for registering and voting in this primary require the individual to be a native or naturalized citizen, 21 years of age by the November 4 general election, literate, and registered as a Democrat.

Some students will be eligible to register and vote in Chapel Hill and Orange County if they meet certain residence qualifications. They must have maintained residence in the State for one year prior to the November elections and in the precinct in which they ask to register for four months preceding the November election.

Residence is always a question of the person's intention, to be determined by the registrar and judges. Such questions as "Are you a resident of Chapel Hill during the summer?" "Do you have a Chapel Hill car license?" and "Do you list personal property tax?" are among the questions which will be asked. Persons answering in the affirmative are considered residents and are eligible to register and vote.

Other students may register and vote in their home towns. Absentee balloting is not allowed for the primary, but is provided for in the November election.

The May 31 primary is for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Democratic ticket, and only persons registered in the Democratic party may vote.

In Chapel Hill, Democrats may register and vote at the Cone House, for the south precinct, and the Fire Station, for the north precinct.

Artist Group Takes Tour Of New York

A group of 12 students of the University Art Department returned recently from a field trip to New York.

The trip was planned to give students the opportunity to see the paintings of leading contemporary artists as well as those of the French and German Schools.

Students that went on the five day trip were George Bireline, Claude McKinney, Jack Cannon, Sally Guerry, Elizabeth Goforth, Kathy Oates, Daisy Wade and John Alcott, head of the department.

While in New York the group attended the current show of "15 Americans" at the Modern Museum of Art, the Klee show at the New Art Circle, the Cezanne show at the Metropolitan Museum, the Miro show at Matisse Gallery, and other exhibitions at other galleries.

This year as in the past, the trip has been made possible through the contributions of the friends of Pearson Hall.

Ken Penegar Is Re-Elected As GM Head

Ken Penegar was re-elected chairman of the Graham Memorial Board of Directors at a meeting Tuesday.

Other items on the business agenda included a report by Penegar and GM Director Bill Roth on their trip to a four-day student union conference at Oklahoma A & M College. The Carolina delegates said they were most interested in the sessions conducted for new building planning and said they received information that would be of use in planning the proposed new building here.

In its other act of business, the GM board created a Student Union Activities Board. "It is hoped," said Chairman Penegar, "the new group will bring more students into the actual planning and programming of many student activities."

The new unit will be composed of the various activity committees now existing and will branch out into other areas as needed, according to Penegar.

P. Somerville New President Of Interdorm

New officers of the Interdormitory Council were elected Wednesday night in the last meeting of the group.

Paul Somerville, Alberta, Canada, graduate student in mathematical statistics, was elected president. Somerville has served as vice-president and chairman of the IDC social room committee this year.

Chosen for vice-president was Bill Acker, Winston-Salem rising senior, and Ruffin dormitory IDC representative. Acker has served as secretary and chairman of the dance committee. Both Acker and Somerville are members of the Student Legislature.

Other officers elected were Walt Gurley, Goldsboro rising senior, and Graham dorm president; John Ingle, rising junior from Silre City and Graham representative, and Mike Brown, Anderson, S. C., rising junior of Lewis dormitory as holdover member for the IDC court.

Major accomplishments of the Council included a successful dance in April, revision of the constitution and by-laws, and successful efforts to get recreation facilities for the upper quad.

Drunks Get Hauled Up

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL. RALEIGH, May 15—Drunken driving convictions soared in April the Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

Offenses climbed to 930, second highest for the year. Convictions for two counts of drunken driving were up, too—from 111 in March to 136 last month. The department also reported 12 convictions for the third offense of drunken driving, which automatically revokes the defendant's driver's license for an indefinite period.

Trustees Given Report

of out-of-town trips.

Both men and coeds again agreed studying ranked highest in importance of the weekend activities at Chapel Hill. Athletics, fraternity and University events were chosen next in importance. Religious activity was considered least important by both groups.

Men estimated that more time was spent in studying on the weekends, with six stating that they studied 21-25 hours during a weekend. Socializing and extra sleep came next in amount of time. Coeds listed socializing as dominating their time on the weekend, with study and extra sleep second and third.

"The weekend seems to be a catching-up time with many students dependent on the extra study time to pass. Extra sleeping on each day and socializing a few hours each day round out the weekend," the report asserted.

Concerning the coeds the report said "very few uphold the stereotyped idea of the Carolina coed who 'parties' from morn till night, seals her books for two and a half days, and fritters the time away."

The report concluded "Our students do not leave the campus each weekend en masse; our students need and use the weekend for study and relaxing activities."
