House Names Changes For UNC Faculty

Eleven appointments, two promotions and seven leaves of absence have been okayed for faculty members by the Executive Committee of UNC Board of Trustees.

Chancellor Robert B. House yesterday released the following names: Dr. W. Dougald MacMillan, professor of English, is the new chairman of the English department, succeeding Dr. C. P. Lyons who is now dean of the college of arts and sciences.

Dr. Ernest Wood has been appointed professor and head of the department of radiology of the school of medicine. He is a graduate of Duke and received his M.D. from Harvard in 1939.

Other appointments include Dr. Thomas W. Farmer, professor, department of medicine of the school of medicine. Farmer is a graduate of Harvard, took his A.M. at Duke and, received his M.D. from Harvard in 1941; Dr. George Vincent Taylor, assistant tary system for Korea. professor of the department of history. A graduate of Rutgers, department of dramatic art, was Taylor received his Ph.D. in 1950 from the University of Wiscon-1 snece, September, 1952, to Sepsin; Dr. John T. Sessions, Jr., tember, 1952, for further work assistant professor, department of and study. medicine, school of medicine. Sessions is a graduate of Emory University and received his M.D. cal statistcs, was recommended there in 1945.

Dr. Tihamer Zoltan Czaky, aspharmacology, school of medi- Study. cine. Csaky received his M.D. from the University of Budapest in 1939; Dr. Joseph Frederick Bunnett, assistant professor department of chemistry. Bunnett ther study. is a graduate of Reed College and received his Ph.D. in 1945 from 30 were included in the report the University of Rochester; Dr. Paul Leslie Bunce, assistant professor, department of surgery, school of medicine. A graduate of Oberlin College, Bunce received his M.D. from the University of Chicago in 1942; Miss Sylvia Ruth Kiger, assistant professor, school of nursing. Miss Kiger received her B.S. in nursing from WCUNC in 1949 and took her M.S. in Nursing in January at Western Reserve University. Dr. Morris S. Davis, assistant professor in astronomy. A graduate of Brookyn College, Davis received his M.A. from the University of Missouri in 1947 and his Ph.D. from Yale in 1590; Dr. John Seridan MacNerney, assistant professor, department of mathematics. MacNerney graduated from the University of Texas with honors in 1948 and received his Ph.D. there in 1951.

BERNARD M. BARUCH warned members of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces yesterday that the nation's economy is "propped precariously on stilts" as a result of prices, diminshed savings and the decreased purchasing power of every defense dollar. One-fifth of this country's defense spending in the next fiscal year will represent a "needless tribute to inflation.

aid in setting up a suitable mone-

Lynn Gault, assistant professor, recommended for a leave of ab-

Dr. Herbert Robbins, professor of the department of mathematifor a leave of absence for the academic year, 1952-53, to study

Dr. William Wells, professor of the department of English, was recommneded for a leave of absence, fall quarter, 1952, for fur-

Four retirements effective June to President Gordon Gray: Professor Thomas F. Hickerson, Kenan professor of mathematics; Dr. Karl H. Fussler, professor in the department of physics; Floyd Harris Edminster, professor chemistry, and Hugo Giduz, professor THE DAILY TAR NEED CENURSDAY, MANA 15, 1952 (HOT FACE)

Ike, Kefauver In Split Vote

Oak Ridgers, WC Choose A President

Special to THE DAILY TAB HERL GREENSBORO, May 14 - A general named Eisenhower definitely is the No. 1 man in the political lives of Woman's College students who lined up at a polling booth yesterday to register their preference of presidential candidates.

Ike tabbed 586 of the 1.108 student votes. About half of the 2,500 student body voted.

Senator Kefauver led the Democratic ticket with 328 votes. Senator Taft, who spoke on the WC campus last fall, ran a poor second to Eisenhower with only 29 votes. Georgia's Senator Russell followed Kefauver on the Democratic ticket with 87 votes.

Governor Stevenson of Illinois led the write-ins with 28 votes. Other write-ins were Sen. Paul Douglas, 5; Harold Stassen, 2; Justice W. O. Douglas, 4; Averell Harriman, 6; President Truman, 2; and Governor Warren, 9.

The campus election, which was undemonstrative after the initial

SEN. ESTES Kefauver (left) split with Gen. Dwight Eisenhower (right) in campus presidential polls run at two North Carolina schools. Ike was a landslide choice at Woman's College while the Tennesseean took Oak Ride by a good margin.

Spanish Club Names New Officers

Club.

Other' officers selected were Vice-President Johnny Poindexter, Burlington, and Social Chairman Shirley Gee, Johnson City,

Jim Eagan, a rising senior from | include parties with the Woman's Portsmouth, Va., recently was College and Duke Spanish Chubs, elected president of the Spanish speeches to the club on Latin America and movies at the meetings.

The club meets every Thursday night at 6 o'clock in the upstairs dining room of Lenoir, Hall. In-Tenn. Club plans for next year terested students are invited.

Ward said

ink they have

and an ideal location and 35 an ideal location

Dr. Herman G. Baity, professor of sanity engineering in the school of public health, was recommended for a leave of absence from Sept. 1, 1952 to Sept. 1, 1953. He will serve as the first director of environmental sanitation of the World Health Organization.

Charles Edward Eaton, assistant professor of the department of English, was recommended for a leave of absence for spring quarter, 1952, and the academic year 1952-53 for further study.

William A. Olsen, professor of speech, department of English, was recommended for a leave of absence, spring quarter 1952, upon advice of physician.

Dr. Clarence Heer, Kenan professor of economics, school of business administration, was recommended for a leave of absence. spring quarter 1952, upon request of the Department of Defense, to Robert A. Fetzer, director of athletics, will resign June 30 to accept the office of executive secretary of the Morehead Scholarship Foundation; and Mr. Edward Freed, of the department of radio and division of communications, will resign to accept a position of faculty member at the University of California. He is presently on leave.

are invited