

"Dream Girl" To Be Named By Theta Chi

Alpha Eta chapter of Theta Chi will celebrate the annual Dream Girl weekend with festivities beginning today.

Highlighting the weekend will be the announcement of the Dream Girl at the formal dance Saturday night in Women's gymnasium. The 1952 Dream Girl, who is selected from the dates of the members, will be presented a loving cup.

Other presentations will be made to the best pledge, the winner of the scholarship award, the outstanding member of the fraternity and to the outstanding senior.

Members of Theta Chi and their dates will gather at the house for refreshments after the dance.

Many of the brothers plan to attend the installation of Delta Rho chapter of Theta Chi at North Carolina State College Saturday afternoon.

Sponsors for the dance are Miss Margaret Green of Thomasville, with President Alan R. Perry of Charlotte; Miss Virginia Jones of Mt. Olive, with Vice-president Neil B. Glenn of Burlington; Miss Mary Nell Hawkins of Murphy, with Secretary Bill Dellinger of Charlotte; Miss Gwen Gore of Raeford, with Treasurer Jerry Kefalas of Wilming-
