

Both Doubles Win; Parker Shoots 67

Sylvia And Handel Beat Blue Devils

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL.
DAVIDSON, May 16—The Carolina tennis team assured itself of at least one Southern Conference tennis champion here today as its number one and two doubles team swept into tomorrow's finals. In the singles Carolina also has a finalist as Del Sylvia came back strong today after pulling a muscle yesterday to win two matches. Thus Carolina has a possibility of making a clean sweep of the tournament for the second straight year.

Sylvia Wasn't Bothered

Sylvia's injury didn't seem to bother him today as he came back strong to play some of the best tennis of his career. In the quarterfinals he beat John Bremer of Davidson, 6-4, 6-3.

Sylvia's semifinal match went the limit as he and Norman Shelling battled it out for a position in the finals. Sylvia won out in five sets 6-1, 6-3, 1-6, 3-6, 6-3. Sylvia's overhead, one of his best shots, was working perfectly today and he had many chances to use it. Herb Browne, the other Carolina player in the singles was eliminated in the quarterfinals by Lacy Keesler of Davidson, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

In the finals tomorrow Sylvia will meet Tom Boys of William and Mary, the number one seeded player of the tournament. Boys has beaten Sylvia once this year.

Brown, Payne Play Best

In the doubles competition the Carolina team of Browne and Payne played their best tennis of the season as they beat Boys and Ronald Barnes of William and Mary, last year's runner-up for the title. The scores were 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. They had gained the semifinals by beating Huyett and Myers of Maryland, 12-10 5-7, 6-4. Sylvia and Handel made it an all-Carolina finals when they beat Shelling and Shim-

Zetes Champs In Horseshoe Tilt, 2-1

The Zeta Psi's beat Sigma Nu in horseshoes, 2-1, Thursday night to take the fraternity intramural championship. The win gives the Zetes two intramural championships for spring quarter. They are tennis and horseshoes.

Campus championships will be played Monday night at 7:00 between Zeta Psi and the Dental School, who won the dorm championships.

Singles—Ed Brown (Zeta) defeated John Fountain (Sig Nu), 2-21, 21-14, 21-8.
Doubles—Tom Gregory-Bud Wallace (Zeta) defeated R. S. White-Gooch Lane (Sig Nu), 5-21, 21-6, 21-15; Bob Page-Buck Small (Sig Nu) defeated Hugh Chapman-Charlie Watkins (Zeta), 21-15, 21-15.

the broad jump finalists as did Al Long for Carolina. Conference defending champion sprinter, UNC's Frank Scott gave notice of things to come in the 100, posting the best time of the afternoon, a rather slow 10.1.

In the hurdles, Carolina's Sonny Beall won his heat in the 120-yard high hurdles with a 15.1 performance, matching that of Duke's ace, Joel Shankle, winner of his heat. Carolina's Romas White, second-place finisher in his heat, eliminated cocky Tex Carter, Maryland's leading timber-topper.

Another close finish found Tar Heel Gene Brigham punching his way into the finals of the half-mile run by a hair's width. The qualifying times in the heats of the half were both rather slow.

Carolina failed to place men in the finals of the quarter-mile, but put finalists in the other ten events. The Tar Heels got two in the finals in four of the other events and three in one.

mell of Duke, 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

The weather here was very hot and the boys had to be fed candy bars between sets to keep them going. Tomorrow's finals will start at 2 p. m.

Thornton's Penalty Gives Deacons Tie

by Biff Roberts

WINSTON-SALEM, May 16 — A two stroke penalty imposed on Bill Thornton for being late to the first tee kept Carolina's golf team from undisputed lead in the first round of the Southern Conference golf tournament played here today.

Thornton shot a 73, and the Carolina team a 296 total to lead second place Wake Forest by two strokes, but a surprise move by the rules committee penalized Thornton two strokes and put the Tar Heels in a tie with Wake Forest at 298.

Carolina's Pete Parker, whose score will not count in the race for the team trophy, cut loose with a four under par 67 to lead the field of 43 golfers. Each Southern Conference school is allowed to enter six men in the team race, and Parker, who played seven for Carolina, was not entered by the Tar Heels.

The team score is figured on the four low players. Tommy Langley, who was second low man in the tourney with 71, Thornton with 75, Bill Williamson with 75, and Lew Brown with 77 made up the four man Carolina team.

N.C. State holds third place in the tournament with 300, Duke is fourth with 302, The Citadel fifth with 303, and Davidson sixth with 309. The final round will be played tomorrow.

Parker shot a 31-36—67 on the tough, par 35-36—71 Old Town Country Club course to post the best score of the day. The back nine gave all the golfers trouble, and many who did well on the first nine blew their score on the second.

Maurice Brackett of State, Dick Tiddy of Wake Forest, Frank Eden of Wake Forest, and Charlie Smith of The Citadel are all tied for third in the individual low scoring with 72.

Jim Ferree and Bob Black, who both shot 78, are the other two members of the Carolina team. Other Carolina golfers who competed are: Edgar Betty, 74; Tom Ruffin, 80; and Doug Roberts, 84.

Vic Seixas Plays Here Tuesday; Banquet Set

by Vardy Buckalew

Vic Seixas, former Carolina tennis star and currently ranked the number one amateur player in the country, will return to Chapel Hill on Tuesday, May 20 to play an exhibition match. That day will be proclaimed "Vic Seixas Day" and a banquet will be held in his honor Tuesday night following the match.

Coach John Kenfield of the Carolina tennis team has arranged the activities and has sent out invitations to all former tennis monogram winners. He has also sent invitations to some 250 other tennis enthusiasts in the surrounding area, and so far is having good response. Special bleachers have been placed around one of the varsity courts and there will be an approximate seating capacity of 3,500.

Seixas will arrive Monday night, having just returned from Bermuda where he played in two tournaments as a warmup for the Wimbledon Championships. He will play Del Sylvia, Carolina's number one player in a singles match. There will also be a doubles match but the opponents have not been named yet. There is a possibility that Bitsy Grant, another former Carolina tennis great, will be able to come up for the day. If he comes, he and Seixas will play Herb Browne and Bob Payne. If he is not able to make the trip, and it seems likely that he will not, Browne will team up with Seixas to face

South Rises

The two southern teams—Duke and State—both won in the first round of the Southern Conference baseball tourney in Raleigh. Duke beat George Washington, 7-5, and State blanked Richmond, 5-0.

Payne and Clark Taylor, Carolina tennis captain in 1950.

The banquet to be held Tuesday night will be held in the Carolina Inn and Coach Kenfield has invited the public to attend. It will be at 7 o'clock and an interesting program has been planned. The cost will be $2.75 a plate and reservations may be made by calling the alumni office at 7781 before 1 p. m. on Monday. Tickets will be held at the desk in the Inn between 6 and 7 on Tuesday night.

Seixas played at Carolina in 1946 and then left for the Navy. He returned and played from 1947-49, and was captain the last two years.
