

Sylvia Wins Southern Conference Title

Browne And Payne Take Doubles Win

(Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL)
DAVIDSON, May 17—A strong rally by Del Sylvia in the last two sets of the finals of the Southern Conference singles championship here today brought him victory over top-seeded Tom Boys of Williams and Mary and gave Carolina a clean sweep of the tournament for the second year in a row.

A victory in the doubles championships was already assured to Carolina yesterday as both of their teams advanced to the finals. It was won today by Herb Browne and Bob Payne over teammates Sylvia and Sam Handel in four sets. It was the first time in the history of the conference that two freshmen have won the title.

The first match of the afternoon was between Boys and Sylvia and it went the full length of five sets. Boys started out as if he was going to do a repeat performance of the match between he and Sylvia earlier in the season at Williamsburg as he took the first set 6-4. However, Sylvia came back to win the next one 6-3, but Boys took the third one 6-4 to take the lead at intermission. After intermission it was a different story though as Sylvia, always a great competitor when the chips are down, came back strong and Boys just couldn't keep up with him as he won the last two sets 6-0, 6-0. Sylvia's overhead was sharp again today as he continued to "put them away."

Coach John Kenfield of the Carolina tennis team commented on the match by saying, "Del just went out there after intermission and showed him who was best."

In the doubles the two Carolina freshmen stars, Herb Browne and Bob Payne, showed promise of becoming a really great combination as they continued to play excellent tennis in beating Sylvia and Handel 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, 6-0. The youngsters just didn't want to get beat as they showed a great competitive spirit in beating the older and more experienced team. The two will have three more years to develop and should they continue to improve seem sure bets to dominate Southern Conference doubles play for a long time.

The sweep of the tournament was the eighth for Tar Heel teams and the second in a row. Last year's singles championship was won by Buddy Agar, number two man of Carolina who beat this year's champion, Sylvia, in the finals. He then teamed up with Bob Luxemburg in the doubles to beat Boys and Barnes of Williams and Mary, this year's top seeded combination.

The temperature today was well above ninety as a relatively small crowd of 500 turned out to watch. The size of the crowd was held down by the fact that there were no Davidson players in the finals.

PICTURED ABOVE ARE FOUR OUTSTANDING PERFORMERS in yesterday's 28th annual running of the Southern Conference Track Championships. Maryland's Marty Cohen broad jumped 23 ft. 5 1/4 in. to win first in his event. Carolina's Frank Scott placed fifth in the 100-yard dash. Duke's Johnny Tate was third in both the quarter-mile and the 220-yard low hurdles. Duke's Henry Poss won the 220 in 21.5 and was second in the 100.

 man eclipsed Bob Seligman's old record of 48 ft. 5 1/2 in. set in 1949. Morris took second in the event, however.

Duke's amazing freshman sensation, Joel Shankle, was easily the outstanding competitor of the afternoon. He took firsts in the 120-yard high hurdles, the 220-yard low hurdles and second in the broad jump. His 14.7 in the highs, 23.4 in the lows and 23 ft. 3 5/8 in. broad jump were all creditable performances.

Larry Hunt, West Virginia's top weightman, won first places in both the shot put and the discus to account for 10 of his team's 15 points. His winning throw in the shot put was 49 ft. 7 1/2 in. and his discus throw was 139 ft. 6 in.

Duke's Henry Poss, an alleged Olympic sprint prospect, lived up to his reputation to some slight extent in winning the 220. He sped the furlong distance in 21.5 after placing second in the 100 to Virginia Military's Herm Decker in a 10.1 race. Poss supposedly had run 9.6 in previous meets.

The final race of the day, the mile relay, provided the fans with a fitting climax to a very successful meet. Maryland took the lead on the first lap and had stretched it to about 25 yards on the second leg. However, Tech's Jim Baker and Ashton Violette closed down the gap to six yards on the final exchange.

Stu Johnson grabbed the baton and sprinted into the lead, passing Maryland's Jim Johnson coming off the first turn. The Blacksburg Comet poured it on in the back stretch and eased in to a relatively simple victory in the fast time of 3:19.8.

Floyd's 218 Goal Saves Is Considered Record

by Martin Jordan
 Carolina has claimed another national honor as Lew Floyd, sensational goalie for the Tar Heel lacrosse team this year, has unofficially broken the national goal saves record. Floyd, with a total of 218 saves, has been the stand-out of the Tar Heel stick squad throughout the season.
 Lew, who hails from University

Park in Maryland, is a junior and will return next season for his last year of eligibility. During the regular season Floyd broke the University single game goal saves record five times. Lew warded off 23 attempts by the Dartmouth squad, saved 24 against Williams, stopped 25 Lehigh tries, and saved 26 goals against Yale early in the season. Last week Floyd stopped 33 attempts by the Washington and Lee club for his highest single game mark.

The Tar Heel goalie entered the Duke game Thursday with a total of 196 saves which topped the old national record by about ten. Coach Al Moore explained that as soon as Lew broke 200 they would claim the record, and with 22 saves in the Duke match the total jumped to 218, making Floyd new saves champion.

All-American mention may be in line for Floyd due to his sensational mark but there will be keen competition in the goalie department of the big honors. Several goalies in the Maryland and New England leagues, where lacrosse is a veteran sport, have outstanding records this year and going will be rough for Lew in the All-American selections.

Carolina has an improved record this year having won five, lost six, and tied one. The Tar Heels took the season opener from Georgetown but dropped the next three games to potent teams from Williams, Dartmouth, and Yale. The Carolina stickmen tied Lehigh and defeated the Norfolk Naval Air Station in the next two games. During the remainder of the season the Tar Heels defeated the Norfolk Air Station again and beat VPI twice while dropping games to Washington and Lee and Duke.
