

Warmer with slight rain with 90 high. Yesterday's high 75, low 60.

The Daily Tar Heel

UNC Library
Serials Dept.
Chapel Hill, N. C. NO. 2

The second installment of the Oatis case. See page 2.

VOLUME LX

NUMBER 178

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1952

FOUR PAGES TODAY

NEWS IN BRIEF

WEST POINT, N. Y.—President Truman yesterday alerted the nation for possible renewal of large-scale warfare in Korea. The President said he is still hopeful of concluding "a just and honorable armistice" in the Far East, but added, "We must also be alert and ready to meet treachery or a renewal of aggression if that should come."

THE HAGUE—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said yesterday that he is "not aspiring to anything," and if the Republican party wants him to run for President, it will have to tell him so. Eisenhower said, "the only way I shall take my other job will be out of a sense of duty, and that sense of duty will have to be communicated to me by that great political party to which I have given as much allegiance as a soldier is allowed."

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin said yesterday he will ask Congress to ratify President Truman's steel seizure if the Supreme Court rules against him.

SEOUL—One prisoner of war was killed, 85 were injured and one Allied soldier hurt yesterday when guards broke up a riot by fanatical Communist prisoners near Pusan. At the same time it was disclosed that a sit-down-strike by Korean prisoners, doctors and attendants in the main prisoner of war hospital on Koje Island had been broken without violence.

SEOUL—United Nations truce negotiators yesterday accused the Communists of "seeking every vicious means" to block a Korean armistice because of their "fear of the truth." No progress was made in the 62-minute session on the issue of captured Reds who do not want to return to Communist territory.

Cline Named Publications' New Adviser

Marshall E. Cline, law student from Chapel Hill, has been appointed financial adviser to the Publications Board. Chairman Walt Dear said yesterday.

Cline will replace Ernest Delaney, present coordinator, in September.

Cline has served with Burlington Mills in the personnel department and has had extensive experience in financial matters. The adviser's job is to inform the board of legal aspects of contracts, advisability of obtaining new services for the Yackety Yack or The Daily Tar Heel, and advising on such matters as the standard vs. tabloid question.

Dear also said the board was collaborating with the committee to revive Tarnation.

Pharmacy Honors Go To Several

New officers were installed and awards given last night at the annual Pharmacy School Awards night held in Howell Hall.

New leaders taking over were President Rowe Campbell, Taylorsville; Vice-President Graham White, Burlington; Secretary-Treasurer Ann Smith, Warsaw, and Honor Council Representative Steve Perrow, Bedford, Va.

Student officers for the state pharmaceutical association installed were President Charlie Blanton, Black Mountain; Vice-President Tommy Burgess, Sparta; Secretary Jackie O'Neal, Louisville; Treasurer Jerry Gaylord, Winterville, and Executive Committee Chairman Gene Hackney, Sanford.

F. Jackson Andrews, class of 1916 and president of Emerson Drug Company, was guest speaker.

Awards given to outstanding senior class members were the Lehn and Fink gold medal for highest scholastic average during four years, Cade Brooks, Fayetteville.

Buxton Williams Hunter medal for scholarship and campus citizenship, Earl Brown, Asheville.

The Merck awards for outstanding scholarship, Hallett Daniels, Colerain, and Earl Hatcher, Cinquapin.

The Bristol awards for meritorious scholarship, Hugh Fletcher, Drexel.

School of Pharmacy student body award for highest qualities of character, deportment, scholarship, participation in extra-curricular activities and promise of future distinction in the profession, Earl Brown, Asheville.

Kappa Epsilon award to woman student who has demonstrated qualities of leadership, character, service, and scholarship, Betty Sparks, Draper.

Pharmacy Senate award for greatest loyalty and service to the School of Pharmacy, Sam Price, Mooresville.

North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association award for best program of the year, sponsored by the student branch, NCAP, Pharmacy Senate.

Women's Auxiliary of the American Pharmaceutical Association (See PHARMACY, page 4)

Playmakers Will Caper Saturday At Own Show

by Chuck Kellogg

In a spectacle of music, satirical skits and loud laughter, the Playmakers will cut their 28th annual caper Saturday night at 8:30 in the Playmakers Theater.

All fans of the drama group are invited to attend the celebration at no admission charge.

"Boone For Sure" is the caption of this year's musical program, and it will feature nine new songs, several farcical dramatic skits, impersonations of well-known Playmaker staff

POGO AND HIS VIEWS

'Good Gosh,' Kelly Opines About UNC

Pogo's worldwide campaign manager, Cartoonist Walt Kelly, gave a long, low whistle over the telephone from New York yesterday and opined: "Good gosh!"

He referred to the people's possum who currently is sweeping the UNC campus as a candidate for president. Pogo is being boomed by small orange colored discs—more informally known as "I Go Pogo" buttons.

Pogo's active managers on campus, T. Mac Long and Al Perry, said they planned to end distribution today of the 5,000 Pogo buttons which were sent for the student body. Managers who have not picked up their buttons should come by The Daily Tar Heel office this afternoon.

Horton Backs Comical Pogo As President

Ham Horton, deep from within the plush seat known as the President's chair, yesterday threw his support to Pogo, the people's possum.

Horton's statement: "I call on all good Democrats to help support Pogo, the only possum who can unite the Democratic Party at the convention, who will be the first southern president since Andrew Johnson. He will make no dissension on the issue of civil rights, since he is an anibobble and is not entitled to any."

"He has often unequivocally expressed his stand four square in favor of the flag of his native land, namely the U. S. and A., womanhood, and Mother."

members and clever stage settings and costumes.

In spite of approaching exams, directors Hansford Rowe and Bill Trotman have rounded up and rehearsed a cast of over 30. Together, these two showmen have composed most of the lyrics to go with the music of Frank Groseclose. Rowe authored the book, and arranged for scenery by Don Treat. Costumes are by Barbara Byrd, with special piano and organ accompaniment by Groseclose and Larry Stith.

Seniors Bare Feet For Day's Festival

Afternoon Picnic Is At Hogan's Lake; 'Grudge' Junior-Senior Game On Tap

Senior class feet will be exposed to Carolina tradition today as members of the Class of 1952 celebrate Barefoot Day.

All seniors will begin the day of festivities by attending classes, labs and meals in their bare feet. Later this afternoon all seniors will gather with their dates at Hogan's Lake for the annual senior party.

Festivities will be initiated at 4 p.m. with a softball "grudge" game between the Class of '52 and the Class of '53. Carson Yates and Edgar Betty will captain and manage the senior team and Jim Hurley will lead the junior aggregation. Umpires have not been assigned by the commissioner, but the "best available" are promised "without regard to costs."

Soft drinks, potato chips, popcorn and sandwiches will be served during and after the game.

Following the game, Jimmy Dukes' combo will provide music for listening from 5:30 until 7:30.

Seniors are reminded that everything in today's program is free.

"We wish that all juniors and seniors who plan to attend the picnic try to find rides to Hogan's Lake. If there are any cars that are going out that can carry a few people, we wish they would stop by the Y Court and pick up all juniors and seniors who have not found rides around 5 o'clock." Senior Class President Archie Myatt requested.

Good Morning!

ATOMIC songstress Abbe Lane, alias Mrs. Xavier Cugat, catches the eye and nearly a cold with her briefs against the landscape of a Las Vegas, Nev. hotel.

Stars' Story Of Creation At Morehead

Continuing the tradition of "Trip to the Moon," "Invasion from Mars," "The End of the World" and the ever-popular Christmas and Easter presentations, Morehead Planetarium is adding a spectacular new performance to its repertoire of feature attractions.

Entitled "In the Beginning..." the new sky presentation opened last night at 8:30.

Performances will be given at the same time every night hereafter, and matinees on Saturdays at 3 and 4 o'clock and on Sundays at 2, 3 and 4 p. m. Special demonstrations will be given for groups of 100 or more persons. Student ticket rates are 38 cents.

In the creation of the universe, the current scientific theory of the sequence of events of three or four billion years ago which unfolded in the beginning of the world will be explained, Anthony Jenzano, Planetarium manager, said.

"Just what did happen in that distant past is a matter of speculation, but some cosmogonists believe that in a mass of highly concentrated and dense matter at a temperature of many billions of degrees, a mysterious explosion took place, resulting in a rapid drop of the existing temperature," Jenzano said.

Dear Seeks DTH Staffers For Summer

Walt Dear, rising senior from Jersey City, N. J., and Wallace Pridgen, rising junior from Wilson, will be in charge of the summer Tar Heel, editor Barry Farber said yesterday.

Dear is chairman of the Publications Board and has had extensive newspaper experience with The Daily Tar Heel. Pridgen is advertising manager for the paper.

Anybody wishing to work in the news, sports, society or business offices should contact Dear at 2-7096 or 2-3361, or Pridgen at 2-3371.

Yack Day

Yackety Yacks will be given out today from 4 p. m. until 8 o'clock in the Yack office on second floor Graham Memorial.

It will be the last opportunity, Circulation Manager Hal Ward said yesterday.