

CAMPUS CAROUSEL

by Deenie Schoeppe

This is it. The last. And your tired and worn sassy editor will miss it, even if you do keep telling me your cooks and house-boys are pinned!

Among the many activities that have been going on outside the dorm windows after closing hours this past week have been some very pretty serenades. Sigma Nu's serenaded Chi O Cay Youngs, new pin-up of Bunny Theiling, and Carolyn Murray who's pinned to Bob Bennett. Phi Delta Theta's serenaded Gayle Ruffin, now wearing the Phi Delt pin of Chigger Qualls.

Tri Delt Pat George, Chapel Hill is engaged to John Dortch, Kappa Sig form the province of Camaguey, Cuba. Another engaged Tri Delt is Ann Nowel of Ahoskie, who will marry Lt. John Steed Evans, Murfreesboro.

In honor of their graduating seniors, Zeta Beta Tau's will have a cocktail party Saturday night, stag.

Saint A's had themselves a party Tuesday night when Charlie Spivak came over (with trumpet).

Alpha Gam Margaret Green of Thomasville is now pinned to Al Perry, Theta Chi from Charlotte. Theta Chi Don Fisher, Rocky Mount gave his pin to Frances Stephenson, Reidsville. And one more! Theta Chi dream girl Nancy Young, Chapel Hill, is pinned to Al Samuels, Theta Chi of Paragould, Ark.

KA's are honoring their graduating seniors with a beer party at Hogan's this afternoon and a banquet Sunday. Tate Erwin, new chapter president, spoke at the banquet.

Phi Gam seniors were given a beer party at Hogan's Tuesday.

PIKA'S, have done a beautiful job of painting their house.

Phi Kappa Sigs have also gotten quite ambitious and built a pine panelled bar in their basement.

Phi Delt Housemother Mrs. W. B. Tanner will entertain with an ice skating party in Raleigh tonight.

Sigma Chi's went out of town last week to serenade the pin-up of Tommy McAlister, Harriette Whitmore at WC.

ATO's serenaded Duke coed Ellen Hennessy, pin-up of Bill Kelso.

Theta Chi's will have their senior farewell dinner tonight at Watt's. They've elected Bill Dellinger, Charlotte, to serve as their summer president.

AKPsi's among the pinned are Bob Pfaff, Winston-Salem, pinned to Irene Reins, of WC, and Winston-Salem. Brother Dale Rosenblatt, Catasauqua, Pa., pinned Tumesia Renn, Durham, a lab technician at the UNC infirmary.

Chi Phi George Hodgkin entertained the brothers with some trick ice-skating in Raleigh this week.

Deke underclassmen will give graduating seniors a beer party tomorrow at Hogan's.

SAE George Mountcastle, Winston-Salem, is pinned to Mildred Brown, also of Winston.

Even graduation won't stop Tarheels from beach houseparties. Phi Delt's will again make the trip to Myrtle Beach after exams.

Kappa Alpha's will also "rest up" after exams with a beach party at Myrtle.

And the pinned list grows longer! Lambda Chi Jim Stegall, Oxford, pinned Jane Cutts, Stovall and Earl Litzenberg, Bethlehem, Pa., pinned Mary Alice Bailey, Everetts. Both girls attend Meredith.

Speaking of Lambda Chi's, they're playing another of those baseball games with the TEP's, and the winnah gets a keg of beer.

Alpha Gamma Delta's entertained all fraternities with a tea Sunday.

Another houseparty at Myrtle after exams will be the Chi Psi's.

And everybody's going Pogo except "Smoke" Redding who's going Railway Express.

SPE Robert Bailey, Washington, D. C., will marry Helen Seifert, Emporia, Va., June —

Phi Phi seniors were presented with compacts inscribed with the sorority crest Thursday night at their farewell dinner.

Phi Delt graduating seniors were given alumni charms as gifts from the chapter.

And now, in response to a very special request, here it is: Vince Grimaldi. That's all!

And best of luck graduates—have a wonderful summer everyone and do lots of interesting things so we'll have a huge column next fall. Been fun!
