

Down In Front

By Biff Roberts

Crystal Gazing

Stanley Woodward is a football expert. And because of his position of prominence when the autumn leaves start turning pigskin brown he publishes a football pictorial, in it choosing an all-american team, selecting the weekly grid winners, and picking sectional conference leaders. What he has to say about Texas is anything but appealing to Tar Heel fans.

Woodward places the Longhorns among the top 20 teams in the nation. He says they will be the runner-up to Texas Christian in the Southwestern Conference. And come December he expects fullback Dick Ochoa, halfback Gib Dawson, and end Tom Stohlhandske to be members of the all-Southwestern team.

This in itself is enough to make the staunchest of Tar Heel fans weep. But to make matters worse we have to consider that all of this information was compiled and printed before the Texans played LSU last weekend. Playing in the rain and doing very little passing the Longhorns trounced the Bengals, 35-14. At the same time TCU lost to Kansas which would probably make Mr. Woodward reverse his earlier opinion that Texas would be runner-up in the Southwest.

More Trouble

And in addition to the above mentioned players a few more threats were added to the list of those to watch. Quarterback T. Jones established himself right smartly in that position by passing to Stohlhandske (one of four passes completed by the Texans) for one touchdown and then personally accounting for two more.

But let's get back to Mr. Woodward and see what he has to say about our Tar Heels. Not having the first hand information on our adeptness with the new T in a regular game he was not able to go on at length about our possibilities. It seemed that he was basing his account on our lack of success last year. He placed us as definite underdogs against the Longhorns.

We'll have to go along with him on that account. We will be underdogs come Saturday for Texas has been rated by some (Paul Williamson, among others) as the nation's top team of those who opened the season early last weekend.

Something Extra

But something extra which will have to be taken into consideration is the liking that the Tar Heels have taken to the T formation. The team has yet to be tried on its handling of the new formation except in scrimmages and practice games. But one thing which makes this year's outfit better than last season's is its outlook and enthusiasm in working with the T.

It may be a less experienced Carolina team which comes out on Kenan Field Saturday but it will be an enthusiastic one. A little spirit goes a long way toward erasing the mistakes of inexperience.

The Longhorns are fast and tough but they should know they've been in a ball game by the time the bell tower breaks forth with Hark the Sound on Saturday.

Odds and Ends

The Tar Heels are using a new system of choosing captains this season. Captains will be appointed for each game as it comes about with the season captain being elected by the team at the end of the year.

Two highly-deserving players have been appointed to lead the Tar Heels against Texas. Bud Wallace, senior fullback from Kinston, and George Norris, one of the Conference's best ends will be head men Saturday.

The Texas team is scheduled to arrive at 7:00 tonight. A light workout which may be of interest to Carolina fans will be held tomorrow afternoon in Kenan Stadium.

It grows more doubtful that Charlie Motta will be able to go Saturday thus leaving it open to Carmen Anillo and Lou Britt to handle the quarterbacking with Anillo probably getting the starting nod.

SOCCER PLAYERS

Coach Al Moore has issued a plea for soccer players. With every position on the team "wide open" Moore hopes that all interested players will report to Fetzer Field this afternoon at 3:00. Practice will be held at that time every weekday.

Carolina Football Team In High Spirit As Snavely Practices Hard For Opener

By Tom Peacock

The Carolina football team's spirits and hopes were high as it ran through a fast and hard practice yesterday evening in preparation for Saturday's opener with Texas.

There was little contact in the semi-secret practice with head coach Carl Snavely and his assistant George Barclay stressing offense. Charlie Motta, the previous number one quarterback, ran through a few plays in the practice, but he won't be able to play against the Longhorns. Motta hurt his ankle last week.

The rest of the squad will be in good physical condition for the game, trainer Fitz Lutz reported, and Snavely isn't taking chances on a practice injury late in the week.

GIB DAWSON
Texas Speedster

There are still plenty of seats left for the game, and from present indications there will not be a sellout in Kenan Stadium. The crowd might reach 35,000.

Yesterday Coach Snavely worked principally with the backfield, with Anillo, Britt, Newman, and Motta all passing from quarterback in Carolina's split-T. Anillo will probably start Saturday, but Britt especially will see a lot of action.

Line Looks Good

Barclay worked with the Tar Heel offensive line, and the boys looked good against Texas' tricky defense. How Carolina's coaches expect to stop the Texas power and speed packed backfield is a secret known only to them, but the feeling among the team is that it can whip the Longhorns.

Snavely stopped contact after

Full Code Of Ethics For Football Coaches Drawn Up For 1953; Approval Expected

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL. NEW YORK, N. Y.—A code of ethics under which football coaches face drastic reforms is revealed in the latest issue of Newsweek magazine, out today.

Not scheduled for presentation to the full membership of the American Football Coaches Association until January, the code was recently completed and has already been approved by the Association's board of trustees, the magazine says.

Among the highlights of the code, based on information Newsweek secured from "sources other than the compilers" are:

"It shall be unethical for coaches to pick weekly game winners or to participate in football polls or rating systems."

"On-and off-the record criticisms of officials to players or the public shall be considered unethical." During a game "Coaches should be as inconspicuous as possible."

"To show (movies of) critical plays to sportswriters, sportscasters, alumni, and the public which may incite them to label officials as incompetents, must be considered unethical conduct."

According to Newsweek, the annual meeting of the American Football Coaches Association in Cincinnati last January unanimously voted to formulate, adopt and enforce a code of ethics for their work. If, as expected, the code is approved next January (to be effective beginning in 1953), it will not lack for the instruments of effective enforcement, the magazine says.

"Violations will be investigated by the committee on ethics, and its report and recommendations will be passed on to an annually appointed, five-man board of review with the power to suspend and expel members."

FOOTBALL SALESMAN

A meeting of all football program salesmen will be held today, Thursday, at 4:00 in Room 304 of Woollen gymnasium.

In the event of a class conflict you are requested to contact Bill Kucyk in 315 Woollen gymnasium before 4:00 p.m.

OFFICIALS NEEDED

Students desiring work as tag football officials are requested to contact the Intramural office at 315 Woollen gymnasium.

All officials will be required to attend an officials clinic which begins Monday, September 29th.

Rabb Seeks Mural Heads

Has your dorm elected its intramural manager yet?

Intramural director Walter Rabb said yesterday that all managers and tag-football teams must be registered by Oct. 6, the date for the first managers' meeting. Mr. Rabb also emphasized that football eligibility lists must be handed in by this time. Dorm tag-football teams begin play Oct. 8.

Fraternity mural managers will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m., and all entries must be in by that time. Fraternity football teams will begin play Oct. 1.

Teams may reserve field for practice starting Monday by calling the intramural office.

SUAB

All students interested in working on the Student Union Activities Board will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the SUAB office in Graham Memorial.

County Wildlife Club Schedules Trap Shoot Today

The Orange County Wildlife Club will hold a Trap Shoot to which all Carolina students are invited. The event, which is scheduled for Hogan's Lake from 4:00-6:30, will take place today.

Walter Rabb, who is the president of the Club disclosed yesterday that if enough students take interest in the event, it may be added to the Intramural curriculum.

Students who enter today are to bring their own guns and ammunition. An entry fee of fifty cents will be charged each contestant. The money is to be used to purchase awards for the four best scores.

Bait Casting may also be added to the Intramural program if enough students show interest, Rabb added.

Let our experts
FALL-CONDITION
Your car!

It's time right now to check and adjust your car's vitals for efficient cold weather operation.

Drive in Today for

- Complete Lubrication
- Brake Adjustment
- Drain, check and refill cooling system
- Engine Tune-up

Our expert shop men are eager to serve you

CASTON MOTOR CO.
419 W. Franklin St.—Phone 9-421

DODGE • PLYMOUTH
DODGE Job-Rated TRUCKS

Say othello to comfort
try Jockey Shorts

$1.20

JACK LIPMAN'S Made by Coopers

"SERVING THE COLLEGE MAN SINCE 1924"

While You Were Away

During the Summer your old pals at the Intimate Bookshop have continued their search for good reading at moderate prices. Here are a few we've nicked off for your temptation:

Incredible Tale—by Gerald W. Johnson. The story of the Average American in the first fifty tumultuous years of this century. Published at $3.50. Our Special$1.00

Doppelgangers, by H. F. Heard. The author of "A Taste for Honey" has turned out a swell bit of psychological science-fiction. Published at $2.75. Our Special$1.25

Harvard Advocate Anthology Here's an encouraging collection including the undergraduate writings of Franklin D. Roosevelt, John Reed, Conrad Aiken, T. S. Eliot, Norman Mailer and a host of others who once sweated out the same sort of exams you'll be facing in a month or so. Published at $5.00. Our Special$1.89

Dictionary of Word Origins, by Joseph T. Shipley. An authoritative guide to the better use, understanding, history and background of the English language. Published at $5.00. Our Special$2.49

Benjamin Franklin's Autobiographical Writings, selected and edited by Carl Van Doren. The famous Autobiography amplified and carried forward to the time of Franklin's death by the use of letters and other autobiographical writings. Published at $6.00. Our Special$1.25

Four Portraits, studies of the Eighteenth Century by Peter Quennell. Portraits of James Boswell, Edward Gibbon, Laurence Sterne and John Wilkes. An outstanding English import. Our Special$1.25

That Old-Time Religion by Archie Robertson. From the Button Baptists to Father Divine this book follows the development of personal religion, with sympathy but not without humor. Was $3.00. Our Special$1.25

The Promise by Mildred Cram. Here is a tender, slightly sentimental story. It's so short you can read it in a half-hour's browse, but to read it is to want it always! Published at $1.50. Our Special75c

Come In! Browsing's Still Free and We Like Your Corny Humor.

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

205 E. Franklin St. Open Evenings

Color by Technicolor

BOB AND JANE HIT THE SONG AND LAUGH TRAIL WITH ROY ROGERS AND TRIGGER!

WELCOME TO CLASS OF 1956

Electric Construction Company
169 E. Franklin Street
Chapel Hill, N. C.

THE BIGGEST SHOW OF 1952 FALL EDITION

NAT KING COLE Stan KENTON
44 Prof. ORCHESTRA

SARAH VAUGHAN Plus

STUMP and STUMPY 2 GREAT COMICS
THE UNBETTERABLE GEORGE KIRBY
TEDDY HALE THE NATIONAL TOP TOWER
THE SENSATIONAL THE CONGRUOS

Raleigh Memorial Auditorium
THURSDAY EVENING Oct. 2

Tickets On Sale At THEM RECORD SHOP
$3.75 - $3.25 - $3.00 - $2.50 - $2.00
$1.75 - $1.50

SON OF PALEFACE
Also
Pete Smith Novelty TODAY

Carolina

U. N. C.
You are invited to
WEST FRANKLIN LUNCHEONETT formerly
BOB SMITH'S
Wine — Beer on Draft and Bottles
Good Sandwiches

Advertisement by HENRI, HURST & McDONALD, INC.

Dr. Percy Bysshe Stodge, renowned English Literature professor, says

"I want to have Wordsworth you about underwear!"

With a devilish gleam in his eye, Professor Stodge tells his students, "Dafoe we go any further, let me tell you about real Jockey brand comfort. You'll never find a Chaucer pair of shorts anywhere, Keats, Byron or two pair and see for yourself!"

Enjoy the smooth, snug fit that is exclusively Jockey's!

13 separate contoured pieces are carefully crafted into one smooth-fitting garment.

Newly-developed heat resistant rubber in waistband outlasts other leading brands by 40%.

No sag or bind around the legs.

Unique Jockey no-gap front opening.

all underwear gives you coverage but only Jockey gives you full comfort!

Made only by Coopers Kenosha, Wisconsin