

UN Day Groups Here To Meet Today In Y

Three committees will meet this morning in the Y to complete plans for next Friday's UN Day celebration.

The International Supper Committee will meet at 9:30 with co-chairmen Sue Fink and John McLendon. The Noon Ceremony Committee will meet at 10:30 with chairman Fred Cleveland. At 11:30, the Educational and Publicity Committee will meet with its chairman, Ann Blalock.

When Coach Carl Snavelly sent his Carolina football team against the Texas Longhorns here September 27 at Kenan Stadium, it was the start of Snavelly's tenth campaign here.

CAROLINA CAROUSEL

By Deenie Schoeppe

So now we can have real "after the game" parties and victory celebrations, we hope, instead of just celebrations.

KA's began celebrating last night with a party at Lloyd's barn, with beer and dancing.

The Lambda Chi's cabin partied last night at Neal Thompson's with the Wake Forest chapter.

Biggest oversight of last week's column: Bud Maddie, Bronx, N. Y., was initiated into Phi Kappa Sig. (That's the fraternity Vince Grimaldi's in!)

Phi Kappa Sigs are having a cocktail party this a.m. at the house, which has just been re-decorated.

ADPi pledge Nell Boone Crofton got pinned this week to PIKA Tommy Wellington of Wake Forest.

Recent engagement at the AD-Pi house is that of Julia Steed, Richlands who will marry Hubert Rogers, Kappa Psi from Fair Bluff.

Mrs. L. C. Neal, Chi O house-mother, was serenaded by the Theta Chi's this week and given a Theta Chi mother's pin, as her son Bob is a Theta Chi.

TEP's are doing much socializing this weekend. They're having a "Wake for Wake Forest" party tonight and brother Norman Goldin will hold open house in Raleigh tomorrow afternoon.

Chi Phi's cabin party last night was at Perry's with guitar music by Jimmy Holliday.

The Beta's will entertain the Tri Delt chapter Thursday with a Hallowe'en costume party at the house.

Believe this if you can, but the St. A's are having a coon hunt complete with hound dogs Saturday night.

Scene of the Chi Psi's party tonight will be Bob Smith's, alias the Franklin Street Dinette.

Kappa Sigs are having much big party tonight—complete with combo.

Phi Kappa Sigs will have their Founders' Day Banquet Wednesday night with a cocktail party before it.

Pi Kappa Phi's have an after the game party scheduled at the house and Phi Delta Chi's will party Saturday night at the house.

Cabin parties sure seem to be the order of the day. Pi Lams will have one tonight too.

ATO's will entertain the Chi O's Thursday at the Legion hut.

Pi Phi president Bish Fox, Roanoke, Va., is engaged to PIKA president Jimmy Lester, also of Roanoke.

Another recent engagement is that of Chi O Cay Youngs, Miami, Fla., to Sigma Nu Bernard Theil-ing of Charlotte.

Apologies to Phi Gam Joe Nelson, Rocky Mount, who isn't pinned to Shirley Norvil at all, but to Joan Davenport of Salem College.

Alpha Gamma Delta's honored their new housemother, Mrs. Lorena Patie, with a tea given at their house Thursday. They had open house for their new pledges last Friday. Tomorrow they'll have a coffee for all fraternities.

Tri Delt pledges were entertained at the house Saturday with brunch.

KD's had brunch and bridge for their pledges last Saturday and a buffet supper Wednesday night.

Zeta Psi's will do their partying at the Carolina club tonight.

ZBT's and their guest will have dinner and a party at the house after the game.

And another cabin party. Who? Phi Delt's at Lloyd's Saturday night.

Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity has been partying of late. Last week it was at the Legion hut and tonight they'll go to Turnage's in Durham.

Pi Beta Phi province president Mrs. R. W. Horuff will pay the local chapter a visit this weekend. Sorority presidents are invited to a dinner in her honor Monday night.

One TEP minus a pin is Rick Levy, Jamaica, N. Y., who pinned Joan Katz, N. Y. City. TEP Alan Gordon, Raleigh, is engaged to Betty Eatman, Raleigh.

Susan Northrop, Charlotte, now wears the Phi Kappa Sig pin of Fritz Pelone also of Charlotte.

That's it for today—see you at the game!

"I made up a girl pickaninny with lots of bows in her hair for a hand craft project in vacation Bible School. Later Mother took one to a gift shop to get it framed for a gift. She had barely reached the inside of the shop when a lady stopped her and asked to buy it for a Christmas gift. Mother came home with orders for more and for other things done in the same style."

A 1944 graduate of Winthrop College at Rock Hill, S. C., Mrs. Stoudemire helped her college expenses with her art sales. She majored in fine arts at Winthrop and later took private lessons in Aiken.

North Carolina Authors On The Dollar Table

Debby—North Carolina's own Max Steele won the 1950 Harper Prize with this heart-warming novel. One of the finest books on our dollar table.

Jackson Mahaffey—The story of the taming of a whiskey-drinking, cock-fighting fool from the North Carolina back country, by Fred Ross.

The Horns of Capricorn, by Helen Topping Miller. A romantic novel of North Carolina at the turn of the Century, and mighty good reading for an off hour.

The Way of the South—A living biography of a people, by U.N.C.'s own Charles W. Odum. This belongs on your permanent shelf.
