In Your Church

By Tom Neal Jr.

Baptist
Many people contend that Christianity is a wonderful ideal, but that its principles cannot be applied in life. The local BSU program holds that Christianity can assuredly be applied in every realm of life, and the local Baptist student group is doing something to prove it.

Through its Applied Christianity Committee, the BSU is co-operating with other student religious groups in project aimed at aiding youthful offenders at Camp Butler to re-adjust to society.

Last Wednesday representatives of several organizations journeyed to Camp Butler Youth Center to confer with officials there. It is hoped that 50 or 60 of the 80 youths, who range from 17-21 years of age, will be able to come to UNC as guests of student religious groups.

At supper forum tonight, Dr. Bernard Boyd of the Religion Department, will continue the series of programs on "Christian Faith and Life's Decisions." His topic is "War and Pacifism." Supper is served at 6 p.m.

Christian Science
The topic of the lesson-sermon today in all Christian Science churches is "Adam and Fallen Man." Local services are held in New West Lecture Hall at 11 a.m.

Congregational Christian
The United Student Fellowship will continue its discussion on "What Is Faith?" this morning.

Tonight the regular supper meeting will be followed by a program presented by Tom Largett, president of the North Carolina United Student Fellowship, and other representatives from the Elon College Student Christian Association. D. J. Bowden, dean of Elon College, will be key-note speaker for the occasion.

Episcopal
worship and life series of program is being held at the Chapel of the Cross Nov. 9, 10 and 11. Canon Charles Martin, canon of the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C., is guest lecturer. Canon Martin will conduct the 11 o'clock service this morning, with a program of morning prayer and sermon; this evening at 7:30, he will speak on "Offering and Work."

Methodist
The Wesley Foundation will have the first in its series of deputation programs tonight at 6 o'clock. A group of 15 girls from Greensboro College will present the program. This program will open at 5:30 p.m. with fellowship, and at 6 o'clock with supper and will be concluded with recreation and the friendship circle. All students are invited to attend.

The Wesley Foundation program for this week follows: Tuesday, 8 p.m., young adults; Thursday, 5:45 p.m., vespers; Friday, 7:30 p.m. fireside; Sunday, 9:45 a.m., cocoa and donuts; 10 a.m., Wesley class with Joel Savell, teacher; 10 a.m., Young Adult Class with Dr. Frak Hamft, teacher; 4:30 p.m., Wesley Chorus; 5:30 p.m., fun and fellowship; 6 p.m., supper and program.

YMCA
Prasong Rangisdravandhana, visiting educator from Thailand, who is touring the United States as a UNESCO fellowship winner, is spending a week here as guest of the School of Education. Rangisdravandhana will tell of the work of the YMCA in Bangkok. He will speak Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the YMCA Cabinet Room.

NO WINDSHIELD WIPER
The British say they've developed a moisture-proof glass for windshields. A thin transparent sheet of metal oxide between two plates of glass does the trick. The metal oxide conducts electricity, heating the glass and drying up the moisture.

SMELL FISHY?
ing wives have a new lease on domestic bliss. Addition of chlorophyll to a waterless hand cleaner removes fish odor. Fine for Isaac Waltons.

The Professor Who Couldn't Say "No"

OR
WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO FLUNK

Once there was a Professor who was reluctant to Flunk the Team's Top Muscle-Man... a fullback named Printwhistle, of impressive Physical Proportions but intellectually a Lump. The Professor sought a Loophole. "Printwhistle," he said, "I am no pedant who believes that the sole purpose of education is to cram the Mind with Facts. Rather is its aim to broaden the Mind and make it more Productive. If you can come to me within 24 hours with one—just one—original and worthwhile idea, I shall not Flunk you."

The dejected Printwhistle explained his Dilemma to his roommate, "Relax," said the latter. "Simplest thing in the world" . . . and he expounded a Stratagem.

Next morning the evidence was in. Telegrams . . . hundreds of 'em . . . on the Professor's desk, from practically everybody on the Campus. All bearing the same message: "Printwhistle must not Flunk. Old Blackstrap needs him. This Approach is his idea."

Did it work? Well, there's a certain All-American named Printwhistle whose voice shakes with grateful Emotion when anyone mentions Western Union in his Presence.

When you want to Swing a Deal . . . Telegrams work wonders. They're grade-A Date Bait, great for coaxing cash from home, practical for arranging anything from a Weekend to a Job Interview. When you want to get inside the Opponent's ten-yard line . . . let Western Union carry the ball.
