

Tar Heels To Work Out This Morning Before Taking Trip

By Tom Peacock

Carolina's football team will run through a short practice this morning on Navy Field to wind up preparations for South Carolina tomorrow, and then leave by bus for Columbia at 1:15.

The Tar Heels worked out yesterday afternoon, stressing pass defense against the accurate throwing of Gamecock quarterback Johnny Gramling, one of the best passers in the Southern Conference.

Carolina will be looking for its first win in 11 games, its last victory coming over South Carolina here last year, 21-6. Carolina holds a commanding lead over the Gamecocks in the 23-year old series between the two schools, winning 18, losing five, and tying four.

The Gamecocks are strong favorites to score their first win over the Tar Heels since a 6-0 victory in 1944, however. South Carolina has improved greatly after a slow start, and beat powerful Virginia, 21-14, week-before-last. Virginia whipped the Tar Heels last Saturday, 34-7.

Duke and Army are the only schools to score wins over South Carolina this year, and Coach Rex Enright's charges are determined to win the battle of the Carolinas, to avoid smearing their best record in years. The Gamecocks have beaten Wofford, The Citadel, Clemson, and Furman in addition to Virginia.

Carolina is in its poorest physical shape of the year, with the addition of safetyman Teedie Bullock to the injury list dimming the outlook even more. Bullock will miss the game because of an ear infection.

Halfbacks Bob White, Ken Keller, Billy Hawks, and Billy Williams will all be out of action tomorrow from injuries. Doug Bruton, a stalwart defensive line-backer is sidelined to round out the long list of Tar Heel injuries. Fullback Bull Davidson returns to the lineup.

John Gaylord is scheduled to start at right halfback tomorrow in place of Chal Port for the only change in the North Carolina lineup. The rest of the offensive backfield and line remain the same, while head coach Carl Snavely will have to make a replacement for the injured defensive backs, Bruton and Bullock. Snavely switched Bullock to halfback and Albert Long to safety against Virginia after Bruton was injured.

The Carolina pass defense fell apart last week, and Snavely has been working hard on the secondary and going comparatively light on heavy scrimmage. The Tar Heels have taken quite a beating from some of the best teams in the country, and the smooth working of plays is more important now than ever.

Quarterback Marshall Newman continued to work on his passing, while his alternate, Charlie Motta worked on the running game. The Tar Heels will concentrate on passing and running through plays this morning.

Pika's, Beta's Win In Playoff

Beta Theta Pi came from behind in the last half yesterday afternoon to beat the SAE's 12-9 in the fraternity division of the tag football playoffs.

The score at the half was 7-6 in favor of the SAE's on the strength of an intercepted lateral by Jim Whitten which he ran back for a touchdown. Fred Hutchins kicked the extra point which looked for a might would win the game.

The Beta score in the first half came on a sensational pass from John McCollum to Bob Byerly. The extra point try was blocked. The second half surge by the Beta's was led by McCollum and was climaxed when Hazzard threw to Bucky Barkley for the winning touchdown.

The other two points made by the SAE's came when the Beta's, seeking to protect their lead, downed the ball in their end zone after they had been pushed deep into their territory.

Zeta Psi 1 team scored after 20 minutes of overtime to win over the PIKA's 12 to 6.

The Zetas scored first when John Dickson intercepted a pass which had been partially blocked and ran 50 yards for the score.

The try for the extra point was unsuccessful.

The PIKA's came back to score when Fowler caught a pass from about ten yards out. Their try for the extra point was also unsuccessful.

It looked as though the game would have to be called on account of darkness when the Zetas started a march which carried them to a score on Walton Joyner's catch of a short pass.

In the other fraternity play-off game yesterday the Sigma Chi's and Zeta Psi 2 fought to a 7-7 standoff. The game was called after forty minutes of overtime and will be continued at a later date.

The Zetas scored first on a play which went from Ges, to Van Noppen to Thorp. The extra point came when Ges passed to Chapman.

The Sigma Chi's came right back and scored almost immediately to tie up the game for the rest of the afternoon. Dale took a pass from Bobby Bell and ran about fifty yards before he was caught on the goal line. Bell passed to Dale on the very next play for the score.

Henning's first try for the game-tying point was wide but the Zetas were off side and his second try was good. Neither team threatened to score very seriously in the second half.

Bobby Shantz Named American League's Most Outstanding Star

NEW YORK—The Baseball Writers Association of America yesterday named little Bobby Shantz of the Philadelphia Athletics as the American League's most valuable player. Shantz had a 24-7 record with the fourth-place A's. Allie Reynolds was Shantz' nearest competitor, trailing him by some 100 votes.

NEW ORLEANS—Cliff Wells, basketball coach of Tulane University, planned yesterday to in-

Gamecocks Aim For 'Heels

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY TAR HEEL
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 13 — South Carolina's Gamecocks, finding one of the best records in the school's history within grasp, need a victory over North Carolina here Saturday afternoon more than they have ever needed one in the history of the 49-year-old series.

The Gamecocks haven't beaten the Tar Heels often, only four times in 27 attempts, but this (See FOOTBALL, page 4) roduce before the National Rules Committee a radical innovation to eliminate stalling tactics from the collegiate sports. He would base the halves on points rather than minutes. When one team had scored 40 points the half would end and when one had scored 80 the game would be over.

NEW YORK—The United Press put six Brooklyn ball players on its National League All-Star team, but, as usual, Stan Musial led the vote casting. Robin Roberts was named on all but one ballot but Musial was a unanimous choice. The Dodger winners were Duke Snider, Joe Black, Gil Hodges, Pee Wee Reese, Billy Cox, and Roy Campanella.

KANSAS CITY—The NCAA yesterday announced plans to increase the number of teams for its basketball tournament and at the same time shorten the season and reduce post-season competition.

SYDNEY, Australia—Vic Seixas, former Carolina tennis star made ready to defend his crown in the New South Wales tennis tournament. He and Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif. will play singles matches and then team in the doubles.
