

Carolina Trounces VMI, 79-62

LEXINGTON, Va., Jan. 8—In a game marred by 46 fouls, Carolina's Southern Conference leaders jumped their league record to hit on 10 field goals and one free throw here tonight to be the game's high scorer with 21 points.

The Tar Heels will meet Washington and Lee at Lexington tonight before returning home tomorrow.

6-0 by whipping VMI's outmanned Cadets, 79-62 here tonight.

With their slight cocaptain Vinnie Grimaldi again leading the scoring, the Tar Heels held VMI at bay until the final period and then put on a scoring spree to clinch the victory over the underdog Cadets.

Grimaldi, whose season average is well over 17 points per game,

Al Lifson was second high for the Tar Heels, getting 16 points. Bud Maddie was the only other Tar Heel to hit double figures, scoring 13 points, nine of them on free throws.

Although hampered by a cold Grimaldi was effective all the way against VMI: The Tar Heels entered the final period with only an 11-point lead, 59-48. But they followed Grimaldi's scoring example in the final quarter, outscored the Cadets, 20-14, to easily take their eighth win of the season.

VMI had the distinction of scoring the first basket, but the Tar Heels soon overtook that small lead and went out in front never to be headed again. The halftime score stood 43-32 in Carolina's favor. Only in the third period could the Cadets match the Tar Heels, both teams scoring 16 points.

A small crowd turned out for the game which was preceded by a battle between the junior varsities of the two schools.

Carolina took that game, too, with its jayvees winning handily, 80-71. Jerry McCabe and Harold Bowden paced the Tar Baby scoring with 22 points apiece.

VMI committed 26 of the 46 fouls in the varsity game and had two men, Tait and Klinar, to foul out. Paul Likins, Carolina's reserve center, was the only Tar Heel to be waived from the game.

Swimmers Go To Bainbridge Today For Meet Tomorrow

By Benny Stewart

The Carolina swimming team leaves early this morning for Bainbridge, Md. where it will face the Bainbridge Naval Training Station in a dual meet tomorrow night.

Coach Ralph Casey will take twelve men on the trip, with several of them being used in two or three events.

Carolina's chances of a victory in the 300-yard medley will depend on Buddy Baarcke, Donnie Evans, and Stanley Tinkham, who have shown up well in two previous meets.

In the individual medley, Evans and Tommy Gill will carry the Tar Heel hopes. Gill will also swim in the 440-meter event.

Jack Edwards and Buddy Heins will attempt to roll up points in the 50-meter, while Bob Linker and Charles Wolf are hopeful of a victory in the 100-meter.

Joe Kelso who has won easily in previous competition, will probably face a tougher test in the diving events.

In the back-stroke, Warren Heeman and Ed Jewell will be Coach Casey's choices: Chances for a win in the breast-stroke competition will depend on how well Evans and Wolf perform.

Gym Team Meets Navy

The North Carolina gymnastic team goes on the road this morning and will meet Navy at Annapolis tonight in an inter-sectional match.

Navy, one of the strongest teams in the Eastern Intercollegiate League, is a heavy favorite to take the Tar Heels.

Coach Bill Meade's team is led by co-captains Check Goodin and Andy Bell. Goodin is expected to make a good score on the high bar, while Bell is also outstanding. Other Tar Heels expected to perform well are Gordon Hudson on the horse and Bill Rivera on the flying rings.

FRESH SWIMMERS

Freshman swimming practice has started again and Coach Dick Jamerson has asked that all freshmen interested report to the pool at 4:00 any afternoon next week.

Tinkham carry the Tar Heel hopes in relay competition.

After the Bainbridge meet, Carolina returns home, playing host to Ga. Tech on Jan. 17.

State - Duke

Although the Tar Heels will be playing away this weekend, Carolina students will still have an opportunity to witness one of the state's better cage attractions when N. C. State and Duke square off tomorrow night at 8:00 in Duke Indoor Stadium. The Duke ticket office reports that plenty of seats are still available for the game.

"In these days when much is said about 'adult education,' we too often forget that a great deal of adult education is daily carried on by such instruments of public information as The Reader's Digest. In my judgment, The Reader's Digest is one of the powerful and useful forces shaping the thinking of our people in these difficult times."

The articles in each issue of The Reader's Digest cover a broad range of subjects: from travel and politics to science and history, from humor and personal inspiration to headline news. Forty or more articles and a host of short subjects, carefully chosen from hundreds of publications, bring Digest readers more varied and more concentrated information than can be found in any other magazine.

New Tickets Are Needed For Deac Tilt

Carolina students, instructors, and employees who hold athletic passbooks will have to exchange tickets from those passbooks for regular tickets for four upcoming basketball games.

For the Wake Forest game in Woollen Gym on Jan. 20 holders of passbooks ending in odd numbers will have first chance to exchange their passbooks for regular tickets. They should exchange them at the Gym ticket office next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Holders of passbooks ending in even numbers will then have a chance for the remaining tickets. They can exchange for regular tickets next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

The same system will be used for the N. C. State, New York University and Duke games here, too. Holders of passbooks ending in even numbers will have first chance to exchange for tickets for Duke and NYU while those with books ending in odd numbers will have first call for tickets to the State game.

Carolina plays Duke here on Feb. 6, NYU on Feb. 7, and State on Feb. 21. Exchange dates for those games will be decided upon later.

Ticket officials urged that all who are interested in seeing the Wake Forest game exchange their passbook for tickets as soon as possible. The ticket office will be open all next week from 9-4:30.
