

Tar Heels Tame Cats, 71-60; Junior Varsity Loses

Vayda Leads UNC Quintet With Eighteen

By Tom Peacock

The Carolina basketball team eased through a slight threat by the Davidson Wildcats to a spotless Southern Conference record, 71-60, last night in Woolen Gym.

Freshman Jerry Vayda resumed his scoring pace of early season to take honors for the Tar Heels with 18 points. Wildcat Captain Joe Carolina will meet Virginia Military Institute in another Southern Conference game at 8:00 in Woolen Gym tonight.

Dudley was the game's high scorer with 20 points.

Carolina grabbed a 5-point lead to open the first quarter and held on to that margin for most of the remainder of the game.

The Wildcats narrowed Carolina's lead to 13-11 at the end of the first period, but a scoring threat by Al Lifson and Bob Phillips increased Carolina's margin to 18-12 at the start of the second period.

Davidson's Gerald King tied for second high honors, equalling Vayda's 18-point total. Carolina's Lifson hit for 16 and Co-Captain Vince Grimaldi's pace cooled down to 13.

The difference in the game was the foul shooting, with UNC missing only 10 free throws while the Wildcats miscued on 20. The Tar Heels had a 37 per cent shooting average from the floor, hitting on 12 shots out of 71 attempts.

Carolina co-Captain Jack Wallace returned to the lineup and made a brief appearance in last night's game, his first since leaving the team with appendicitis.

Imps Trounce JV's, 105-47, At Duke Gym

DURHAM, Jan. 13.—(Special)—Duke's junior varsity basketball team ran Carolina's JayVees off the court here tonight, whipping the out-classed Tar Babies by the one-sided count of 105-47.

With every player except one on the squad hitting for at least two points, the Blue Imps scored at least 20 in each of the four periods.

The junior varsity will meet Duke again at 6:00 tonight at Woolen Gym in a game preceding the varsity's game with VMI.

to thrash Carolina in this little Big Four game which preceded the clash between the Duke and VMI varsities.

The Tar Heels were never able to get a consistent scoring attack going, their greatest effort being the 19 points they scored in the first period. In both the second and fourth quarters the Blue Imps held their visitors to a meager six points.

Tom Shores and Glen Stephenson were the only two Tar Babies to hit in the double column. Shores had 15 and Stephenson 13 to collect over half of their team's points.

Although there was little doubt as to the outcome of the game

Carolina's wrestlers, winners of one meet this season, meet Duke at Durham tonight in a benefit March of Dimes program at the Duke Gym.

The Tar Heels equaled their output for last year by defeating Davidson, 17-11, in a match last quarter. The Carolina team won one match while losing nine last season.

But Coach Sam Barnes has an improved squad over his 1952 team and the Tar Heels are given a good chance of taking their second straight win.

No admission will be charged for the match, which will be preceded by the finals of the Duke intramural tournament. Instead contributions to the March of Dimes will be sought.

Coach Barnes will rely on a good many veterans in an attempt to beat the Blue Devils, with co-captains Harry Pawlik and Ed Haines

WAKE TICKETS

Today is the last day that students, professors, and employees of the University holding pass books ending in odd numbers can exchange their passbooks for regular tickets to the Wake Forest game next Tuesday.

Students with pass books ending in even numbers will have a chance to get tickets starting tomorrow.

IN SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

Tar Heels Lead Conference With State, Deacons Close

Coach Frank McGuire's Tar Heels are leading the Southern Conference pack as the cage season approaches the half-way mark. However, they are closely followed by N.C. State and Wake Forest, deadlocked for second place.

The Tar Heels, winners of eight games with no defeats, meet two more Southern Conference foes this week, playing host to V.M.I. and traveling to Maryland for a Saturday night contest.

N. C. State, boasting six wins against one loss in Conference play, takes on William and Mary and George Washington in games this week. The latter encounter is the Conference "game of the week" as the Colonials have a respectable 7-2 mark in Conference activity.

Other teams which may place in the Conference tournament are West Virginia with six wins and two losses, and Maryland, with five victories against one loss.

Important Conference games this week, besides the State-GW tussle, find Wake Forest at Clemson and William and Mary at Richmond.

J. Paul Shedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

HERE'S a sad Lobster tale. Shedy was really in hot water. His girl kept saying, "The Maine thing I don't like about you is the way you pot your hair! Haven't you read about Wildroot Cream-Boil Hair Tonic? Non-alcoholic. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Perfect for you 'claws you need Lanolin on that water-soaked hair." Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he shone looks slick. In fact, he's in salad with every girl on campus. So if you're net-tled about your messy hair, butter shell out 29¢ at any toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. "Your Hair's Best Friend." Ask for it at your barber's, antenna to one you'll be tickled pink!

being two of his standouts.

Pawlik is a junior and went to the finals of the Southern Conference consolations last year before being forced to forfeit his match because of broken ribs.

Other lettermen who will help are Earl Kendric, a sophomore, Tom Stokes, Pete McGehee, Harvey Bradshaw, Bill Hill, and Andy Holt.

In reserve Barnes will have Gordon Forrester, Arthur Gregory and Miles Gregory. Miles Gregory, a member of the football team this past fall, wrestled in 1950 before going back into the Marines.

The Tar Heels, who placed seventh in the Conference tourney last year, will meet Virginia here on Saturday.
