

Carolina Meets First Place Deacons In Big Four Opener

By Tom Peacock

North Carolina's Tar Heels, unseated from first place in Southern Conference basketball standings by Maryland University Saturday night, meets Wake Forest, the present number one team, in Woolen Gym tonight.

Tonight's game will be the first Big Four contest that the Tar Heels have played this season. Carolina now has a 9-1 record in Conference play, while the Deacons have a 6-0 slate, including a win over North Carolina State, eighth ranking team in the nation.

Carolina's high scoring guard and co-captain Vince Grimaldi is expected to start tonight, but he will still be favoring a shoulder that was bruised a week ago against Washington and Lee and has been re-injured twice since.

The Tar Heels will be meeting the highest scorer in the Conference in Wake Forest's Dickie Hemric, a sophomore sensation who scored 33 points in his last outing. Hemric and his teammate Jack Williams have been largely responsible for the Deacons excellent, 12-3 season record. Williams is the second highest scorer in the Big Four and Grimaldi is fourth behind State's Bobby Speight.

Carolina head coach Frank McGuire will probably go along with his usual starting lineup tonight of Grimaldi and Al Lifson at guards, freshman Jerry Vayda, at forward and Bud Maddie at center. The other forward post may go to Bob Phillips, or co-captain Jack Wallace may start at guard and Lifson will switch to forward. Wallace is still recuperating from an appendectomy.

Wake Forest coach Murray Greason says that he never expected his Deacons to be in first place in the middle of January, but he thinks they have a good chance of staying there. As for Carolina, Greason said "... they've got a fine team. The Tar Heels have rebound power we haven't seen in some of the other clubs we've played, and they have a lot of hustle."

The Deacs are still about 10-point favorites to keep their record spotless in Conference play tonight, but the Tar Heels are upset minded after being nosed out, 68-66, on two last second foul shots by Maryland. Carolina had defeated the Terps earlier in the season, 59-49.

Besides the scoring threat of Hemric and Williams, Greason has an experienced and tall starting lineup with Al DePorter, Ray Liptas, and Maurice George rounding out the lineup.

Wake Forest, Carolina JV's To Meet In Prelim Tonight

Carolina's junior varsity will open tonight's action against Wake Forest in Woolen Gym, meeting the Deaclets in a preliminary game at 6:00.

Although decisively beaten by the Duke jayvees in their last two outings, the Tar Babies will probably be favored tonight. They defeated Wake Forest 82-75, in a game played before the Christmas holidays.

In that game the Tar Babies had to overcome an erratic first half to get by the Deaclets. Tom Shores, Gerald McCabe and Jack Woods led the scoring in that game, Woods with 15 and McCabe and Shores with 14.

The Tar Babies have a 3-4 record going into tonight's game. In addition to the Baby Deacs they have defeated VMI and Washington and Lee but have lost two to Duke, one to Elon College, and one to Raleigh High School.

The Blue Imps have made it the hardest on the junior varsity, trouncing the Carolina team, 105-47, last Tuesday night in Durham and then coming to Woolen Gym the next night to win, 98-67. The Tar Babies played both Elon and Raleigh on even terms most of the way but eventually bowed in both.

In addition to McCabe and Shores, Glen Stephenson has helped the Carolina scoring. The big center got nine points against the Deaclets in the first game here.

Although Duke and N. C. State appear to hold the edge in the little Big Four race, a win for the Tar Babies tonight would put them back into the running. Their record is now 1-2.

Opportunities in Optometry

Optometry is a profession offering special advantages to ambitious young men and women. Its scope is constantly expanding. Eighty per cent of the Nation's millions depend upon the Doctor of Optometry and his professional skill in conserving vision. There is a shortage of optometrists in many states.

The Doctor of Optometry possesses the dignity of being a professional man. He renders an essential service to the health and well-being of his community. Substantial financial rewards are obtainable almost from the beginning of his practice.

U. S. Department of Defense and Selective Service grant optometry students the same consideration accorded medical students.

The Doctor of Optometry degree can be earned in three college years by a student having sixty or more semester hours of Liberal Arts credits. Such students will be admitted at mid-year by Chicago College of Optometry.

Chicago College of Optometry is centrally located in the heart of the world's greatest center for teaching in the healing arts. It is nationally accredited and is splendidly equipped. Clinical facilities are unsurpassed.

Tennis Pros Will Play Here

By Vardy Buckalew

The World Championship Tennis Tour, promoted by Jack Kramer and starring Kramer, Frank Sedgman, Ken MacGregor, and Pancho Segura, will make a one night stand in Chapel Hill on February 23 in Woolen Gym.

The tour, which features matches between Sedgman and Kramer, and McGregor and Segura, is currently making a tour of the United States and following that will broaden its travels to include a major part of the world.

Sedgman and McGregor were the two top amateurs in the world before their recent decision to play the game for money. Both are from Australia and recently teamed up to hand the American Davis Cup team one of its worst defeats in history. That was their last appearance as amateurs.

The show will get under way at 7:30 with the Segura, McGregor match. Following that will be the feature match of the evening, between Kramer and Sedgman. To conclude the program there will be a doubles match between Kramer and Segura and Sedgman and McGregor. Seats for the matches will go on sale in the athletic ticket office sometime this week. Students with their pass books may get tickets for $1.25 with general admission tickets being $1.75. There will be approximately 1,500 student and general admission tickets. The remainder of the seats, approximately 2,300, will be reserved and will sell for $2.50.

The matches will be played on a canvas mat which the pros will bring with them and will be put up in the approximate position of the basketball court in the gym. Spectators will use the same seats which are now in use for the basketball games.

The pros are playing the major cities of the United States now and Chapel Hill will be the only town of less than 100,000 in which they will stop. They will play in Richmond the night before coming here.

The tour was arranged by Kramer, who was the world's top amateur before turning professional about five years ago. He signed the two Australians to contracts guaranteeing Sedgman $75,000 and McGregor $25,000. Kramer and Segura will make nothing until they have cleared these amounts.

There had been nine matches between the four principles through Sunday night and Sedgman is leading Kramer 6-3 in their series. McGregor has yet to beat the squat Segura who hits the ball with both hands on the racket.

In the doubles, the Kramer-Segura combination holds an edge over the other pair.

Council Gives Names Today

Recommendations on the appointment of a new Carolina head football coach will be formally made by the Athletic Council to Chancellor Robert B. House today. They were not completed until yesterday.

Council chairman A. W. Hobbs declined to divulge the recommendations but it was understood that they included not only a head coach but at least one assistant. Chancellor House would make no comment other than to say that approval must be obtained from the executive committee of the board of trustees.

It was not clear when action by the trustees would be taken.

There was no comment from any official source here about the report from Washington today that Marvin Bass had resigned his line coaching post with the Washington Redskins to join the North Carolina staff. Officials also have been noncommittal over the widespread reports that George Bar-

Bass Free

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. (Special) — Marvin Bass, assistant coach to the Washington Redskins this past season got his release from that team here today and is expected to join the staff of the University of North Carolina soon.

Redskin owner George Marshall, who issued the statement, did not say when he thought Bass would sign with the Tar Heels, who have yet to name their new head coach.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U. S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—

your opportunities for advancement are unlimited

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks! HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details: Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. OR WRITE TO: AVIATION CADET HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.
